THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., APRIL 13, 1859.

John Guelich advertises for a Journeyman Cabinet-maker.

The growing grain in our county, so far as last week. we can learn, presents a fine appearance.

If you want to purchase cheap and good articles of any description whatever, consult the advertising columns of a newspaper and you can there ascertain who keeps them.

The County Register gives notice that a number of accounts are on file in his office and will be presented to the next Orphans' Court for confirmation and allowance.

Our townsman, Daniel Benner, in order to keep up with the spirit of the age, has procured a snug little engine to drive his lathe, and will soon be turning out work as fast as steam can make it.

On Monday night, a storm of rain and hail passed over a part of this county, blowing down trees and scattering fences. We have not heard of any serious damage having been done to buildings.

Persons wanting to purchase Cabinet Ware, are directed to the advertisement of Mr. John Guelich, who keeps on hand, or will make to order, any articles in his line of business, at the most reasonable prices.

The River, in consequence of the heavy rains of Sunday and Monday nights, rose yesterday to a good rafting stage, thus giving our lumbermen an opportunity of running what few rafts did not get down on the last rise, to market. Several raits passed down yesterday and to-day.

A BANKING HOUSE IN CLEARFIELD .--- By referring to our advertising columns, it will be seen that a Banking and Collection Office has been opened in our town by Messrs. Leonard. Finney & Co. This will doubtless be a great convenience to the community at large, as well as to the business men of this region. Such as wish to have notes and drafts disto go elsewhere, at considerable expense, and merchants and others dealing in the cities, can deposit their money here, procure bills of exchange, and make their paper payable at home. A couple members of the firm are well known in our county as reliable and responsible men, and the others have the reputation of being men of large capital and good credit. They will no doubt secure the confidence of the entire community, and soon have a large amount of business to transact.

Giving truthful delineations of people, character and manners-ever upholding the cause of religion, morality and virtue, they should be welcome at every fireside where these precepts are taught. The great barrier, heretofore, to the introduction of these works, has been the high price at which they have been held, but this objection is being now overcome, by the publication of these works of Scott in such a form and at such a low price as to bring them within the means of all persons whatever. THE "GREAT REPUBLIC" MONTH-LY .- To the Public, the Book and Period-ical Trade, and the Press.-We have the honor to announce that we shall issue on or about the 1st of December, 1858, so as to be in season to command the early attention of the public and periodical trade, the first number of a new Illustrated Magazine, to be called The Great Republic' Monthly

It is intended to make this magazine superior in every respect to anything ever before issued in this country. The general scope of its character can best be understood by its name. It will be thor-oughly national—in no wise sectarian, and wholly impersonal. It will offer to the writers and thinkers of this Union a common field, where they can meet on the highest ground of cotemporary literature. It will aim to gather about it every variety of intellect. The range of articles will be a wide one, covering, among other grounds, Essays, Sketches, Humerons Tales, Stories, Historical Incidents, Reviews, Critiques, Biographies, Scientific Articles, Travels, Table Talk, Dramas, Politica, Poems, Ballads, Stanzas, Sonnets, Music, Corres-pondence, Gossip, etc., etc. The Magazine will be profusely illustrated in the highest style of wood engraving. The Literary department will present greater variety, combined with more thorough exellence, it is believed, than ever before offered in the American public in a single periodical.
