THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL,

SUT LOVENGOOD'S DOG. When I wer a boy, and my largs not longer than John Wentworth's, dad fotched home a daddrapped, wuthless, mangy, fleabiften, gray old fox houn, good for nuthing but to swaller up what orter lined the bowels ove us brats. Well I natrally tuck a distaste to him, and had a sorter hankerin' arter his feelin's and discumfertin' ove him every time dad's back was turned. This sorter kept a big skeer allers before his eyes, and an orful yell in his throat reddy to pore out the fust moshun he seed me make. So he larnt to swaller things as he run, and allers kept his legs well onder him-As'te.Judge-Hon. Wm. L. He knowd the whiz ov a rock in moshun well, and he never stopped tu see who flung it, but jist let his head fly open to gin a howl-room to cum-and sot his laigs to gwine the way his nose happened to be a pintin'. He'd shy roun every rock he seed in the road ; he looked on it as a calamity to cam arter him some day. Ef he left home, some nabor's dog tan'd his hide, and if he stade at home, I was aller arter it tu tan it ; so he didn't see much more peace ov mind nur a suckit rider dus in a bap. tist naburhood at sakerment time when the river am up in dippin' order. And in all my born days I never seed him againe the samway I wuz; he made that an onbrakabil ruil. I think I got my fust nollidge ov gittin' away frum imaginary troubil and common tribula shun, from him; and with the 'vantage of holesum pair ov laigs and the power of usin 'em, I allers found his plan tu work well. tell you, Georgy, that runnin' am the greates invenshun on yearth when used carefully Whar'd I been tu by this time ef I hadn't relyed onto these yare laigs? D'ye see 'em Don't they mind you ov a pair ov cumpusse made to divide a mile into quarters? The do, I'll be circumstanshully daddrapped e they don't. Wall, one day I tuck a pig's blad der ni ontu the size ov a duck aig and filled i with powder and korked it up with a piece o spunk, rolled it up in a thin sculp ov meet and sot the spunk afire, and flung it out. He swall lered it at one yerk, and sot to gittin' away fur doin it. I sune hearn a noise like sunthin bustin, and his tail lit atop ov my hat. His head were way down the hill and had tuck a deth holt ontu a roof. His fore laigs were fifty feet up the road makin' runnin' moshuns, and his hine ones astraddil ov the fence. His innerds were hangin' in links onto the cabin chimley. As tu the dog hisself, as a dog, I never seed him agin. Wall, dad flung five or six hundred onder my shurt with the dried skin ofen a bull's tail, and gin me the remainder next day with a waggin whip what he borrered frum a feller while he wer a waterin' his hosses; the wagginer got sorry fur me and hollered tu me tu turn my beggin' and squeal-

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, 1858-0. The successful laying of the trans-Atlan-tic Telegraph Cable marks a new era in the histo-ry of Human Progress. Henceforth, Europe, Western Asia and Northern Africa lie within an hours' distance from our shores, and the battle which de-cides the fate of a kingkom, the capture of a Vienna or Giberaltar, the fall of a dynasty, the triumph of a usurpation, the birth of an heir to roy-alty, the death of a Nicholas or Wellington, in any country which touches the Mediterranean, the Euxine, the Black Sea or the German Ocean, will be published in New-York the next morning, if not on the very day of its occurrence. In a momen as it were, we have been thrown into the immedi ate intellectual neighborhood of the whole civilized and a large portion of the semi-barbarous world The rise and fall of stocks in London or Paris will henceforth be reported from day to day in the jour nals of our seaboard cities. The boldest operators in Wall-street will refuse to buy or sell until they have read the quotations of that day's business on the Royal Exchange and at the Bourse, whose transactions will have closed an hour or so before ours can begin. A revolution in Paris, an impor-tant vote in Parliament, an insurrection in Italy, a fire in Constantinople, will be discussed around the breakfast-tables of New Xork a few hours after its occurrence. A mighty though silent trans-formation in the condition of human existence has just been effected by the little wire stretching aross the ocean's bed from the coast of Ireland to that of British America, and one inevitable result of this must be an unexampled community of feeling and interest among the nations of Christendom, and a consequent desire for a more intimate aqcuaintance with each other's doings through the medium of the Newspaper Press. It seems hardly possible that thousands should not henceforth regularly read their own journals, who have hitherto been content with an occasional taken by their neighbors; while many who have hitherto been content with a Weekly issue will now require a Semi-Weekly or Daily. In short, Intelligence, always a vital element of growth in wisdom, success in business, or enjoyment in life, has now become indispensable to all. The New York Terbune, now more than seventeen years old, which was the first journal in the world that appeared regularly on an imperial 8-page sheet at so low a price as twocents, and which has attained the unparalleled aggregate of more than 200.000 subscriptions, respectfully solicits its share of the new patronage which the Metropolitan Press is henceforth constrained, at a heavy weekly cost, to deserve. It asks especially the patronage and active favor of Republicans-of those who hate all forms of oppression, and desire that every rational being shall be free to employ his faculties in such innocent manner as he shall deem best -of those who would extend Liberty and limit Slavery-but it further appeals likemise to all who look and labor for the return of National thrift, plenty, prosperity, through the Protection of American Industry by wisely discriminating dutics on Imports-all who favor National Progress thre' internal development and amelioration rather than by external aggression and extension-all who would rather have the National resources de voted to the construction of a Railroad to the Pacific than to the purchase or conquest of Mexico, Nicaragua or Cuba-all who would retrench radically our present inordinate Federal expenditures abolishing or immensely reducing the Army and Navy, and expending the money thus saven on works of beneficence which will endure to bless our children-all who profoundly realize that "Righteousness exalteth a nation." and that no real advantage can ever accrue to any person or community from acquisitions or successes achieved by means which contravene the laws of Eternal Right The free allotment of limited postions of the Public Lands to Actual Settlers thereon, and every hopeful plan intended to diminish the sum of human misery from dearth of employment or inadequate recompense-every scheme especially that seeks to help the unfortunate by enabling and teaching them to help themselves-must command our earnest sympathy and co-operation. Within the present year, The Tribune has provided itself with a new and faster Press at a cost of $30,000, merely that some of our subscribers may receive their papers a mail earlier than they otherwise might do. With correspondents at the most important points throughout the civilized world, and a staff of writers chosen from among the best in the country, we believe that even those who dislike the politics of our sheet concede to it frankness in avowing its convictions and ability in maintaining them. We appeal, then, to those who believe that an increased circulation of The Tribune would conduce to the political, intellectual and moral well-being of the Republic, to aid in effecting such increase. As we employ no travelling solicitors of subscriptions, we ask our present patrons in every locality to speak to their neighbors and friends in our behalf; we shall gladly receive from any friend lists of those who would receive and read a specimen copy of one of our editions, and shall be particularly grateful to those who may send us such names from post offices at which we have no subscribers. Whatever additions may thus be made to our circulation shall be paralleled by increased efforts and expenditures to make our issues more valuable and useful than they have hitherto been.

A SISTER IN A TIGHT PLACE .- At N-, one Saturday evening, fatigued by his long journey a wagoner, with his son John, drove his Missisquoi Ba, Sheldn team into good range, and determined to pass the Sabbath enjoying a season of worship with the good folks of the village.

m' intu fust rate runnin, which I immejintly

did, and the last lick missed me about ten

When the time for worship, arrived, John was set to watch the team, while the wagoner went in with the crowd. The preacher had hardly announced his subject before the old man fell sound asleep. He sat against the partition in the centre of the body slip; just | Hopkinton Bank, against him, separated only by the very low partition, sat a fleshy lady who seemed all absorbed in the sermon. She struggled hard with her feelings until, unable to control them longer, she burst out with a loud scream, and shouted at the top of her voice, rousing the old man, who, but half awake, thrust his arms around her waist and cried, very soothingly : "Wo, Nance! Wo, Nance! Wo! here,

John," calling his son-"cut the belly-band, and loose the breeching, quick, or she'll tear everything to pieces !"

It was all the work of a moment; but the sister forgot to shout, the preacher lost the thread of his discourse, and the meeting came prematurely to an end ; while, deeply mortified, the poor old man skulked away, determined not to go to meeting again until he could manage to keep his senses by remaining awake.

How THICK SHALL WE SOW OATS?-An experiment made on the State Farm at Westborough, Mass., to determine the best quantity of oats to sow per acre, resulted as follows : Two bushels of seed per acre gave 261 bushels ; three bushels, 40 bushels per acre ; four bushels, 851; and five bushels, 42 bushels per acre. Before the general introduction of underdraining, and other improved methods of cultivation, five bushels of oats per acre was the usual quantity sown in England. Now, three to four bushels are sown. In this section, two bushels are considered sufficient; and in the Western States, one and a half bushels. Probably we sow too little.

plaints arising from Impurity of the Blood. This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which foster in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul cruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will trive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitia ed blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and slug-gish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and yourfeelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the body healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or altogether overthrown. Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the repuntion. of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else. During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Ex-tract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the mar-Note that the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have good ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistable by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be juditiously taken according to directions on the bottle. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles for $5.
