Mr. Philip Antes, of Lawrence township, has a Grape vine growing on his premises, on which the spring shoots were all killed by the frost of the 4th of June. As soon as new buds made their appearance, he cut off the frozen portion, and it is now in a thriving condition, and nearly as full of blossoms as it was previous to being frozen; with a fair prospect of a crop of grapes.

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Clark's Philadelphia Gift Book Establishment, found in another column of to-day's paper. The references given by this concern are of the highest order, and warrant the belief that business is done by this house on the principle of integrity and honor. See the advertisement, and send for a catalogue, which will be mailed free to any person.

Pleasant school-house. Addresses were delivered by Rev. James Dickson, Rev. Mr. Loveall and Rev. E. W. Kirby, and the Declaration of Independence read by Mr. Robbin. An excellent dinner was also properly disposed of. We received the account of the proceedings after our paper was issued last week, and as their publication at this late day brief abstract would suffice.

DEATH FROM SUN-STROKE .- On last Wedneslay the 13th instant, a young man named Wm. 'ownall, son of Jonas Pownall, of Bradford ownship, this county, whilst working in a harest field in the vicinity of Tyrone, received a un-stroke, which resulted in his death in about alf an hour after. He was brought home and uried on Thursday in Kyler's burial ground. On the same day, Mr. Andrew J. McBride, hilst cradling grain, about two miles east of his place, was prostrated by the heat, and Mr. ohn Cessna, working in the same field, was lso compelled to quit for the same reason.

We have been informed that a field of wheat wned by Mr. Josiah Waln of Penn township, thich was so much injured by the late frost ut down for feed, immediately commenced prouting, has blossomed, and unless yet inared in some way, has every prospect of ding a good crop. We hear of other fields, with were not cut, where new sprouts have sung up and are likely to produce good . These facts are worth noting, and may ve to guide farmers should they in future their grain fields damaged in a similar amount to more than | and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, or disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infecconstitution, descending from parents "to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers on thoir children. It effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt and ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from serofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking contamination, and their health is undermined by it: To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine and invigorate it by healthy ood and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in Ayer's Compound Extract of Sursaparilla. he most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules. Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Seald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Debility, and, indeed, all Complaints arising from Vitiated or Impure Blood. The popular belief in "impuri-ty of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The practical purpose and virtue of the Sarsaparilla is to purify and re-
