CLEARFIELD, PA., SEPT. 21, 1859. PEOPLE'S STATE TICKET. THOMAS E. COCHRAN, of York. WILLIAM H. KEIM, of Berks. DISTRICT AND COUNTY TICKET. PRESIDENT JUDGE, LINN, of Centre county. STATE SENATE. LOUIS W. HALL, of Blair County. ASSEMBLY, ISAAC G. GORDON, of Jefferson co. WM. A. NICHOLS, of McKean county. WM. McBRIDE, of Curwensville. REGISTER & RECORDER, ISAAC S. SHIREY, of Bradford Township. TREASURER. BENJ. SPACKMAN, of Clearfield. COMMISSIONER GEORGE LEECH, of Pike Township. PETER LAMM, of Girard Township. JOHN B. HEWITT, of Huston Tp. HOW MUCH IT COSTS.

From an article headed "Imports and Exports," which we find in one of our exchanges, we learn that within a period of eight months, reaching from the first of January to the last of August, foreign goods to the amount of $179,451,000 were received at the port of New York alone, being an increase of $81,420,000 over the importations of the same period last year. The immense receipts of ble. Let this, however, be as it may, it is to discipline, it brings out the true beauty of pay the enormous European debts contracted for these goods. During this period of eight months, our Exports in Domestic Produce amounted to but $38,525,000, with an addition of $4,338,000 of Foreign Goods re-exported, making $42,863,000 in all; and our exportaduce, specie, etc., were $92,523,000, while our imports were $179,454,000 in Foreign Goods, with the small item of $1,649,000 in Foreign Specie, making the imports in all $181,100,000, leaving against us the enormous balance of $88,577,000, to be paid in still other drains of our gold and silver. Thus, under the present policy of Locofocoism, taking the figures of this one port as a basis, we are paying over $400,000,000 a year for foreign fabrics that we can manufacture equally as well at home, and many of which we could dispense with altogether, with great advantage to the moral and physical interests of the American people. That is what the "progressive free trade" system of the pseudo-Democracy costs us-it transfers that amount from the hands of American laborers to those of Europeans.

SAMUEL LINN, Esq .- This gentleman is now fairly before the people of the 24th Judicial District for the position of President Judge. His popularity as a man and a lawyer is well known. He has, however, bitter political enemies contending against him, and these, in their efforts to prevent his election, not only display a great deal of acrimony and malevolence in their attacks, but are attempting to spring all sorts of issues which they think might in the least injure him. Among other objections urged against Mr. Linn, we have heard it said that "he is too good a lawyer." Shades of the Sages! who would ever have dreamed that a man could be "too good a lawyer" to be a Judge? It is the first time we have heard of such an anomaly, and the astute individual who delivered himself of the profound idea must have felt much relieved after such a mental feat. Whilst we doubt that his objection will seriously damage the prospects of Mr. Linn, we wonder whether those who make it, would have us infer that his competitor is in no danger of suffering in this way-that he is not overburdened with a though we presume it makes little difference, regarded as "a fixed fact."

DISCONTINUED .- Among the "Post Office Affairs" appearing in the daily papers, we see an item to the effect that the post office at Bald Hills, Clearfield county, Pa,, is to be discontinued. Whilst the Department is thus cutting off the mail facilities of the people, for the purpose, as is alleged, of curtailing its expenses, it continues to transmit cart loads of documents, without charge, to Senators and Members of Congress. At almost any time during the past two weeks, ten or a dozen large canvass bags of documents, directed to Hon. James L. Gillis, thus sent, could have been seen in the post office in this place, waiting till the mail carrier could manage to haul them to Ridgway. This is a specimen of the retrenchment that is being effected by the model administration of the great J. B.

Our town was last Friday afternoon honorbin, the Democratic Molly Maguire candidate for the State Senate. What hurried him off the next morning, we have not learned. We hope, however, he may be here during Court week, so that the people of our county can see him and judge for themselves whether he is the kind of man they wish to represent them for the next three years in the State Senate.

THE RELIGIOUS AWAKENING.

MR. EDITOR :- I wish to call attention to the fact that for some months past there has been an awakening of religious sentiment in many sections of the world, which is likely to exceed the great revival of 1868. Ireland has been more particularly aroused than any other country, and the spread of vital piety and has extended to its uttermost borders-prayer meetings are daily held in cities, towns, and country, and thousands upon thousands are flocking to the standard of the Redeemer and seeking his forgiveness and favor. In many sections of our own land, religious revivals are in progress; there seems to be an unusual outpouring of the grace of God, and the cause of Christ is gaining a stronger hold upon the hearts of the people than was ever known berepentance. Whilst these demonstrations and revivals among Protestant denominations are meeting the favor and approbation of Christians generally, it would seem that they are a matter of deep solicitude to the head of the Romish church. The Pope is evidently alarmed at the rapid progress of Protestantism, even in Catholic Ireland, and it is not surprising, therefore, that he should make an effort to counteract a movement which is well calculated to deprive him of the control of many who might otherwise have been brought within the pale of the Mother Church. If anything were needed to satisfy any one that he is alarmed, the evidence can be found in the efforts that are now being made to build up that Church in the United States. Every where the Catholics are busy with their people, and meetings of an unusual character, calculated to strengthen the faithful and confirm the wavering, are being held in many sections. At some of these meetings it is not only contended that they are the only true church and congregation are asked to pledge themselves to adhere to, maintain, support and defend the and should it not rather depend upon the as a stay and support? Such ultraism, as I have referred to, can do no good, and can ongold from California are wholly inadequate to be hoped that the revivals will continue, and character, and shows how few there are who that much good to mankind will follow. School Exhibition. Pennsville, September 13th, 1859. The exhibition which was held in the new the exercises were interesting, instructive and scholars, as to win the admiration of all who were present, who feel an interest in education | Phlladelphia, Pa. at least, and to reflect much credit upon the efficient and attentive instructress, whose labors among her pupils for the last four months will not soon be forgotten by them.

Ocaasional exhibitions, well conducted, would no doubt be beneficial in all our schools. They tend to promote a harmonious feeling and union of sentiment, resulting in a concert of action between the teacher and the pupils, as well as between the pupils themselves, which is of the highest importance in the government of schools.

MINNESOTA POLITICS .- The Hartford Press says a private letter from St. Paul.of September 2d, from a gentleman well qualified to judge expresses an opinion, speaking as one of "the great Democratic party," that "the Blacks are going to whip us awfully." He thinks the days of that party in Minnesota are numbered, and adds: "Electioneering is carried on briskly, both parties have speakers from the East, and the only difference from former times is, that argument is taking the place of whisky-only because the candidates are too short to change the treat much." At the New York Democratic State Conventioh last week they had "a free fight." The Fernando Wood or Hard faction came the snap game in organizing, but the Softs also selected a chairman, Mr. Stryker, who was soon knocked down by a blow from one of the Hards. Much confusion ensued, and as one same State ticket was nominated by both factions, with the exception of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals. The Softs selected a full delegation to the Charleston convention.

His autobiography has been long out of print; his reputation for eccentricity has been presumed upon in the publication of fore, and numberless sinners are brought to all sorts of outrageous nonsense, in coarse almanacs, and other vehicles for low humor. This volume is a republication of the genuine work, with necessary additions; and will be new to the present generation of readers. It is as marked and characteristic as the subject was; his portrait faithfully drawn, and none the less so that it is without an effort, and perfectly naive and sincere. We well remember the amiable original in his northern tour, and recall many of the incidents to which his book alludes. We have never looked upon his like since; and rejoice in this republication as an act of justice; to retrieve an honest man from vulgar misrepresentation.

> Strumous or Scofulous affections are the curse, the blight, the potatoe rot of mankind. They are vile and filthy as well as fatal. They arise from contamination and impurity of the blood, and are to be seen all around us everywhere. J. Hoffman raised an ear of corn on the lot at the foot of Ard's Hill, which measured 16 inches in length. . . . On the 5th inst., the roof of a frame kitchen attached to a house in Lewistown, occupied by Peter Loudenslager, and adjoining a block of four or five houses, took fire during the absence of Mrs. L., who on returning in a few moments discovered the fire and by throwing a bucket of water on it checked it. She then ran for assistance, but no men were near, and but for the undaunted heroism of Miss Mary Scholl, who ascended the roof and by the aid of several buckets of water quenched the fire, the entire block would inevitably have been

CRAWFORD COUNTY .- Samuel Jackson, of Riceville, was drowned in the creek at Little Cooley, on the night of the 7th inst. He was intoxicated at the time, having been on a spree for about a week, and was drowned in water but 18 inches deep. . . . A few days since, as Mrs. Sullard was standing close to the cook stove in the house of Mr. R. Tunison near West Greenville, her clothes caught fire and before the flames could be extinguished, she was severely burned on one side from the ankle to the elbow. The injuries are of an alarming character. . . . Great excitement prevails at Titusville in consequence of a gentleman named Drake, after boring down 70 feet, striking a vein of "Seneca Oil," from which he is taking out fifteen barrels of oil per day. This pec, a free port on the Gulf of California, and oil in its crude state is said to be worth $40

CLARION COUNTY .- A gentleman in Corsica being annoyed by tame pigeons coming about the store door, picked up a rifle and fired at them. The pigeons flew away unharmed. He then took up another gun and no game being in sight he fired towards a stable, in which a valuable horse belonging to Dr. J. C. Jones was tied. The bullet passing through the heart of the horse, killed him almost instantly. · . . John Snow, who was not long since severely injured with a club in the hands of Joseph Bartlebach, is yet alive, but only slight hopes of his recovery are entertained. BLAIR COUNTY .- At a dance at Miller's in red between David Irvin and a man named Harney, during which knives were drawn and both stabbed. . . .
