"You can't do that again," said the pig, when the boy cut its tail off.

James Price, a white man, received 30 lashes at the last Wythe county (Virginia) court, for petty larceny.

The new directory of the city of Philadelphia shows a population of 680,000, an increase of 271,238 since 1850.

The monument to Henry Clay, in Lexington, Kentucky, is nearly completed. It is said to be one of the handsomest works of art in

"I do not think, madam, that any man of residence, on Second street. the least sense would approve of your conduct." "Sir, how can you judge what any man of the least sense would do."

The will of Joseph Miner, deceased, leaving a property of $80,000, to three sons, and cutting off four other children with from $5 to $100 each, has been set aside in the Fayette Circuit Court, Indiana.

A St. Louis paper mentions a suicide in that city from a rather singular cause. A young Frenchman named Donnedieu was insane. He thought his stomach was full of devils-an aggravated case of dyspepsia and despairing of made and money remitted relief, he cut his throat and shot himself.

Rats are becoming an unendurable pest to farmers in Illinois. In Saline county the corn crop has suffered seriously from their depredations. In other counties they are equally numerous, entering the cornfields in swarms, and threatening them with entire destruction.

About a week since, a fair young girl of 10 arrived in Cleveland, put up at a hotel, "rigged out" in expensive harness, and attracted much attention. She told the landlord she expected her uncle, and on Saturday he arrived. He was not an active gentleman and 60 years old at least. In the afternoon there arrived at the hotel an uncouth old man in baggy trousers, with a slight Yorkshire accent. This old man angrily confronted the other old man, and charged him with running away with his daughter. There was a scene of recrimination, when the father charged the "lovyer" with being married and the father of eight children. Finally, the father and the old runaway had a private conversation, at the close of which the father returned home, and the young girl and her pretended uncle left to-

EEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.-Re movals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddler Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street, nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Sin-gle Harness, Double Harness, Tug Harness, Bri-dles, Collars, Whips, Halters, Housings, Breechbands, Side Straps, and in fact every article in the ine of Saddling and Harness making. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed I solicit a continuance of the same and a call from as many new customers as ean make it suit. Aug. 29, '59. GEORGE W. RHEEM. P. S. My being connected with the Drug business will not interfere with my shop, for I have the Drug Store attended to by careful hands and intend devoting my time exclusively to my regu-
