CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 6, 1859.

HON. JAMES BURNSIDE.

What can be more startling than the bell at midnight or the quick and impetuous knocking at the door when all the inmates have sank to rest. The sleeper starts from his slumber, his heart beats rapidly, spasmodically, and his breath is labored. An indescribable apprehension of evil seizes the half aroused, who knows that such sounds are only omens of bad portent. Shortly after midnight, on Sabbath morning last, messengers reached this town conveying to our citizens the sad intelligence that his Honor James Burnside, President Judge of this district, had been thrown from a carriage, within sight of his own door, and instantly killed. The members of the Clearfield bar, officers of the court, and some of Judge Burnsides intimate friends, were aroused and informed of the casualty, and they at once convened at the house of J. L. Cuttle, Esq., and made arrangements to send a few of their number to Bellefonte, to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased. This informal meeting was a large one and did credit to the living and the dead. Wordy and meaningless eulogies were not resorted to. All were awed. All felt that in the midst of life we are in death, and showed their loss and the depth of their sorrow by grief's truest and most expressive badge-silence. The loss of one of our most valued citizens, under circumstances as appalling, could not have caused more gloom to overspread our community, than has the announcement of the death of Judge Burnside created. Judge Burnside was in the flower of manhood, full of life, health and hope. He had just finished his labors in attending court at this place and returned to the bosom of his family, which he almost idolized, when this sad accident befel him. His urbanity and many noble qualities had endearhim to our community, and his loss creates a void which cannot be filled.

The deceased was the son of the lamented Thomas Burnside, first President Judge of this district and one of the Justices of the Supreme court. He was born in Centre county about the year 1808-received a collegiate education, afterwards studied law which he practised for some years with much success. He was twice elected a member of the Assembly. During the time he represented Centre county in the legislature he became acquainted with and married his amiable wife, a daughter of Gen. Simon Cameron. In 1853 he received the nomination of the Democratic party for President Judge of this district and was elected without opposition. As a lawyer Judge Burnside enjoyed and deserved an excellent reputation. As a Judge he had taken his father for a model. Quick in forming conclusions, possessed of prejudices which imperceptably controlled him, he sometimes seemed too much the advocate whilst acting as jndge-but all freely admit that whether right or wrong in the positions he had taken; he was conscientious in the discharge of his duty and that no venal influence ever swayed him. His exemplary conduct, his fine attainments, his lively interest in all matters affecting the public weal, his warm heart and social qualities must add to the sorrow his friends feel. To say that he was faultless would be to deny his humanity. His friends will forget his foibles in the remembrance of his many virtues.

We are requested to state that Elder Lan- / ning will preach next Sabbath at 10 o'clock A. A. in Centre school-house, and at 3 o'clock P. M. in Welch's school-house.

DIVINE SERVICE .- We have been requested to state, that by Divine permission the Rev. T. Van Scoyoc will preach in the Baptist church in Clearfield, on Sunday, the 10th of July instant, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

DROWNED .- We regret to learn that Albert Jury, a son of Mr. Adam Jury, aged about 16 years, living with Hon. Peter Lamm in Girard township, was drowned in the River, at the mouth of Deer creek, on Sunday the 3d insf. It appears that he had taken a horse into the River, and from some unknown cause, fell backwards off the animal. He made scarcely an effort to save himself, and when his body was recovered about an hour and a half afterwards, he still grasped the whip in his hand. the range of the target." His remains were interred at Bald Hills on Monday.

FIRE .- On Tuesday afternoon, June 28th, the dwelling and store house of Mr. William Lumadue, of Boggs township, was destroyed by fire, together with all his household effects and most of the store goods. The loss is estimated at from $2,000 to $3,000-no insurance. The loss will be seriously felt by Mr. Lumadue, as nearly all his means were invested in the buildings and store. The fire is supposed to have originated from some defect in the stove-pipe. Mr. Lumadue was asleep in the house at the time, and knew nothing of the fire until he was aroused by some persons who were at work on the turnpike, a short distance off, and barely escaped with his life.

FOURTH OF JULY .- No regular celebration of the 4th came off in either our town or Curwensville. In the latter place, the martial and Saxe-horn bands turned out and played some patriotic tunes, and in the afternoon the Methodist Sabbath School was addressed by Rev. Mr. Spottswood in an appropriate manner, after which a nice little "treat" of cakes and confectionaries, hastily prepared for the occasion, was indulged in. In Clearfield, "the soul-sturring notes of the file and drum" enlivened the town, and about 2 o'clock a splitstick parade of men and boys came off. Towards evening, the children of the Episcopal Sabbath School were invited to Liberty Spring, where several ladies had prepared a few of the "good things" for their benefit.

A correspondent sends us an account of an affair that transpired in Beccaria township, which, though of a rather serious nature to one of the parties interested, must have been slightly ridiculous. He says, that on Sunday | sides that the stories of damage by the frost the 19th of June, some men were in a shanty at Wheatland Mills, belonging to Mr. Aug. at Wheatland Mills, belonging to Mr. Aug. Gent seemed excited, but requested leave to retire a moment before going to Justice to be searched. Deputy, polite, tenderhearted, but a little "raw" in this sort of business, assented-afterwards took gent to office of Justice, search made, all astonished that no money was found, and gent was discharged, innocent-of being as verdant as the officer who had him in charge.

Particulars of the Death of Judge Burnside.

When, last Wednesday, Hon. James Burnside, President Judge of this District, left our town, we little dreatned that in one week we would be called upon to announce his death, brought about in a most appalling manuer. It seems that on Friday evening, whilst enjoying the society of his family and friends, in front of his residence in Bellelonte, a buggy, containing his sister, Mrs. Mann, and her son, drove up to the door. The horse, being a fine one, was admired, and a ride was proposed to Judge Burnside. He at first refused on the ground that the horse had that day broken a buggy and was not safe, but his sister having remarked that she thought he had spirit enough to ride where she was not afraid to, he entered the buggy, and whilst his nephew was untying the hitching strap, the horse started, at a furious speed down the street, towards Spring creek. The Judge caught up the reins, but was unable to check the career of the horse, and as he made the turn up the street leading to the Lewistown turnpike, the right fore wheel of the buggy bursted, and the spokes falling out, let the buggy fall on the point of the axle. The Judge was thrown out with much violence on his head and chest, causing concussion of the brain, and a flow of blood from the ears, from which instantaneous death ensued, in the sight of his wife and relatives. His watch was detached from his person by the force of the fall-the case lodging In one place, and the works in another-and stopping, told, if correct, that the time of the soul's departure from its earthly tabernacle, was 20 minutes of eight o'clock. Many events may have occurred in Bellefonte to impress upon the minds of men the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, but never has anything occurred that so much appalled, and cast such a general gloom upon, the people of that place, and the large circle of acquaintances and friends of Judge Burnside in the CAMBRIA DEMOCRACY .- The Democrats of Cambria county have nominated Augustin Durbin for the Senate; Daniel Litzinger for the Assembly; Jos. M'Donald for Prothonotary, and Philip S. Noon for District Attorney. The Johnstown Echo, published by G. N. Smith, formerly the Democratic member in the Legislature, makes the following remarks in regard to the ticket :

"From the above nominations it would appear that Ebensburg has been highly favored, n getting an undue proportion of the candidates. The fault, however, is not with Ebensburg, as a large majority of the Democrats of that place did what was right, and wished to nominate a fair and good ticket.

"We believe a majority of the candidates nominated are determined to decline, and ask for a re-assembling of the Convention, that an opportunity may be afforded to correct the great error that has been made, by nominating a ticket that will meet the approbation of the people and merit their hearty support."

This sounds like rebellion. What does it mean? Surely the Democracy of Cambria cannot seriously meditate rebellion against the decrees of the party ! When faithful little Cambria bolts, what may we next expect to hear and see ?

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT .- A frightful accident occurred to a train on the Michigan and Southern Railroad, near South Bend, on the 28th June, by which from thirty to thirty-five persons were killed, and a number wounded. The accident occurred at a point where the road crosses a culvert, the stream over which it was built had risen very high, and masses of drift wood choaked up the culvert, causing the water to be dammed up around it, and to courage the most sanguine hopes with regard to the harvest. It is now confessed on all in the early part of June were much exaggerated, and that not only has the wheat escaped we were told that the corn was totally killed. | wensville. farmers now write that the crop will be a full average.
