TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF DR. LORAIN. At a meeting of the members of the Medical Profession of Clearfield county, held March 9, 1859, at the office of Dr. R. V. Wilson, in the Borough of Clearfield, there were present, Drs. M. Wood, R. V. Wilson, D. O. Crouch, H. P. Thompson, G. F. Hoop, George Wilson and J. G. Hartswick.

The object of the meeting being stated, it was organized as follows: Dr. R. V. Wilson in the chair, and Dr. D. O. Crouch, Secretary. On motion, the following was adopted as the sentiment of the meeting :

WHEREAS, Almighty God has been pleased to remove from our midst, our friend and brother, HENRY LORAIN, M. D., we doem it our duty to offer this tribute to the memory and character of the deceased.

Professional eminence crowned the life and labors of the late Dr. Lorain. Enjoying in the outset, as a student of medicine, distinguished advantages, he laid the foundation of what proved afterwards to be a long, useful, and honorable career. Thirty-five years of professional toil and devotion, secured him a name and place high up in the roll of medical men. As the brother-in-law and pupil of the late Prof. Dewees, of the University of Pennsylvania, he sat at the feet of a great medical Gamaliel.

Most men, in most vocations, have individualily. Dr. Lorain was distinguished by marked cent for-to be called in, was for him to go at once. Nothing delayed or prevented him. Despatch was not only the word, but the act. Quick to decide, and generalty prompt to execute, he would go, prescribe, and possibly be half-way back, before many a tardy practitioner would be well on the way. He accomplished a great deal, in a short time. Delay or inattention was never laid to his charge. The summons to the bedside of the poor was obeved with as much alacrity, as that to the more favored of fortune-and their grateful tears bedew his memory. Though his field of labor was wide and rough, he never hesitated. His habit was energy; and so it continued to be until his bodily infirmities began to bear upon him. In these respects, his example is valuable and instructive. Let his juniors and survivors in the profession follow his example.

The above testimony to the merits of a venerable and eminent man, is heartily felt, and it is believed, truthfully expressed-and it is due to ourselves that we publicly acknowledge the worth of the deceased. It is due, and justly, to his memory and family circle-his sons, daughters and kindred well deserve it at our hands; Therefore it is

Resolved. That we acknowledge devoutly the hand of God in this dispensation. Resolved. That in the preceding act, we discharge a personal, social, and moral duty. Resolved, That while, as a physician, his practical ability and judgment secured a deservedly high position, his courtesy and candour won for him the esteem and confidence of all his associates.

Resolved. That as a man, we bear testimony to his integrity in all his relations to the community in which he lived.

Resolved, That while we deplore his death and feel for his afflicted family the deepest sympathy, we rejoice in the hope that he is in the enjoyment of a blessed immortality.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be presented to the family of the deceased and that they be sent to the press for publica-R. V. Wilson, Prest. D. O. Crouch, Secretary.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a special communication of Clearfield Lodge No. 314 A. Y. M., held in Clearfield, March 8th, 1859, Bros. R. J. Wallace, Alex'r. McLeod and John McGaughey were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of the members of the Lodge upon the death of Bro. Henry Lorain, M. D., a woman being in the same predicament? who submitted the following Report, which

WHEREAS, the Supreme Architect of the Universe hath seen fit to call our brother workman, HENRY LORAIN, from the labors of Earth, for the first time in the history of this Lodge severing one of the links in our golden chain of brotherhood, Therefore be it Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Lorain, we are called upon to mourn the extinguishment of one of the bright lights of our fraternity, which leaves a void in our little band that cannot be re-filled.

Resolved, That while we have cause to lament the death of the Brother by whose side we have been accustomed to sit in our lodgeroom, we bow with submission to the will of .. Him who doeth all things well," the blow being softened by the remembrance of the worth of the deceased, and his attachment to our fraternity.

Revolved. That we reverence the memory of the dead, and desire to mingle our tributes, with the funeral offerings which others will lay upon his grave. An afflicted family sob over, and a grateful people, around whose beds of sickness he has ministered for more than one-third of a century, will be stirred with sorrow, for Earth has never pillowed upon her bosom a man more devoted in his profession, nor our fraternity ever lodged one more attached to the principles of Masonry. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, under the seal of the Lodge, be presented to the family of the deceased Brother. R. J. WALLACE, Com. ALEX'R MCLEOD, JOHN MCGAUGHEY, Attest-L. J. Crans, Sec'y.

Storm .- A heavy rain and wind storm passed over this neighborhood last Friday night. The wind blew a perfect gale, and caused buildings to shake and rock. Not much damage, of which we have heard, was however done. The roof was blown from the barn of Mr. William Leonard, in Goshen township, and we are told that in one or two instances buildings were slightly moved on their foundations. It

The bulk of the square timber, boards, shingles, &c., has psssed down the stream, and by this time "the red shirts" are doubtless becoming plenty in Lock Haven, Middletown. Marietta, and other places along the river. Our former impressions regarding the quantity of lumber that will reach market were nearly correct. From all the information we can gather, we are satisfied that not over twothirds the usual quantity will be taken down. This is owing in a great measure to the comparative searcity of snow during the past winter. The tendency of this falling off in the supply will be to increase prices to remunera-

It is also reported that a raft belonging to Arthur Bell, Esq., of this county, was "stoved" at the "Big Pitch," another belonging to Jas. B.
