THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., MARCH 30, 1859.

We direct attention to the advertisement of Carr, Giese & Co., Lumber, Flour, Grain and Seed Commission Merchants and Dealers in Salt, Plaster, Cement, &c., Baltimore, Md.

A CHANGE.-Capt. Daniel M. Weaver has left the Mansion House in this town, and his place is to be taken by Mr. McMonigal, formerly of the Exchange Hotel, Tyrone, Pa.

THE ROADS in Clearfield county have been in a most miserable condition this spring, so much so that they are almost impassable. A little attention and repairing at the proper time, would do much toward keeping them in good order.

"FLITTIN" DAY .- Day after to-morrow is the 1st of April, and is in this country general inflittin" or moving time. Such of our subscribers as change their place of residence, will please notify us, so that we can send their papers to the proper place.

The attention of the river-men is directed to the card of Mr. L. R. Deeg, who has taken the Washington House, in Middletown, Dauphin county, formerly kept so well by Mrs. Griffee. Mr. Deeg is said to be a very clever and accommodating landlord, and has the reputation of keeping a first rate house.

PARDONED .- We learn that Gov. Packer has pardoned Francis Peters, who was convicted at the last November Term of the Quarter Sessions of Clearfield county, of stealing a horse of Benjamin Davenport, of Fox township, facts having since come to light showing that he was not guilty of the charge upon which he was convicted.

A MISTAKE .- A few days since, having a slight cold, we were just thinking what to take for it, when who should drop into our office but our townsman Dr. A. M. Hills, and handed us a bottle labeled "Londen's Indian Expectorant." Pouring out a pretty large doze, we swallowed it, and smacked our lips, when to our surprise we discovered it to be pure grape juice, which some people, from force of habit, we presume, will persist in calling "wine." Whether it cured our cold or not, we leave to be inferred, but have no hesitating in saying that the 'Expectorant' wasn't "hard to take." The Dr. will please accept our thanks.

LOOK OUT !- We were shown a few days since what purports to be a $2 bill on the Mystic Bank, Connecticut. Vignette-man and woman at well; a 2 at each upper corner, the impression of two silver dollars at the lower left corner, and a female figure at the lower right corner. The engraving appears to be that of a genuine plate, with the exception of kinds are in full bloom. the words "Mystic" in the name of the bank, DFFact-now is the time to advertise. The and "Connecticut" at the top of the bill, the spring business will soon be commenced-peoshading of which is imperfect, and the words are in crooked. No doubt the same plate will to see who are in and out of business. be filled up with the names of other banks. Persons had better examine all two dollar bills closely before taking them.

GETTING BACK .- We observe that some of our raftsmen are getting home again, but the bulk of them are yet "down the river." We are glad to learn that comparatively little loss will result from the breaking loose of rafts at Lock Haven and other points, during the storm of Friday night a-week. We are also pleased to hear that the prices of lumber are good, and that we are in a fair way of once more having some money in circulation in our county. A friend, writing to us from Middletown, says he has "no doubt but that there will be more money taken back from what lumber has been taken down, than if it had all been hauled and run to market." And really young ladies have left Pittsburg for the Peak. it is high time, for during the past three years the "spondulix" have been as scarce as "hen's teeth," and another year of money famine "shut up shop."

WHO IS HE?-We find in the Harrisburg Telegraph, of the 26th March, the following: "SEEING THE SIGHTS."-A jolly waterman from Clearfied county, who visited the Capital for the first time yesterday, in strolling about town this afternoon, dropped into our sanctum in search of a Clearfied paper. Being social and communicative, we engaged him in conversation, in the course of which he informed us that last evening he fell in with an individand who represented himself to be from the North Branch, and the owner of two or three rafts. Rather prepossessed in the stranger's favor, and being anxious to "see the sights," he willingly accepted an invitation to accompany him around town on a tour of observation. They visited various institutions, and imbibed freely, until our Clearfield visitor accumulated more "bricks in his hat" than he was able to carry, becoming "obfuscated" to such a degree as to render him a perfect "Know Nothing." On coming to his senses towards morning, he found himself occupy-ing a somewhat humiliating position on the door step of the tavern where he stopped. His "friend," however, was among the missing, and upon examination he discovered that his pocket book had vanished also. Having obtained no clue to either during the day, he concluded that he had been victimized by his companion of the night previous-"the owner of two or three rafts." We concurred in that opinion, and advised him, in his future visits to Harrisburg, not to form acquaintance too hastily with strangers. He said one night's experience satisfied him, and "he rather thought his first trip down the river should be his last." Being well known among the West Branch lumbermen, he readily obtained means to pay his way home, and will leave tonight in the Northern Central train for Williamsport." A very fishy story is that told of John Franklin, of Litchfield, Conn., that when his father, on returning home from church, threatened to thrash John because he had gazed up at the rafters of the frame church (not ceiled or plastered) the young scamp, after asking his father if he could repeat the sermon, and decidedly cornering the old gentleman, not only the heads of discourse, accurately, but added parts same days at 1 P. M. "and now father, I can tell you just how many New Millport and Lumber City, every Saturbeams and rafters are in the meeting house." day at 6 A. M., and returns same day at 8 p.m. Jan12-3m.

The Friends meeting house in Burlington county, N. J., was destroyed by fire on Sunday. It was built in 1800.

BF That's so .- Many politicians boast that "they can't be bought" when they are really so worthless that they can't be sold! A riot took place in the State prison at Auburn, New York, on Saturday a-week, during which the warden shot three men.

deut of our Public Schools has the right to remove a County Superintendent, if guilty of neglect of duty, incompetency, or immorality. How to protect himself .- The editor of a pestilent Buchanan sheet says that "a terrible political thunder storm is rising." Well, feathers are said to be a protection against lightning; can't he get himself tarred and

The United States, in proportion to its number of inhabitants, holds more of the precious metals than any other country in the world. Plant trees !- Yes! plant trees-and plant now. Now's the time. It is not too late; neither is it a day too early. Plantplant-and keep planting. You'll never regret it. Who ever saw a man lamenting that he had planted a tree? Do not, dear reader, let another season slip without planting. James Hamilton, a meat seller, in St. Louis, on Wednesday last, in a paroxysm of jealousy, shot his wife, a young girl of eighteen to whom he had been married only three months, and afterwards discharged a pistol into his own body, inflicting a wound from which he can hardly recover. Mrs. Hamilton's recovery is deemed probable.

Sprained Ankles and Wrists can be relieved of all swelling and pain in from five to thirty minutes, by the free use of Du Vall's Galvanic Oil. It acts by imparting electricity to the part affected, starts up a new-action in that part, and a cure is at once obtained.
