

S. B. ROW, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 8, 1859.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE MORMONS.—The Judges of the second district of Utah having addressed a joint letter to the Administration at Washington, on the subject of the military force with which the Court for that district was attending during the term recently held at Provo City, Attorney General Black, under the instructions of the President, made a reply a few days since. He says it is very probable that the Mormons have been guilty of crimes for which they deserve the severest punishment, and that it is not intended by the government to let any one escape, against whom the proper proofs can be produced. With that view the District Attorney has been instructed to use all possible diligence in bringing criminals of every class and of all degrees to justice. The usual and established mode of dealing with public offenders must be exhausted before any others are adopted. On the whole, the President is very decidedly of the opinion, first, that the Governor of the Territory alone has power to issue a requisition upon the commanding General for the whole or part of the army; second, that there was no apparent occasion for the presence of the troops at Provo; third, that if a rescue of the prisoners in custody had been attempted, it was the duty of the Marshal, and not of the Judge, to summon the force which might be necessary to prevent it; fourth, that the troops ought not to have been sent to Provo without the concurrence of the Governor, nor kept there against his remonstrance; fifth, that the disregard of these principles and rules of action has been in many ways extremely unfortunate. It remains to be seen whether the President will carry the determinations, thus expressed, into effect.

THE HARMONY DEMOCRACY.—We learn from the New York papers that the different wings of the Democratic party have been seeking to harmonize, preparatory to the State and Presidential elections of 1860. Letters have been written, circulars distributed, and the leaders from the various portions of the State met at the Astor House one day last week. Notwithstanding the efforts of those who have heretofore led on the Democratic legions from victory to victory, the utmost confusion prevailed in their councils, and disaster and defeat seemed to be the result of the consultations. In every portion of the country, disintegration and demoralization mark the history of this once powerful party, and it requires no soothsayer to foretell, that if ordinary prudence and sagacity shall influence the Opposition, the next Presidential battle will be easily gained.

HEAVY DAMAGES.—A Miss Cairstrang sued at St. Louis, Mo., an old codger named Shaw, for breach of marriage promise, and on the 2d inst. the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff, and assessed the damages at $100,000, the full amount claimed. The defendant, who is said to be very wealthy, is 60 years of age. The plaintiff, who has numbered only 30 winters, is painted in rose-colored by the Western journals. An appeal is taken, and a new trial will probably be ordered.

"ALL THE YEAR ROUND."—We are in regular receipt of this new publication of Dickens. The articles are creditable to its distinguished editor, and the authors who assist him. The periodical is published weekly at $2.50 a year, by J. M. Emerson & Co., 27 Park Row, N. Y., who deserve to be liberally patronized for the spirit and enterprise they exhibit in getting out this work simultaneously with its appearance in London.

THE FROST.—We have accounts from various sections, which indicate that the severe frost on Saturday night extended over a large district of country. Reports from several points in Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, and Western Virginia, state that the frost had done much injury to the growing crops, fruit, &c. It is to be hoped, however, that the damage is not so great as many suppose.

MORMONISM IS DISGUSTINGLY SHOCKING. Indeed, we see it stated that in searching the house of Bishop Johnson, charged with murder, at Salt Lake, Utah, the United States officials were not able to discover the Bishop, but found therein his ten wives. Four of these wives are sisters, the Bishop's own nieces, and he has, besides these, two sisters out of one family, and also a mother and her daughter!

On Tuesday night, May 17th, a fire broke out in a tavern, at Richmond, Jefferson Co., Ohio, kept by Joseph Cameron, Esq. The house was destroyed, and, horrible to relate, Mrs. Cameron and her son, aged 20, perished in the flames. The mother had escaped, but rushed back to rescue her boy, who was weak-minded, and both died together.

The Lock Haven Watchman has put on a new dress. It is now one of the neatest sheets in the State, and as Dunham prints a spicy paper, the people of Clinton should support him liberally.

The Hon. N. B. Browne has been appointed Postmaster at Philadelphia, in place of Mr. Westcott, the late incumbent.

We notice by the York papers that several mad dogs have been killed in that place, within the past week.

IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE.

St. Johns, N. B., June 4.—The steamship City of Washington, left Liverpool on the 25th ult. bound to New York, has been intercepted by the News Reporters. Her news is of great importance, as announcing the first important blow in Italy. The Allied and Austrian forces have met and the latter have been defeated.

The battle between the Austrians and the allies took place at Montebello, a town of Austrian Italy. The Austrians were 15,000 strong and made the attack; after a severe engagement, they were obliged to retreat. The allied army lost 700, while the Austrian loss is estimated at 2,000. A number of Austrians had been captured and taken prisoners to Marsailles.

There are two towns of Montebello in Italy, as described in the Gazetteers. The dispatch does not give the position of the one at which this battle took place. One of the Montebello's is a town of Austrian Italy, ten miles S. W. of Vienna, and is defended by two castles, and the other is a village 23 miles E. N. E. of Alessandria, where the Austrians were defeated by the French in 1812. It would seem that the post was occupied by Marshal D'Hilliers, of the French army. By the previous accounts, this General was posted on the main road from Novi to Genoa. The first named Montebello was therefore the place where the battle occurred.

The battle of Montebello, took place on the 21st of May. The Austrians, who were commanded by General Stadion, attacked the post of Marshal Baraguay D'Hilliers. They were driven back by Gen. Forey's divisions, after a furious combat which lasted four hours. The allies carried Montebello, but did not pursue the Austrians. Two hundred of the Austrians, including the Colonel, were captured and taken to Marsailles.

The Austrian account of the battle differs widely from the above. The actual force of the French is not stated. It is reported, however, that it numbered six thousand men, besides a regiment of Sardinian cavalry.

A bulletin, issued by the Sardinian government, announces that the extreme left of the Sardinian army under Gen. Balduino had forced a passage over the river Sesia, putting the Austrians to flight.

Gen. Garibaldi had entered Gaven Pavia with six thousand men for a revolutionary purpose.

It was rumored that six English men-of-war had entered the Adriatic sea.

Revolutionary movements are reported in Lombardy. The King of Naples is dead, and Francis II. has assumed the government of Naples.

WHAT ABOUT PIKE'S PEAK.

Editorial correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, May 22, 1859.—I am here in the very focus of the Gold-at-Pike's-Peak excitement. Of the great celebration yesterday in honor of the arrival of the first return stages from Cherry Creek, you will have had tidings before this reaches you. Probably also of the supper eaten on the account, if not the consequent head aches this morning. Let me briefly sum up the conclusions I have drawn from all the information I can gather here, viz:

1. There is gold at Pike's Peak.
2. A considerable though very inadequate amount of prospecting had been done up to the 10th inst., which is the date of our latest advices.

3. A great deal more will soon be done, as the snow only begins to be fairly melted out of the gorges of the Rocky Mountains, where the rich mines or placers must be found, if anywhere.

4. As yet this prospecting has not yielded enough to pay the board of those employed in it.

5. Yet a few who have had extra luck, would seem to have done pretty well, and some of them (unless they lie outrageously) are now making $5 to $8 per day to the hand. The board of a rugged, hard working miner in that region ought to cost $2 per day.

6. It is not known to this hour that any extensive placer has been found, and nearly every miner is still prospecting for better diggings.

7. Hundreds of those who rush madly off on a gold hunt across five hundred miles of uninhabited footless country, in February or March, have either died outright of starvation, or have suffered and been famished to the last limit of mortal endurance. And all who have started in their tracks with but a few days' provisions and scarcely any other resource but the clothes on their back have probably suffered, or will suffer, everything short of death, and some of them will probably die.

8. There is as much uncertainty and distrust in the Gold Region as here, and many have turned back in disgust, while others would do if they could do it with safety.

9. Many who had gone part of the way have been discouraged by the reports of those they met, and are heading towards the States again.

10. There is no demand for labor in any part of the alleged Gold Regions, and many are idle, who would gladly be hired and set to work.

11. It is not yet decided whether any considerable amount of gold can be mined with profit in the new Gold Region. Months more of patient and well directed labor may be required to settle that point.

PENNSYLVANIA ITEMS.

CAMBERIA COUNTY.—A desperate character named Samuel McCullough, who shot Patrick Nevins' horse last summer, and who is now in the Ebensburg jail for threatening to take the life of George Fisher, a couple Sundays since made three attempts to burn the prison.

Thomas Sharp, a well-known citizen of Conemaugh Borough, died suddenly during the night of the 28th ult., of apoplexy. A young woman of Johnstown, a few days since left her father's house for Pittsburgh, in company with some disreputable character, taking with her $75 and a fine silk dress belonging to her sister.

To say her from a life of shame, her friends had her arrested at Elizabethtown on the 28th, and brought her home a wiser girl than when she left. A citizen of Johnstown, ascertaining that his married sister in Baltimore was treated badly by her husband, went there recently and induced her to accompany him home.

In a few days the deserted husband followed, kicked up a fight, and was arrested for assault and battery. He was released on bail, when his brother-in-law had him again arrested on a charge of surety of the peace. Soon after his second arrest the unfortunate husband was provided by some friend with a suit of female clothes, in which he arrayed himself, and walked off. Information of his escape being conveyed to the invested police, an officer was sent in pursuit, and over took him at the Feeder Dam, about a mile south of town, just as he was divesting himself of his feminine trappings. He was then brought back and conveyed to the Ebensburg jail, and here the matter rests for the present. The names of the parties are not given by the Johnstown Tribune, from which we gather these items.

LANCASTER COUNTY.—Martin Smith, residing in Newtown, committed suicide by hanging himself in a stable. He was about fifty-five years of age, and it is supposed he was impelled to the rash act by being troubled in mind about money matters. During the prevalence of the storm on Friday evening the 28th, we learn that the house occupied by a family named Miller, on Engle's farm near Bainbridge, was struck by lightning and Mr. Miller instantly killed while two of the female members of the household were struck senseless by the force of the shock, but were again restored. It appears that Mr. M. had gone to the second story of the house to close a window, and while at the window, and probably looking out, as his body was found reclining upon it—the house was struck and he killed.

CENTRE COUNTY.—A fire occurred on the 28th ult., in Bellefonte, which destroyed the wash house, situated close to the residence of Hon. James Burnside. Had it not been for timely assistance a very disastrous conflagration might have ensued. Two horses were stolen from the stable of John Irwin, Jr., & Co., at the Howard Iron Works, on the 28th ult. The thief carried off two Blind Bridges, two Halters and Chains, and one Wagon Saddle. A reward of one hundred dollars is offered for the apprehension of the horse and the arrest and conviction of the thief.

A locomotive for the Snow Shoe Railroad was brought to Bellefonte on the 27th. This "distinguished arrival" produced quite a sensation.

CLARION COUNTY.—Week before last, during the prevalence of a storm, the barn of Mr. Hugh Maguire was unroofed, another barn on an adjoining farm was blown down, and a large amount of timber destroyed; the barn of Mr. Isaac Clover, in Strattonville, was struck by lightning, and a horse of Thomas R. Patton, of George W. Potts, residing in Mr. Baum's severely injured. On the evening of the 28th ult. a fire broke out in Clarion, the money till of the store of David Myers, was opened and twenty-five dollars taken therefrom. An individual suspected was arrested but no money was found about him.

BUTLER COUNTY.—A young son of David Taylor, of Oakland township, was seriously injured by the accidental discharge of a revolver pistol. One of the barrels had been loaded, and one of them had been discharged by the lad, and when blowing in the muzzle the other charge exploded, tearing his upper jaw and face in a horrible manner. His life is despaired of, and should he recover, he will be maimed for life.

SCHUYLKILL COUNTY.—During the severe thunder storm of Thursday, and at the height of the storm, a vivid flash of lightning and a deafening peal of thunder, so alarmed the people of Market street, Pottsville, while standing at the door, that it induced a fatal attack of heart disease. She fell back and died in a few moments.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.—An interesting son of Rev. Wm. Cullom of Huntingdon Borough, aged about 3 years, fell into the canal a few days since and was drowned. The body was recovered and interred.

LYCOMING COUNTY.—On the 27th May, a little daughter of Mr. David Reed, at Phelps Mills, aged about three years, was scalded so badly that she died the next morning. Mrs. Reed was preparing to do some washing, and had poured some boiling water into a tub, when the child accidentally fell into it, and before she could be rescued was fatally injured.

ARMSTRONG COUNTY.—The dwelling house of Archibald Glenn, Esq., of Redbank township, was totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday last. The building being of frame, burnt with such rapidity that little or none of its contents were saved. The fire originated from the kitchen stove pipe. Loss about $1,500—no insurance.

COLEMAN COUNTY.—During a recent thunder storm the barn of Frederick Hagenbach of Centre township, was struck by lightning and consumed. Several hundred bushels of corn and oats were destroyed with it. The property was not insured.

LEUZEE COUNTY.—A fire occurred at Wilkesbarre, on the 31st May, by which some eighteen or twenty buildings were destroyed, involving a loss of $40,000.

UTAH.—We have later news from Utah, which shows how Buchanan has "restored peace and order" in that territory. At the final adjournment of the United States Court, Judge Cradlebaugh had caused an entry to be made on the Court records to the effect that the interference of the Mormons with the course of justice had rendered the administration of justice impossible, and that the Court, in consequence thereof, was adjourned sine die. A number of important affidavits had been made setting forth the facts of recent Mormon outrages. A collision between the United States troops and the militia of the Territory was expected at last advices.

The Governor was determined to oppose the entrance of the troops into the city. The object of bringing the troops to the city is to arrest parties charged with crime. Gov. Cumming contends that the civil, and not the military, power should be used for the purpose; and he is said to have a strong militia force ready to oppose the entrance of the troops.
