RIDDLE .- A WONDERFUL BEING.

[The American Whig states that "the following lines were suggested during a conversation in a neighboring town, many years ago, upon Riddles. An old gentleman remarked to a dame that if she would make a riddle that he could not interpret, he would give here quart of liquor. (Be it remembered that it was more fashionable in old times to take something' than at the present day.) The old lady took down her Bible, summoned her muse, and thus she sang. The liquor was forfeited. A correspondent copied the lines from her own hand writing, suggesting that it might amuse some of our readers, but wouldn't agree to bring in the spirits if they happen to guess the riddle." We must depend upon our readers for the answer.]

God made Adam out of dust, But thought it best to make me first, So I was made before the man, To answer God's most holy plan.

My body he did make complete, But without legs or arms or feet; My ways and actions did control. And I was made without a soul.

A living being I became, 'Twas Adam that gave me my name, Then from his presence I withdrew, Nor more of Adam ever knew.

I did my Maker's laws obey, From them I never went astray : Thousands of miles I run in fear, But seldom on the earth appear.

But God in me did something see, And put a living soul in me, A son of me my God did claim, And took from me that soul again.

And when from me the soul was fled, I was the same as when first made; And without hands or feet or soul, I now travel from pole to pole.

I labor hard both day and night, To fallen men I give great light, Thousands of people both young and old, Will by my death great light behold.

No fear of death doth trouble me, For happiness I cannot see; To Heaven I shall never go, Nor to the grave nor hell below.

The Scriptures I cannot believe-If right or wrong, I can't conceive; Although my name therein is found, They are to me an empty sound.

And now my friend these lines you read, And search the Scriptures with all speed, And if my name you don't find there, I'll think it strange I must declare.
