CLEARFIELD, PA., MARCH 23, 1859.

LOCOFOCO STATE CONVENTION.

This body met at Harrisburg on last Wed. nesday, to nominate a State ticket, and orransact such other business as might be brought before it." Over one hundred delegates were in attendance, more than two-thirds of whom happened to be Lecomptonites. Among them were found the Collector of the Port at Philadelphia, the Naval Storekeeper and one of the first Costom House officers, and other favorites of the Administration in that city; the Collector of the Port at Erie, the Collector at Pittsburg, Postmasters, ex-Paymasters, ex-Canal Commissioners, and "sich like cattle" in abundance. Senator Bigler, Col. Sam. W. Black, Governor of Nebraska and special envoy from the President, and other "distinguished" outsiders were also present. With the aid of such friends and operators, it does not surprise us that the resolutions adopted by this Convention approve Mr. Buchanan's Administration-his Cuba project with the restadvocate incidental protection to the iron and coal Interests, and sustain the President's views on the Tariff-profess to support the doctrine of popular sovereignty-are in favor of "an honest (?) and economical (?) administration of the affairs of the Commonwealth"recommend the establishment of an independent treasury for the safe-keeping of the money of the Commonwealth-approve of Senator Bigler's course in Congress, and oppose the granting of corporate privileges. A reso-Intion, approving of the State policy of Gov. Packer, was violently opposed by the Buchaneers, and finally voted down by a large majority-yeas 37, nays 84. R. L. Wright, of Philadelphia, was nominated for Auditor Gen-

Gov. Packer and his administration were not deliberately repudiated and insulted by this Convention, because of the policy adopted in our State affairs. His bitterest enemies in it admitted the Governor's ability, and the general correctness of his course; but still they condemned him, and that was done on account of his Anti-Lecomptonism. Though we do not like the manner in which his friends tried to obtain even a partial endorsement, we do not see that Gov. Packer has much to lose by being rebuked by a packed convention, the most active spirits of which were federal place and patronage seekers and disappointed applicants for the favor of the State Government, and whose highest ambition at present seems to be to bolster up the National Administration, with all its corruptions, its usurpations, its extravagances and manifest outrages upon the people and the constitution. That the Governor and his friends cannot remain in and support a party which has derisively driven them forth, without sacrificing their manbood and the respect of all high-minded and honorable men, is very apparent; and that they will not, is clearly indicated by the following paragraph from the State Sentiael, the Governor's new organ at Harrisburgh :

eral, and John Rowe for Surveyor General.

"The next number of our paper will open up a new chapter in its history. We have taken off our coat for the war and intend to carry it even to the very threshold of the Le- right to claim such exemption may be waivcompton Camp! The time-honored principles of Democracy must be preserved; and the glorious old flag of our party snatched from the struggle, for it will be a contest between Right and Error-Patriotism and Treason."

Pretty plain talk that, we should say, and forbodes the certain defeat of the ticket put in nomination, at the election in October.

Mr. Michael Walsh, a well-known Democrat. was found dead, on the 17th inst., in the upper part of New York city. He had apparently fallen down the stone steps of a cellar, but as his costly gold watch, a heavy gold chain, a diamond ring, and all his money, were missing, it is evident he was robbed, and in all probability murdered. Mr. Walsh was once a member of Congress, and also of the Legislature. He was a radical opponent of teetotalism, and looked upon grog-shops as "the nurseries of Democracy." He was intoxicated when last seen alive. So says the Tribune.

Quite a disturbance took place, on the 16th inst., at the Elliot street school, in Boston, Massachusetts, in consequence of some three hundred children of Roman Catholic parentage, refusing to join in chanting the Lord's Prayer, and repeating the ten commandments, in conformity with the rules of the public schools of that city. A large number of the scholars were dismissed in consequence. It is alleged that some of the children acted under the instructions of their parents and the Church—the children themselves saying so.

On last Thursday, the 17th, an indictment for murder was found against the Hon. Daniel E. Sickles, by the Grand Jury, in Washington City. No proceedings will be taken against Mr. Butterworth. It is said that the trial will disclose an amount of scandal, hitherto undreamed of, and will bring many new characters before the public. We doubt whether Sickles will be found guilty, although every body knows that he did kill Key; and if he is, he will in all probability be pardoned by pointed to succeed the notorious Judge Le-President Buchanan.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

Special correspondence of the Raftsman's Journal. MARCH 19, 1859. S. B. Row, Esq .- Dear Sir : I thought a day or two ago you were on my track, sure, when the book-keeper of the Hotel told me that a good looking little fellow with a red shirt on, who looked as if he had come down on a raft, had called to see me. It was a mistake, however, as it was not you, and I was not the man he was looking for.

You are assured that I was mistaken in my views regarding the Farmer's High School. I generally make it a point to inform myself pretty well on subjects I speak of in a loose manner. Please ask your informant whether the contractor for erecting the buildings gave bonds for the performance of his contract at a stimulated price, and if so, how it happens that he was released from the fulfilment of his contract, after all the available means was handed over to him? When the proper time arrives you shall hear from me on this subject. [If there is anything wrong about the disposition of the funds appropriated to the institution, let us have it. The public have a right to

The Pine county project was, much to my surprise, re-considered on Monday. Still I have no idea that it will pass the Senate, although it may now go through the House.

The removal men have renewed their exertions. Yesterday Senators Gazzam and Cresswell presented several remonstrances against the measure, while Senator Gregg presented two petitions in favor. Once for all, I say, no bill will be passed this session allowing a vote on the question. I say this whether I give offence to any of your readers or not.

The Democratic Convention which assembled in this place on Wednesday last was, take it as a whole, rather a gay affair. It was most magnificently packed with recipients of Governmental pap, and Custom House "roughs," and Gov. Bigler and Coi. S. W. Black were sent here from Washington expressly to fix things. The former it is said brought on resolutions in his breeches pocket. They were intensely Buchanan, and also landed Senator Bigler, slightly. A resolution endorsing Gov. Packer was voted down by a vote of 84 to 37 -a proceeding which will defeat the ticket nominated by a terrible majority. But then, the primary object of this packed convention was to give aid and comfort to an Administration exceedingly "weak in the knees," even by sacrificing a couple of good men like Richardson L. Wright and John Rowe.

The law of 1849, which exempts $300 worth of property from levy and sale, has within a few years past been rendered almost a nullity by a decision of the Supreme Court, which is that a waiver given for a consideration at the time, is legal. Hence no notes are any longer taken in small monetary transactions unless the exemption is waived. This works most ruinously for the poor man, who, unable to meet a waived note may have every article in his house swept away to satisfy a judgment. A supplement to remedy this, and secure to the family that amount, came up in the Senate a week ago, and is still pending, as follows: Section I. Be it enacted, &c., That the widow or children of any decedent entitled to retain three hundred dollars out of such decedent's estate by the laws of this Commonwealth, and every person entitled to the exemption provided for in the act entitled "An act to exempt property to the value of three hundred dollars from levy and sale on execu-tion for distress for rent," approved the ninth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, may elect to retain the same or any part thereof out of any bank notes, money, stocks, judgments or other indebtedness to such person: Provided. That the same shall be taken at its nominal value without appraisement.

Sec. 2. That any person otherwise entitled to the exemption provided for in this act and the act to which this act is a supplement, shall not be deprived thereof in consequence of any contract hereafter made by which the ed or reduced.

Mr. Palmer moved to strike out the proviso in the first section, and insert : "And that in hand of the Trailors who have already well all cases hereafter, when property shall be set nigh despoiled it of its glory. Let the frue apart for the widow and children of any dece-NATIONAL DEMOCRACY of Pennsylvania put on | dent, the same shall be appraised and set apart the armor and gird up their loins for the great to said widow and children by the appraisers of the other personal estate of said decedent.'

This was agreed to. To the second section Mr. Palmer moved to add : Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to contracts made for the renting of a dwelling house, or for other things necessary for the support and maintenance of the wife or family of any such person. After a long discussion this was adoptedyeas 18, nays 10.

This bill will come up again on Monday next, and I have little doubt of its passage.

The Committee on divorces have not yet made a report. The minority, however, has. It consists of J. Heron Foster, soins, and he has already had his report published in a Philadelphia Sunday paper. But it won't do-the divorce will be granted-at least so I think now, for even law makers are not proof against the entreaties of a pretty woman.

Gen. Duff Green's bill was reconsidered yesterday, and I presume in a day or two we shall see the monster turn up like another Sampson, sheared of its powerful strength.

PREPARED FOR THE "RAPTSMAN'S JOURNAL." CAMBRIA COUNTY .- The barn of Mr. Peter Wible, in Carroll township, was destroyed by fire on the 11th March. The fire originated in a smoke house adjoining the barn. The barn was filled with grain, hay, &c. The loss rye, a threshing machine and about $100 worth of meat-total loss $1,000. . . . Mrs. Mary Powell, wife of David Powell, Esq., of that she died on the following Saturday. She was upwards of 60 years of age. Mr. Powell, on retiring, had left his wife sitting by the fire, and being aroused by her screams, found her enveloped in flames. Her legs, arms and body were burned in a shocking manner. . . . A little fellow by the name of Duffy fell from

In a bruised and lacerated condition, he managed to scramble up again and get to a lock-house not far

BLAIR COUNTY .- On Saturday the 18th inst., the remains of a well-developed and matured child, wrapped in a ticking pillow-case, were found in the old, abandoned Bennington Railroad cut, at the east end of Hollidaysburg and it is the opinion that the child had been killed by strangulation. . . . A little daughter of a Mr. Weston of Ironsville, aged about 10 clothes catching fire whilst she and some other children were playing with that dangerous element, on their play-ground near her home. . . A little son of Mr. Levi Shearer, of East Freedom, fell into a tan-vat at that place on Sunday the 13th and drowned. . . . Two horses were stolen from Messrs, Lloyd & Co. at Allegheny Furnace on the night of the 12th inst. A reward of $75 is offered.

INDIANA COUNTY .- The store of Andrew W Weamer, in Newville, was robbed of about $80 worth of clothing and some small change on the night of the 7th March. . . . The horse which was stolen from Mr. Keener, of Shelocta, several weeks ago, was recovered a few days since, in Pittsburgh, having been left at a stable to be fed for several days. . . . Jamison & Co., started tives in this Convention, earnestly invite the from Indiana borough with 97 head of mules. to which 55 were added at other points in the county, destined for Leavenworth, to be employed in conveying the mail to Pike's Peak. Mr. Joseph Diven recently lost a mare $4 years old, which had foaled seventeen coltsa rare and valuable animal, indeed.

VENANGO COUNTY .- On Saturday evening, the 5th inst., David Dable and his three sons, Joseph K., Amos P., and Christian Dahle, were committed to jail by Justice Bunce, on information of J. Eckaburger, charging them with having caused the death of his son, aged thirteen years, on the 28th ult. Dahles, it appears, had been engaged in rolling logs down a "slide" at a saw mill, and Eckabarger's boy having got in the way a log passed over him. crushing him to death. On the one hand, it is alleged to have been accidental, while the friends of the boy charge the act as intentional. The accused were subsequently discharged upon giving bail to answer.

York Cornyy .- On the evening of March 10th, a Mrs. M'Fadden of Wrightsville lit a fluid lamp, and in consequence of the top being loose, the fluid in the lamp became ignited. The woman in her alarm threw the lamp from her, and unfortunately a part of the burning contents fell upon a little child of Mr. Cox, about two years old, burning her so severely that the little sufferer died the next day-JEFFERSON COUNTY .- The putrid sore throat is said to be prevailing in Punxsutawney.... As Mr. John Couch of Bell township, was returning home from Indiana borongh, on the 4th inst., he lost one hundred and sixty dollars. The money was in a muslin pocket. . The lumbermen have been favored with good freshets, and have succeeded in getting much of their lumber to market.

A decidedly rich affair transpired at the Democratic State Convention last week. During the recess that was taken whilst the Committee on Resolutions was absent, several distinguished Democrats' were called upon for speeches, but as "things wasn't working" as harmoniously as was desired, no one seemed inclined to hold forth. Finally some wag got acts as one of the representatives of Pennsylhis eye on a "live Yankee," one Prof. Gardner, the "New England Soft Seap Man," and called upon him. The Professor responded in a style peculiar to his class of orators, setting forth to the members of the Convention and the audience generally, the inimitable virtues of his "soft soap," an article which he says is "manufactured without lye." The Professor made a decided hit, and produced much merriment. It is not stated whether the Convention ordered any of his "soft soap" or not, but we presume they didn't, from the fact that their resolutions contain an abundance of the article, though we doubt whether it is, like Gardner's, "manufactured without lie."

HIGH WATER .- The Ohio River at Shawnertown, Illinois, rose on the 4th instant, to within four feet of the highest stage of water ever known, having submerged the whole town, and driven the inhabitants to the second stories of their dwellings. The streets were navigable for steamboats in almost every part, and the water at the door of the 'Southern Illinoisan,' was over four feet deep. The destruction of property on the Qhio and its tributaries, was amount had as yet been arrived at.

Kansas, it would seem, is not yet free from political disturbances. A party of Pro-Slavery men attempted a few days since to break up a Republican meeting in Calhoun county, but were foiled, after a sharp hand-to-hand fight, in which several persons were wounded

Leisenring, were appointed a committee on Resolutions, and made the following report :-

Resolved, That the Democracy of Pennsylvania have unabated and full confidence in the patriotism, integrity and capacity of James Buchanan, the President of the United States, and desire to sustain his administration from a conviction of his intimate connection of its principles with the best interests of our common country.

Resolved, That the complete success achieved by James Buchanan in amicably settling with Great Britain, in accordance with the American doctrine, the long mooted question of "the freedom of the seas," from the surveillance and annoyance of a maritime police; in quieting the civil broils of Kansas; in promptly and effectually suppressing an armed disaffection and rebellion of Utah; in speedily terminating the Indian wars which threatened to desolate the Western frontier; and his resolute efforts to secure for American trade and travel safe and proper transit routes between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans; to mantain the influence and honor of the nation and to protect the lives, business and property of citizens of the United States in the anarchical or illgoverned States of Mexico, Cenyears, was dreadfully burned last week, by her | tral America and South America, entitled him to the esteem, gratitude and confidence of the people of Pennsylvania, as well as of the whole Union.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Pennsylvania have always advocated and still advocate an adequate encouragement and discriminating protection of iron and coal and of the industrial interests of this State, within the scope of a tariff for a necessary revenue; and believing that the revenue accruing from the existing tariff will be insufficient for the nuavoidable expenditures of the Federal Government, and that an obstinate adherence to it peace, of a heavy national debt, always dangerous to the peace, liberty and prosperity of people of this State, by a frank and cordial support of the policy of the first President whom Pennsylvania has given to the Union. to aid and strengthen him in his future endeavors to procure a revision of the tariff act of 1857 by the next Congress, on the principles set forth in his last annual message.

Resolved. That while an economical administration of the government of the Union is demanded by the whole spirit of our institutions, and the best judgment of the people. it is, at the same time, incumbent upon us to sustain the proper dignity of the country at home and abroad, and not to neglect the prompt supply of all necessary means of defence against foreign aggression, and for the assertion and protection of the rights of all American citizens everywhere, and especially on this continent.

Resolved, That the acquisition of the Island of Cuba by honorable and peacable means. would be of vast importance to the prosperity and security of our whole country; and also advance in an eminent degree the cause of humanity, by its tendency to check the progress of the slave trade; and that the proposition of the President to obtain the possession of that Island by a fair purchase from the government of Spain, was a manly and upight step towards the attainment of so desirable an object-an object which has received the sanction and approval of Jefferson, Madison, John Q. Adams and Clay, as well as of eminent living statesmen.

Resolved, That across the Central American Isthmus lies the great highway to our Pacific States, and that we have witnessed, with pleasure and pride, the earnest offorts of the President to keep them open and make them safe ; in which view he should be seconded by Congress with the necessary powers to anable him to insist upon the fulfilment, by the States possessing those territories, of the treaty guaranties which they have given to our citi-

Resolved. That this Convention highly anprove the course of the Hon, William Bigler, Senator in Congress from this State, and desire to record their sense of the ability, consistency, patriotism and sound national Democracy which have distinguished his public

Resolved. That the doctrine of popular sovereignty, which recognizes the right of the people of the Territories having a sufficient opulation to organize their State governments under a constitution with or without slavery as they may severally determine, subject only to the constitution of the United States, and without any control of any department of the Federal Government over that subject, meets with our renewed and continued approbation and support.

Resolved, That the prosperity of our State can be better and more securely promoted by encouraging the competition of individual capital, skill and industry, than by any grant of corporate privileges and powers to gigantic monopolies.

Resolved. That we are in favor of an honest and economical administration of the affairs of this Commonwealth, and until the people are releived from the burden of the enormous debt now hanging over them, we are opposed to any unnecessary expenditures of the public money or any reduction of the present sources

Resolved, That in view of the difficulties attendant upon the regulations of a banking system, and of the losses incidental to a desit of the public moneys, in such institutions, the early adoption of an independent Treasury for the safe-keeping of the moneys of the Commonwealth, on the principle of the said to be immense, but no estimate of its sub-treasury of the United States, is recommended to the Legislature of the State.

After the Report was adopted, Mr. Lamberton submitted the following additional resolution :-

Resolved, That we approve the state policy of Gov. Wm. F. Packer; his exercise of the veto power has been fearless and democratic : and his administration of the affairs of our commonwealth, and execution of the laws, command our commendation.

Mr. Lamberton spoke in advocacy of the sdoption of this resolution, very palpable signs of opposition to it having been manifesin Reading, Berks county, Benneville Keim, by Gov. Hicks, their execution being postthe People's candidate was elected Mayor by poned to the 8th of April. The Governor gree of care to the reading of the report, and Harrison tract opposite the town of Oceola, thence was amazed at the meaning of the resolutions. He had drawn up his resolution a few minutes before the Committee reported, because he had understood a blow would be dealt at the state Administration by ignoring it. He under the grant for railroads in the State, un- thought it strange-the very acme of madness -for the Committee to ostracise the Gover-

The war fever in Europe, at the latest dates. seemed to be on the increase. In Paris the uneasiness in commercial circles was as prominent as ever. This greater apprehension is attributable to a belief that the King of Sardinia has the intention and the power to drag France into hostilities with Austria, and to an opinion that Lord Cowley's mission to Vienna will result in the accumulation, in time of will not produce any satisfactory result .-Meantime, the continental powers were largely increasing their armaments.
