For the "Raftsman's Journal." Lines on the Death of "Wesse" B and Annie M

'Tis hard to part with those we love, Though 'tis the Savior's will: But if we always heavenward move, We can behold them still.

'Tis sweet to look on them in death, And think of where they've gone; Were they not numbered with the dead, Still suffering would be borne.

Deep in the earth they now are laid, The mould is on them spread-To him that form'd-to him that made, Their spirits both have fled.

And now dear parents, weep no more For those we know you love; Bright angels welcomed "Wesie" home, To that bright world above.

Sweet Annie too, is now with God, Her spirit rose on high, And there she will forever be An angel in the sky.

SENATOR GWIN'S TALK WITH BUCHANAN,-The correspondent of the New York Evening Post says that the President asked Senator Gwin the other day, "How comes on the Pacific Railroad Bill?" The Senator replied : "A good deal mixed, Mr. President. I am certain, Sir, if you had done half as much to forward the measure (the justness of which you never expressed a doubt about) as you did to urge the passage of Lecompton (the righteousness of which you did think doubtful) a Pacific Railroad would to-day be a reality, so far as its passage is concerned." The President | Made up work always on hand. changed the subject.

One of the churches in Columbus, Ohio, is supplied with quite respectable parlors, near its entrance, where once a month or oftener, the members of the congregation meet in social circle, have a good supper, and enjoy each other's smiles and conversation to the fullest extent. A tax of a dime or a quarter from each attendant provides for the expense, and gives a large sum annually for the support of the church. At Columbus, in the church to which we refer, $600 was raised in one year.

A BLOCKADE OF THE U. S .- A pamphlet has just appeared in Paris, entitled "A Letter to His Majesty the Emperor, on French Influence in America." The writer, who styles himself "A Man of the Latin Race," recommends that the United States be immediately blockaded, "and you will see these feeble and imbecile people cat each other up. Shut them out from the rest of the world, and they will soon disappear from the face of the earth." It is quite clear that all the fools are not dead yet.

THE TONNAGE TAX .- The Philadelphia Press has been reliably informed that the Fennsylvania Railroad Company refuse to pay the tonrage tax, imposed by their charter, to the commonwealth, and intend to test its constitutionality in the courts, as advised by their counsel, Messrs. Cuyley, Meredith and Crittenden, in an opinion recently published. The amount due at the present time, for the last months, is over one hundred thousand

The Vicksburg, Mississippi, Sun of the 4th ult., informs us that a runaway negro was caught at Black Hawk, a few days age, with the hand of a white man in his pocket, It is said the negro confessed that he had exumed the body, and cut the hand off the dead man's arm, to act as a charm in keeping the dogs from following his track, and on the strength of his confession he was hung. A white silk glove was on the hand when it was found.

Dr. Garman of Berlin, Somerset county, a short time since captured a squirrel, which is something of a curiosity in its way. It is entirely white with the exception of four or five red hairs on the end of its chin. It belongs to the "Pine" or "chickaree" species, and has become quite tame since its captivity.

The celebrated "Randall" suit in Kanawha county, Va., has been decided in favor of Josiah Randall. To M. Mauperturis, one of the French claimants, the Court decreed 300,-000 acres of the land in controversy. Mr. Randall recovers about 2,000,000 acres of land in Western Virginia.

An Indian has been discovered in California, five feet and a half high, and weighing only sixteen pounds, being a mere skeleton, but in good health and lively. This is supposed to be the veritable, "Lo, the poor Indian."

It is estimated by the Postmaster General that $13,000,000 will be required to meet the expenses of the department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1860.

THE "GREAT REPUBLIC" MONTH-LY .- To the Public, the Book and Periodical Trade, and the Press .- We have the honor to announce that we shall issue on or about the 1st of December, 1858, so as to be in season to command the early attention of the public and periodical trade, the first number of a new Illustrated Magzine, to be called The Great Republic' Monthly

It is intended to make this magazine superior in every respect to anything ever before issued in this country. The general scope of its character can best be understood by its name. It will be thoroughly national—in no wise sectarian, and wholly impersonal. It will offer to the writers and thinkers of this Union a common field, where they can meet on the highest ground of cotemporary literature. It will aim to gather about it every variety of intellect. The range of articles will be a wide one, covering, among other grounds. Essays Sketches, Humerons Tales, Stories, Historical Incidents, Reviews, Critiques, Biographies, Scientific Articles, Travels, Table Talk, Dramas, Politics Poems, Ballads, Stanzas, Sonnets, Music, Correspondence, Gossip, etc., etc. The Magazine will be profusely illustrated in the highest style of wood engraving. The Literary department will present greater variety, combined with more thorough ex-cellence, it is believed, than ever before offered in the American public in a single periodical. Each number will contain an original piece of music, composed expressly for this work. Of the superior excellence of the Magazine in every respect, and of the certainty of its permanent success, very little more need be said. The Terms and general

256 44 133 25 61 50 conditions of the magazine will be as follows:
240 79 101 63 22 00 Volumes—There will be two volumes a year, of about 700 royal octave pages each, commencing in January and July, and ending in June and December, respectively, making six numbers to cach, volume, and twelve numbers to each year.
