

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., OCT. 5, 1859.

PROCEEDINGS OF COURT.

Court called on Monday morning and after receiving returns of Constables, &c., adjourned until afternoon—when after a charge to the Grand Jury by his Honor James Gamble, a jury was empanelled in...

Thompson vs. Cathcart. This was an action of ejectment to recover 200 acres of land situated to John Jones. It involved several important legal questions—location of survey, stopped by deed, statute of limitation, &c. the case was warmly and ably contested on both sides and occupied the attention of the court until Wednesday at noon. After an absence of several hours the jury returned a verdict for defendant. Crans, for plaintiff; Wallace and McEnally, for defendant.

Hegarty vs. Mathews & Boynton, was a heavy action of ejectment for part of survey in name of Mary Neil. This cause had been twice tried and last spring reversed by the Supreme Court. It was entirely a question of location. His Honor ruling that the Mary Neil must be located, as plaintiffs contended, from the point of Mary Connelly survey according to its official courses and distances, took the cause from the jury and so entered the verdict—Wallace and Gattie, for plaintiff; McEnally, for defendant.

Several unimportant rules, motions, &c., on trial list, were disposed of. In the Quarter Sessions were tried...

Com'th vs. Henry Jennings. Assault and battery. Verdict, defendant not guilty, but that he and prosecutor, John Reiter, each pay their own costs and half of docket costs. R. J. Wallace for Com. Wallace & Tegler for def't.

Com'th vs. Alex. Beatty. Larceny, stealing a silver, the property of H. W. Mott, of Bell township. Defendant acquitted. R. J. Wallace for Com.; Wallace for def't.

Com'th vs. Hen Gies, and 19 others. Riot. This prosecution grew out of the rescue of J. G. Stewart, some weeks since, who was charged with horse stealing. He was in charge of a person who had no legal warrant. After the trial of this prosecution, the District Attorney entered a nolle pro. on the indictment against Stewart. Defendants acquitted and sentenced to pay one third of the costs, and A. W. Meath, prosecutor, two thirds of the costs. R. J. Wallace and Swoope for Com.; Wallace and McCullough for defendants.

Com'th vs. Byron J. Conroy. Highway robbery. This was a lengthy and remarkable case. The robbery occurred in Graham township, Sept. 14th, at noon. The prosecutor, as well as others, identified the prisoner by various marks on his person and by his clothes; whilst others proved that the prisoner was in Pike township, 15 or 18 miles from the scene of the robbery, at that hour. The witnesses on the prosecution and defence were men of established character and those who proved the alibi fixed the time in various circumstances—entries in books, &c. Jury out 4 o'clock. Defendant acquitted. R. J. Wallace, Crans and Swoope for Com.; Wallace, Larimer & Test for defendant.

Com'th vs. Jacob Irvin, and others. Assault and battery. Defendants acquitted, but sentenced to pay all costs excepting $3; and the prosecutor, Albert Grapp, to pay $3. R. J. Wallace for Com.; Swoope for def'ts.

In closing on Saturday night Judge Gamble thanked the bar for their kindness, &c., and was replied to by J. B. McEnally, Esq., in a neat and appropriate speech.

Fact—we could never see the philosophy of tying a tin pan to a dog's caudal appendage, and regard it as greatly cur-tail-ing his liberty.

Prevails—the fog cholera, in Marion county, Tenn., to a fearful extent. The epidemic is also laid in Squatchee and Bledsoe counties.

At a late Bloomer convention the delegates resolved that they "would wear short dresses or nothing." Short dresses by all means, ladies.

Stated—by the Boteourt (Va.) Whig that at present in that county, "beards are as plentiful as squirrels." Then, we infer, "squirrels are as plentiful as beards."

Concocted—when an archer is in a melange harrel with one end of a saw in the bang-hole and the other in his mouth, that he is enjoying the sweets of life?

Related—a great many anecdotes of personal bravery. We would like to see that man who would deliberately allow a woman to catch him making mouths at her baby.

Were bricks made of iron instead of clay, their weight would cause great inconvenience, judging from the complaints of those who carry a fatful home every night.

To be sold—the Southern Pacific Railroad, under execution. President Fawkes will pay off the debts of the old company. A new company is to be formed, and J. Edgar Thompson, of the Pennsylvania Central is to be President.

Our friend, Zach. Ogden, of Lawrence township, presented us with several "California" potatoes, which are about the finest specimens of that excellent that we have seen for several years, and for which we tender our thanks.

Mr. Albert D. Bishop, a well-known American engineer, is the lion in London at this time, he having invented and constructed on the Thames a mammoth derrick, which lifts a thousand tons at a pull. It raises even the largest sunken ships.

Shelton, in one of his sermons, says: "An upright is always easier than a stooping posture, because it is more natural, and one part is better supported by another; so it is better to be an honest man than a knave. It is also more graceful."

There is no medicine that will relieve the principal ills that flesh is heir to in a short time as Du Vall's Galvanic Oil. From five to thirty minutes is all the time required.

CATCHING A BEAR.—On Wednesday evening a week, Mr. George Hess, of Lawrence township, set a trap in a cornfield of Harrison Miller, near Clearfield creek, to catch a bear, which had been committing depredations on cornfields in the neighborhood, having destroyed about 40 bushels for one man.

On visiting the trap on Thursday morning the bear was on the ground, detained, no doubt, against his will. Some 8 or 10 persons soon assembled, and were much delighted at the prospect of oiling their mouths with 'bear's grease.' Bruin, however, not much admiring their rejoicing, concluded to be off, if possible. In his anger he soon bit off a sapling, some four inches thick, to which the trap was chained, and commenced making tracks. The trap being fast to his foot, impeded his progress, but coming to a log, he soon rid himself of it, by beating it to pieces, and then went on his way rejoicing. Nearly half the persons present had guns, but the "bar fever" had seized upon them so firmly that neither thought of shooting, until Bruin had made good his escape, most likely to feast in some other cornfield, thinking his stars for his narrow escape from being eat by hungry men.

It is a common observation that there are more sufferers from debility, among Americans, than can be found among any other civilized nation. The reason obvious is, that little exercise and forget the wants of the body in the absorbing pursuits of business. In all cases, ordinary medicines can do no good. What is required is just such a tonic and invigorator as Dr. J. Hostetter has given to the world.
