CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS.

Fancy—Billy Behan's new buggy.

To keep milk from souring—drink it while it is fresh.

To be held—a national convention of the drovers and shippers of stock, at Pittsburg on June 8th.

The war news has created a great demand for saltpeper. Holders in the east refuse to sell at present.

Passed off quietly—circens day, with the exception of one or two knock-downs about the Mansion House.

The editor of the Washington Constitution says he is "in the dark." That's where blind men always are.

The Wives along the Mississippi never blow up their husbands. They leave it all to the steamboats, which are sure to do it sooner or later.

Some thirty young Germans have left Cincinnati for the fatherland, intending to enlist in the service of Austria, out of dislike to Napoleon.

The Leocompton branch of the Democracy at Huntington, are about to start a paper in opposition to the Globe, the Anti-Leocompton organ.

The London Times says that the Director of the Treasury "has written some curious financial webs." We guess they are very much like other Cobb-webs.

The King of Naples is reported as near his death. His successor, it is probable, will be a Frenchman—probably Murat. Louis Napoleon has his eye on that throne.

Convicted—Two constables in Philadelphia of larceny and sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment in Moyamensing. An Alderman was implicated in the stealing.

The hog cholera is carrying off large numbers of hogs in the vicinity of Decatur, Illinois. It is said that the Sangamon river bottom is covered with their dead bodies.

Mr. Bennet's Stimul, of Maxatataw township, Berks county, Pa., near Kutztown, killed eight black snakes last week. The smallest measured 4 and the largest 6 feet in length.

Mr. J. Smart, of St. Paul, was recently prosecuted by a young widow for breach of promise. He settled the difficulty by marrying her. He made her Smart, lest she should him.

A whole military company in Dayton, Ohio, fell in love with a beautiful young lady, a Jewess, and as they couldn't all have her, they compromised the matter by selecting her as their Captain.

In a discussion in a Connecticut agricultural club, last year, a wag recommended the farmer to put snuff on their corn, so as to make the crows sneeze, and then to shoot the sneezing ones as the rogues.

Five of the sweetest words in the English language begin with the letter H, to wit: Heart, Hope, Home, Happiness, and Heaven. It might, however, be wiser that we studied either a little more profoundly!

Many a true heart that would have come back, like the dove to the ark, after the first transgression, has been frightened beyond recall by the angry menace, the taunt, the savage clarity of an unforgiving world.

Recovered—Miss Goss in Ohio, $1,500 from her lover, Smoek, the son of a substantial farmer, for neglecting to marry her after many years "sparking." It is said that both Miss Goss and Mr. Smoek are well satisfied with the result.

A young man at Niagara, having been crossed in love, walked out to the precipice, gave one lingering look at the gulf beneath him, and then went home. His body was found next morning—in bed. A very sensible young man, we think.

Somebody goeth it thus: "A married man should let his wife have the management of his home Department, and give her as Secretary the sole control of the different bureaus. Don't let her have anything to do with the War Department."

A rural poet has just gotten up the following and retired to private life:— I wood not die in spring time, I wren fravags begin to crawl— wren cabbage plants are shuffling up, noe: I wood not die at all.

A gentleman, named Ross, from Allentown, Lehigh county, Pa., who went to Philadelphia to obtain a large amount of money, sent to him from Europe, has been missing since the 16th inst. He did not draw any of the money before his disappearance.

Occurred—a singular and swift retribution, in Huron county, Ohio, a few days since. An ugly fellow, in a fit of passion, intentionally destroyed an eye of his horse. The next day while driving a nail a piece of it lodged in his eye, completely destroying the sight.

There is every indication at present that an unusually large crop of peaches will be gathered this season. The blossoms have not been injured, except in a few of the most exposed localities. New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware will send forth more than their usual quantity.

PITTSBURG MARKETS.—The market for bread-stuffs has, during the past week, lost all the advance gained under the speculative movement of the previous one, and things are as flat now as they were excited then. The decline in flour has been rapid. While the excitement lasted the receipts were heavy, ranging from 500 to 1,000 barrels a day; but since the decline they have fallen to nothing. The Gazette of yesterday (Tuesday), in the absence of sales, quotes Super at $6.25 and Extra at $6.90. From stores, the ruling rates are about 25 cents higher. Wheat is in fair demand at $1.30 to $1.35 for prime Medicrean; Rye, 90 to 95 cts; and Corn 85 to 95 cts.

St. Louis, May 23.—A private letter dated Pacific City, Iowa, states that a report had just reached that place that a party of starving Pike's Peak emigrants attacked and captured an outward-bound train near Offalions' Bluffs. During the melee D. C. Oaks, the conductor, was killed; and Mr. Griffith, the newly appointed Postmaster for Auraria, who was en route to take charge of his post, was hung by the desperadoes.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, a compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alternative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para-Sarsaparilla, combined with other substances of still greater alternative power, and is a most valuable remedy for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must produce immense services to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints: Scrofula and its various forms, including the Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blisters, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic affections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Nouralgia or Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Indigestion and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood. This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which foster in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes cured, by aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body, by an alternative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and thickened; and keep it pure by using it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the body pure, and all is well; but when this purbation of life is disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered, or altogether overthrown. Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, many of which are not Sarsaparilla, but not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, and are therefore ineffectual. Ever since the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been found to be water, for they not only contain little of Sarsaparilla, but also contain irritating properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name of Sarsaparilla has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have good ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles for $5.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, and Hoarseness, that it is scarcely necessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever been found to do.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Bow Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetters, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and for Purifying the Blood, &c. They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physician. Price 25 cents per Box; Five Boxes for $1.00.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen and eminent persons have taken pains to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure. Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations that make more profit on them. Demand AYER'S and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it. All our Remedies are for sale by C. D. Watson and M. A. Frank, Clearfield; E. F. Brener, Morrisdale; C. R. Foster, Philipsburg; John Bird, Unionville; Wm. Irwin, Curwensville; Samuel Arnold, Luthersburg; and by all Druggists, throughout the country. December 29, 1858.
