OUR SENATORIAL CANDIDATE. WHAT YOU MAY EXPECT.

By a reference to the proceedings of the meeting of conferees from the counties of Blair, Cambria and Clearfield, published in another column, it will be seen that Louis W. HALL, of Blair county, is our candidate for the State Senate. He is a man of fine natural abilities, good acquirements, and an agreeable speaker.

Our friends should bear in mind that this Senatorial contest is one of the most important in the State, and that every effort will be made by our opponents to defeat our candidate. Whilst the Senator whom this district elects is in office, the term of Mr. Bigler in the U. S. Senate will expire and a successor be elected. It is therefore very important to Mr. Bigler, if he desires a re-election, to have some one elected who approves his political course and will vote for him. If Mr. Hall should be elected, it will prove a severe blow to the political prospects of Mr. Bigler and of Lecompton Democracy generally.

Our opponents seem endeavoring to make the impression that Mr. Hall is a weak or unpopular man, and that he cannot be elected. This is an old story, always told about candidates before the election, and ceases to guil any body, as the plunder party will learn to their regret before the campaign is over.

When this district was first formed it gave a decided majority for the Democratic party. Last year the vote was close, but the majority was in our favor. We feel confident that the district is stronger against the Lecompton Democracy now than it was then. Mr. Hall can be triumphantly elected; all that is required is courage and activity on the part of his

The opponents of Mr. Hall seem disposed to avoid the continued discussion of the main questions dividing the two parties. They find it is bad policy; for the more these questions are discussed and understood, the worse it is for them. They therefore seem inclined to carry on the contest in another way. The programme appears to be this. Inasmuch as Mr. Hall lives at Altoona and has been employed as an attorney by the Railroad company, it is intended to raise a general howl of "monopoly," "corporation," "railroad," "tonnage tax," "taxation," and so forth, and every big and little Lecompton watch-dog is to open his mouth and join in the chorus, and keep up an incessant barking of the same sort from this time till after the election. You will soon get accustomed to the bark, and can readily recognize it when you hear it.

Mr. Hall's views on public questions will be made known in due time, and we will venture to say that on every one they will be such as will meet the approval of candid and hon-

Gov. Wise of Virginia has a strong propen sity for letter writing. An unfortunate editor in the South favored his nomination for the Presidency, and received a thirty-columns' epistle from Wise. Since then he has indited quite a number, all of which breathe a bold and independent tone. More recently be wrote one to a friend in New York, which, though not intended for public use, has crawled into the newspapers, and has caused much uproar among the faithful. The Gov. thinks Virginia can hold the South steady, and that he has ten years, had his shoulder blade badly fracthe inside track, so far as the nomination is concerned. Douglas, in his opinion, has no no show, and if he runs independently, and Seward runs also, Wise thinks he can beat them both, if he is nominated, as he shall be if he has the popular strength. "Or, if squatter "sovereignty is a plank of the platform at "Charleston, and Douglas is nominated, the "South will run an independent candidate on s protection principles and run the election into the House. Where, then, would Mr. Douglas be? The lowest candidate on the list !"-This letter effectually kills Wise. It has been suggested that he should write no letter less than thirty columns long hereafter. Short letters, like this one to the New York Softs, are always dangerous, but in a multitude of folios there is safety. "First to Last."-At the convention of the Democratic return judges held in this place last week, resolutions were passed instructing the Judicial conferees to support Hon. G. R. Barrett for Judge, the Representative to go for Dr. T. J. Boyer, and the Senatorial "to vote from first to last" for Wm. A. Wallace, for Senator. From this it would

One night week before last, Mr. John Lang, an old and respected citizen of Beaver township, was violently assaulted by five young men, who followed him to his house, which they threatened to burn as well as his factory. He lodged a complaint against two named Boyer, two called Harris, and a fifth whose name is not given... Dysentary is prevailing to some extent in Brookville. . . . A dog, belonging to George Vanvliet of Brook-President Judge of this Judicial District, we ville, went mad and was shot on the 11th inst. This is the second mad dog that has been killed in that place within two weeks. . . . Joel Haight has lodged a complaint against Daniel Foster and wife, of Rose township, for keeping a disorderly house, and with using foul and abusive language to persons passing by. Warrants for their arrest have been issu ed. . . . On the 6th, a wagon driven by Mr. Wm. McNitt of Beaver township, was upset on the hill near Brookville. It is a wonder how Mr. M. escaped without serious injury. . . Suit has been commenced against John Clements for diverting the water from a spring which supplied several of the citizens of Brookville. . . . We gather these items from the Brookville Republican.

CENTRE COUNTY .- On the 3d inst., a young man named George Duffy went into a cornfield near Shingletown after a ground-hog. Finding that it was in its burrow, he lay down to watch until it would come out. Another young man, 'Samuel Barr,' was also out, and seeing Duffy's knee, supposed it to be the ground-hog, fired at it, the ball taking effect in the leg, and splintering the large bone (the tibia.) . . . On the 3d, John Wails of Horn-town was thrown from his wagon whilst gathering marketing in George's Valley, and much injured internally and bruised about the head and face. . . . Last week, a lady of Bellefonte killed a rattle-snake on the SnowShoe railroad. The snake had 12 rattle and was four feet long Three half grown raccoons were captured a few days since by a young lady near Port Matilda. Two of them were on a tree, which she climbed, shook the coons down, captured all three, and carried them to the hotel of R. D. Cummings, who has a pair of them under training process. Snakes, coens, and other "varmints" will hereafter have to keep their eyes open when any of the ladies of Centre county are about. . . . Several shirts were taken from the clothes line of Mr. George Boalich in Bellefonte a few nights since. The owner invites the thief to call for the collars.

LAWRENCE COUNTY .- It is said that the ladies in the willage of Croton taking offence at something scandalous circulated by Albert Davis, dressed themselves in male attire, surrounded Albert's house, called him out, seized him, applied a coat of tar and feathers to his hide, treated him to a pleasant ride on a rail, and wound up by egging him, as he left town on telegraph time. . . . On the 8th inst., Fred. Small, who was charged, in connection with Frank Warren, with taking and carrying away a minor daughter of Wm. Datey of NewCastle, for the purpose of corrupting her and violating her person, was arrested and committed to prison to anwer the charge at Court. Small is also charged with stealing a horse and buggy, the property of Thomas Moore, of Butler county. . . . A man calling himself John Barnett, was arrested on the same day, on suspicion of having stolen a horse in Cleveland. He was committed to prison to wait a trial.

WARREN COUNTY .- John J. Summer, who lives about four miles north-east of Pine Grove Village, accidentally shot his wife on the 30th July, under the following distressing circumstances: Mr.S.had taken down his rifle for the purpose of shooting some birds that were destroying his peas in the garden. As he approached the birds they flew away. He returned to the house and proceeded to hang up his gun, and while doing so the hammer of the lock caught in a crack in the floor, and as itslipped off discharged the gun, the contents entering his wife's head, killing her instantly. Mrs. Summer was standing at a cupboard, doing some work, with her back towards the muzzle of the gun. The ball entered the back part of the head and lodged in the forehead bout an inch above the eyes.

Indiana County. - Mrs. James Campbell of White township was bitten by a copper-head snake on the thumb, whilst carrying a bucket of water from a spring, a few days since. Proper restoratives were applied and the poison was checked before it had taken much hold of the system. . . . A stack of hay, the property of Mr. David Myers, of White township, was destroyed by fire on the 3d inst. It is supposed that some boys who were playing about it, had dropped a match into the hay and set it on fire. . . . Snakes appear to be unusually plenty. Mr. Hugh Hamilton, of White township, killed three very large copperheads in a clearing in one day. . . . Pheasants, squirrels, partridges, and other small game, seem to be very abundant this season. CAMBBIA COUNTY .- An infuriated hog in Cambria City on Sunday evening the 7th, seized a little daughter of Mr. Matthew Snow by the hand, lacerating it severely and dragging the child several rods before assistance could be rendered. . . . A son of Mr. John Fye, of Richland township, aged about tured one day last week by being thrown from a horse which became frightened and ran away with him. . . . A little son of David Aaron, of Conemaugh Borough, aged about three years, fell down stairs on the 10th, and broke his

Seeing a wagon, loaded with shingles, go by, he and his two companions took a seat on it to return home. They had not gone far before the shingles, which had been perceptibly slipping, gave way and he was thrown to the ground in front of the wheel. Before the driver could check the horses, the wagon passed over the middle of his body, injuring him so much that he died the same evening.

MIFFLIN COUNTY .- On Sunday evening the 7th inst., two boys were quarreling in Lewistown just as the Presbyterian and Lutheran churches were dismissed. One of them threw a stone at the other, which however missed the boy, but struck a Miss Johnson, a daughter of the widow Johnson, formerly of Milroy, so forcibly on the breast that she was stunned and had to be carried home. On the following day she was yet confined to her bed. . . A military encampment is to come off at Lew-
