

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

The reason a sailor is called a tar is because he is pitched by the ocean.

Dear Swift, hearing of a carpenter falling through the scaffolding of a house which he was engaged in repairing, dryly remarked that he liked to see a mechanic go through his work promptly.

A sleepy deacon, who sometimes engaged in popular games, hearing the minister use the words "shuffle off this mortal coil," started up rubbed his eyes, and exclaimed: "Hold on! It's my deal!"

A boy aged sixteen years was recently tried in one of the counties of England for the crime of having two wives. He was found guilty, and ought to be transported to where there are no women.

Mr. Barnum, lately attempted to deliver a lecture on Money-Making, at Oxford, England, but was greeted with groans and hisses, hit with an orange, and peppered with chestnuts, till he was compelled to silence.

It seems that a lawyer is something of a carpenter; he can file a bill, split a hair, make an entry, get up a case, frame an indictment, impanel a jury, put them in a box, nail a witness, hammer a judge, bore a court, and other like things.

The plagues of Cuba are mosquitoes, ants and cockroaches. The latter eat your clothes, boots and buttons and toe nails; the ants your provisions, and one species your house and all kinds of vegetation; while the mosquitoes, more modest, eat nothing but yourself, especially if you are a new comer.

A gluton of a fellow who was dining at a hotel, in the course of the battle of knives and forks, accidentally cut his mouth, which was observed by a Yankee opposite, who bawled out—

"I say, Master, don't make that hole in your countenance any larger, or we shall all starve."

The following question was recently put to a newly imported son of the Emerald Isle:

"If the Devil should be told he might have one of us, which would he first choose?"

"Why, to be sure," responded Pat.

"And why so?"

"Faith he knows he could get either of ye any time."

"Dan," said a little four year old, "gave me ten cents to buy a monkey."

"We've got one monkey in the house now," said the eldest brother.

"Who is it Dan?" said the little fellow.

"You," was the reply.

"Then give me ten cents to buy the monkey some candy." His brother "shelled over" immediately.
