

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 18, 1859.

The weather for a week or ten days has been very warm here. Yesterday the mercury ran up to 96 in the shade.

Our farmers, during the past week, have been busy hay-making, and some grain has also been cut in the county.

We observe that Mr. Benj. Spackman is making a start towards erecting a dwelling-house for himself on Water street.

Wm. Potter, Esq., is building an addition to his house, and otherwise improving his property at the upper end of town.

In our advertising columns will be found the card of that well-kept and convenient public house, the U. S. Hotel, Harrisburg, Pa.

On Sunday morning next, 17th inst., in the Episcopal church, will be preached a discourse, being a tribute to the memory of the late Judge Burnside.

On last Wednesday night a week ago, the store-room of Ellis Irwin & Sons, in Goshen township, was entered and about $60 worth of goods stolen therefrom.

We direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. G. G. Evans, of Philadelphia, in this paper. In our business transactions with Mr. E. we have found him prompt, and have no doubt that he will treat his customers right.

J. H. Galer, formerly of this county, now of Tyrone, gives notice that he is prepared to furnish his old Clearfield friends with any quantity of flour at the lowest prices, having made arrangements with a manufacturing establishment to supply him with the article.

We learn that week before last, Benjamin Myers, Esq., a citizen of Lock Haven, whilst lumbering on the Moshannon creek, was so severely shocked by lightning that he was entirely senseless for about four hours, after which he revived, and is now as well as ever.

Mr. Editor:—In looking over the several counties of our Senatorial District, I think Clearfield county entitled to the next Senator, and would recommend M. A. Frank, Esq., as a very suitable person for the same, and would urge his nomination by all fair means.

ACCIDENT.—We learn that yesterday, a son of George Logan, of Lawrence township, was thrown from a load of hay, and had both bones of one of his arms broken, 3 or 4 inches above the wrist. The fractured limb was dressed by Dr. Woods, and it is thought that in a short time the lad will be able to use it again.

A solution of whale oil soap will destroy the numerous insects that infest trees and shrubbery at this season of the year. Dissolve the soap in warm water, making "suds" of medium strength, and sprinkle the leaves with a syringe. This specific is sure death to the caterpillar, miller, and the army of ravagers that destroy the foliage. Now is the time for its application.

SUMMER DRINK.—To make Sherbet, take eight ounces of carbonate of soda; six ounces of tartaric acid; two pounds of loaf sugar, finely powdered; three drachms of essence of lemon. Let the powders be very dry. Mix them intimately, and keep them for use in a wide-mouthed bottle, closely corked. Put two good-sized tea-spoonsful into a tumbler; pour in half a pint of cold water, stir briskly and drink off.

On Monday, July 4th, the election of officers and organization of the "Anderson's Creek Public Road and Navigation Company," took place. John Patton was elected President; Wm. Irvin, John DuBois, John Brubaker, Charles Blanchard and John Irvin, Managers; and Wm. McBride, Treasurer and Secretary. The capital stock of the company is $5,000, all subscribed, and near $1,200 paid in at the organization. At a meeting of the Managers, it was resolved to proceed at once to make the road. A proposition was made by Messrs. Blanchard & Co. and DuBois & Co., to clear out the creek and keep it in order, for the tolls, leaving all the money subscribed to be expended on the road. If this proposition is accepted, and it probably will be, it will enable the company to make a good road to Moore's Mill in Union township, thus giving the people in that section a convenient out-let, over a road that can be travelled both summer and winter.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION.—The 83d Anniversary of American Independence, was celebrated by the citizens and Sunday School Scholars of the Bradford and Pleasant Hill Sunday schools. According to previous arrangements the Pleasant Hill School met the Bradford School, in the grove at Bradford Church about half past 10 o'clock and was greeted with a hearty reception. The company was then called to order by I. S. Shirey, and the following persons chosen as officers of the day: W. K. Wrigley, President; John Wilson and A. P. Barger, vice-presidents; R. A. Hall, J. G. Barger and W. H. Shirey, Sec'y's; and Henry Crowell Chief Marshal of the day. A suitable hymn for the occasion having been sung, the Rev. Mr. Lanning made some remarks, after which he offered an appropriate prayer. The Declaration of Independence was read by I. S. Shirey, after which the scholars accompanied by their teachers and superintendents, and under the command of the marshal, were formed in regular procession and promenaded while the ladies were spreading the table with the luxuries which they had prepared for the occasion. On return, the company were seated and partook heartily of the same. Dinner being over the audience was called to order by the President, a national hymn sung, followed by an oration from Mr. Lanning, in conclusion an anthem was sung, and a number of toasts read. The audience was then addressed by the President and dismissed.

There is a negro in Philadelphia who is distinguished for the size of his feet. They measure 8 1/2 inches in length. Big feet or big story, sure.

Four young fellows, in St. Louis, lately played a game of cards—the losers to suffer the entire loss of their hair. Two of them consequently went into a barber's hands, and nuzzled "scud under bare polks" for some time to come. There was much fun in that joke, and if all card players had their heads shaved, it would doubtless diminish games.
