A British officer writing from Teheran, Persia, to the 'London Times,' remarks: "A Cathartic Pill manufactured by 'an American Chemist' (Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, Mass.) has cured the Shah of a Liver Complaint that threatened his life. This simple fact, as might be expected, renders the Americans immensely popular here, while we English are overlooked. Doubtless our own scholars made the discoveries which he employs, and thus it is in everything; we do the labor, then the mousing Americans put their mark upon it and take the reward. Dr. Aver is idolized by the Court and its retainers here, which will doubtless be reflected to him on a gold snuff box, or diamond hilted sword, while not the name even of Davy, Christoson or Brodie-the great lights by which he shines, is known."- New York Sunday Paper.

A COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-Seven Students .- Prominent among the reasons why the Iron City College has four times as many students as any other Commercial School in the United States, are the following: It is the only college in Pittsburgh that gives three daily lectures on bookkeeping; three daily recitations and an examination in Commercial Calculations; the only one which requires weekly exercises in Composition and Commercial Correspondence of and a variety of other articles of Dress Goods. all its students; the only one which employs teachers whose qualifications are recognized by literary men, or are experienced educators, and the only one that grants Diplomas to those only of its students who are competent and skillful accountants .- Pittsburgh True Prese.

PARDONED .- William Baer, convicted and sentenced to the eastern penitentiary for his participation in the Gap larcenies, has been pardoned by Governor Packer. His health since his incarceration, it is said, became so touch impaired that he could not possibly have any other place in the county. . Produce of every lived out his sentence, and the pardon, it is understood, was based on this ground.

Solomon Sturges, one of the wealthy men of Ohio, and a great landowner, is selling his immense possessions, because he believed no man had a right to own more land than is neceasary for his use and that of his family.
