INSURRECTION IN VIRGINIA.

On our outside will be found an account, taken from a Southern paper, of an "insurrection" which took place at Harper's Ferry, Virginia, on the 16th, 17th and 18th of the present month. Old Capt. John Brown, who our readers will doubtless remember, had a valuable saw-mill in Kansas burned, one son brutally used that he died from the effects of the treatment and another shot dead by the Border Ruffians, was, it appears, the conductor and leader of this insane and mistaken movement, the main object of which seems to have been to liberate slaves in the States of Maryland and Virginia. When the "insurrection" was first announced, the force engaged in it was magnified into hundreds, but it is now rendered certain that it numbered, all told, seventeen infatuated white men, some of them over three score years of age, and five half-naked "niggers." It seems incredible that such a petty force should capture a town of nearly 2000 inhabitants, in a State where prowess and "chivalry" are supposed to grow spontaneously, and yet the fact is substantiated by indubitable testimony. Insignificant, however, as it was, the consequences have been of the most deplorable nature, and the effects such as will be regretted by every right-thinking man in the country. We are glad that the press, without an exception, and men of all political shades—Republicans, Americans and Democrats—denounce the movement, and characterize it as the work of a miserably deluded and crazy man. And yet we find there are those who gloat over the event—who seize upon it with avidity for the purpose of turning it into political capital—who have openly expressed the wish that the occurrence had taken place before the late election, so that they could have raised a hue and cry against the People's party, and, by charging it with being responsible for the conduct of the handful of madmen who took part in it, have defeated our candidates. Poor, despicable creatures! they would be none too good to incite and encourage "insurrections" like that at Harper's Ferry, if they thought they could benefit the Democratic party by it. We regret it much that men, who express themselves in the manner stated, should be found within a thousand miles of Clearfield. We can tell them, however, that all their efforts to saddle the responsibility upon the Opposition will prove futile and recoil upon themselves; and whilst we say emphatically that John Brown did wrong, acted unwisely and madly, and that he should be punished to the extremity of the law, we think if any are to be blamed for his conduct, it should be those who, by disturbing him in the pursuit of a peaceful and lawful calling, burning his property and murdering his children, made him what he is—a monomaniac about slavery.

Some cute Locooco politicians are trying to create the impression that the N. Y. Tribune justifies the conduct of Old Capt. Brown at Harper's Ferry. They are either grossly ignorant of that paper's views, or have not the honesty to give them correctly, for in speaking of the "insurrection" it says it "deeply regrets this outbreak," and that "the whole affair seems the work of a madman." A man must be either a knave or a fool who will attempt to pervert the meaning of such plain words as those quoted. The organs of the Black Democracy will in all probability join in the effort named, but not one of them will have the moral courage to transfer to their columns entire the articles of the Tribune on this deplorable occurrence. See if they will.

Official Vote for Assembly.

By the following official return of the vote for Assembly in our Representative district, it will be seen that Gordon, Opposition, and Benton, Democrat, have been elected. The district has always been strongly Democratic, and Mr. Gordon and the party have good cause for rejoicing over his election.

A conspiracy has lately been discovered in Turkey, which had for its object the overthrow of the Government, and the elevation of the brother of the Sultan to the Supreme Power. The plot was discovered on the 18th ult., and on the 24th 3,000 persons had been arrested on account of it. A Court of Inquiry, consisting of the highest officials of the empire, has been formed to investigate the affair.

Still another triumph! Nebraska has elected Daily, Republican, as delegate to Congress.

Some of the Locooco papers say that Gerrit Smith, whom they assail as implicated in John Brown's insurrection, is "a Republican ex-member of Congress." Mildly speaking, this is an untrue assertion. All the world knows that Gerrit Smith not only never was a Republican, but has long been an ardent antagonist of the Republican party. A year ago he did his best to defeat the Republican candidate for Governor of New York, preferring even that the Democratic nominee should be elected. Before that, when he was returned to Congress, it was not as a Republican but as an eccentric, independent advocate of the theory that the Federal Constitution does not recognize Slavery, but is an Abolitionist instrument. When the Kansas-Nebraska outrage was being pressed through Congress, Mr. Smith refused to co-operate in the attempt of the Republicans to delay and prevent its passage by parliamentary strategy. At the same time, he advocated the acquisition of Cuba—the great measure of Democrats and Fillibusters. Such is the political record of Mr. Smith. We are not aware that he has ever agreed with the Republicans except in voting for Fremont, which he declared that he did from personal liking for the man, and not from sympathy with his party. A party press must be hard run when it has to resort to such paltry fabrications as that exposed, in its efforts to make a little political capital.

The leaders of the Black-Democracy will doubtless begin to suspect that Lecomptonism, "progressive Free Trade," and the other peculiar doctrines which they advocate, has made their party "weak in the knees" in the "wild-cat" region. The People's party have now the Congressman, the Senator, the Judge, and one of the two Assemblymen in the districts to which Clearfield is attached. All these districts were heretofore considered hopelessly Democratic.

MONK DEMOCRATIC JUDGE.—The papers of Baltimore are urging the Grand Jury to find a bill of indictment against Judge Stump, of the Criminal Court of that city. The Judge, it will be recollected, sentenced a number of the "blood tub" rioters, who had been found guilty by a jury of rioting, rape and murder, to two days' imprisonment, and a fine of fifty cents. This model Judge was elected by the Democratic party of Baltimore.

The Memphis Avalanche (portentous name!) openly accuses Senator Douglas of "treason to the Democratic party," and says: "The little apostate has drawn from the Democratic party his vitality, as the mistletoe extracts from the oak its substance." "What," it indignantly asks, "has this rebellious demagogue done, that the Democratic party should now hug him to its bosom and strike down a faithful President?"

The season wanes and the nights grow cool; but the coolest thing we have seen lately is the following from The Pennsylvanian: "It is evident that the Opposition intend to continue, in Pennsylvania, their game of deception in relation to the tariff: the cry that the Democratic party of the nation is in favor of Free Trade they know to be false."

E. C. Wilson, Adjutant General of the State of Pennsylvania, has taken 40 muskets which were in possession of the Colored Military company in Philadelphia, which paraded in that city a few months since.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

The St. Louis Express of the 24th September says: About ten days ago, a tremendous drove of gray squirrels, numbering hundreds of thousands, suddenly made their appearance on the Meramac, covering the trees and waters like a pall. Thousands of them were afterwards found dead in the river and on the ground. They crossed the Mississippi at that point, and worked their way down the river, until on Wednesday they reached Cape Girardeau, crossing the river at that point in countless myriads. The citizens turned out en masse, and killed them by hundreds. Every tree and bush in the vicinity swarmed with them until night, when they all disappeared, and have not been heard of since. Their route was marked as by a devastating storm. Trees were girdled and fields destroyed. Old French settlers predict a very severe winter, as it was noticed in 1834 and '52, that immense droves of squirrels made their appearance, followed by intensely severe weather.

BLOODY ENGAGEMENT.—A bloody engagement, between whites and Indians, took place recently, on the Arkansas river, near Fort Smith. There were seventeen Indians on one side, and five Americans, two unarmed, on the other. At the end, eleven Indians were killed, and an American, was shot with an arrow, which he had to cut out; and after performing incredible feats, he was finally killed in a third attack. Sawyers and Bradley, of the same party, shared the same fate, and out of the five but one escaped.

About a week ago a woman who rejoices in the cognomen of "Dancing Sally" stole a horse near Rochester, N. Y. A reward of $100 being offered for her arrest, she was pursued by a constable, who overtook her, and for safe keeping confined her in the third story of a hotel, from whence she escaped during the night by the aid of her bed-cord, and finding the officer's horse was superior to her own, exchanged steeds, and made her escape.

Prize-fighting is certainly becoming frightfully popular. The other night five ladies of St. Louis repaired to a vacant Hall, two of them being principals, two seconds, and the fifth a keeper, confined her in the third story of a hotel, from whence she escaped during the night by the aid of her bed-cord, and finding the officer's horse was superior to her own, exchanged steeds, and made her escape.

The grand jury of Allegheny county have found T. J. Rutherford guilty and returned six true bills against him, on the oaths of females for misconduct. Mr. Rutherford was superintendent of the House of Refuge, and sustained a high character for moral worth until recently. His case is a hard one, having to suffer vengeance of the law on the oaths of some of the most debased and abandoned females.

At noon, on Saturday the 22d instant, in the Maryland penitentiary, a convict refused compliance with the orders of the Deputy Warden, who, whilst enforcing the command, was seized by the convict and stabbed twice in the neck. Immediately Gregory Darret, another officer of the penitentiary, fired two shots at the prisoner, inflicting a fatal wound. It is thought the Warden will die of his wounds.

A Vigilance Committee in Lafayette parish, La., visited the house of Bernard Lacouture, who had been "warned" on the night of the 30th ult., and calling him to the door shot him dead. The mother of the victim attempted to get a warrant for the arrest of his murderers, but the magistrate refused to receive her statement, and the coroner resigned rather than hold an inquest over the body.

As the train going west over the Great Western railway, a few nights since, was moving along the shore of Lake St. Clair, a heavy fog prevailing at the time, a flock of wild ducks came rushing against the cars, four of them entering the open door of the baggage car, which was quickly closed, and the game captured. The spoils were divided between the conductor and the baggageman.

The Indians in Southwestern Texas are becoming very formidable and daring, in consequence of the removal of the United States troops. The white residents of Western and South-western Texas are greatly alarmed at the menacing attitude assumed by the Indians. It is expected that troops will be immediately sent to the relief of the inhabitants of the threatened districts.

In New York city, on the morning of the 20th Oct., a police officer was attracted to a house by the piteous cries of children. On entering, he discovered the dead body of a woman, with her three helpless offspring weeping around the body because they could not awaken her. She died from impotence! Her husband is now in the penitentiary, as a habitual drunkard.

A new Fillibustering expedition against Nicaragua is said to be in course of preparation, with larger resources and composed of a better class of followers than any of the former ones. The examination of the fillibusters, who were recently arrested, has commenced at New Orleans. No important evidence has yet been elicited.

The Fincastle, Virginia, Whig says: "We announce the fact that there were sixteen bears killed by two persons in this county last week—and we hear of several other gentlemen who killed from one to three each. We have no doubt there have been at least one hundred bears killed in Botetourt county in the last 60 days.

The St. Louis Republican of the 20th contains a despatch stating that a party of men had arrived the day before from Pike's Peak, bringing with them $100,000 in gold dust.

Seven men were killed by an explosion at Dupont's powder mill, on the Brandywine, Delaware, on Saturday the 23d inst.

By a fire which occurred in Leavenworth, Kansas, on the 20th inst., property to the value of $120,000 was destroyed.

PENNSYLVANIA ITEMS.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY.—A son of Capt. John Miller, of Hempfield township, aged about 15 years, whilst walking on the railroad track, on the 17th inst., was struck by a locomotive, knocked down the embankment and the Great Eastern, and he was severely injured. The Great Eastern, had his back and one leg badly injured, by the falling down of an immense mass of slate in a coal mine at Pennsylvania, and worked their way down the river, until on Wednesday they reached Cape Girardeau, crossing the river at that point in countless myriads. The citizens turned out en masse, and killed them by hundreds. Every tree and bush in the vicinity swarmed with them until night, when they all disappeared, and have not been heard of since. Their route was marked as by a devastating storm. Trees were girdled and fields destroyed. Old French settlers predict a very severe winter, as it was noticed in 1834 and '52, that immense droves of squirrels made their appearance, followed by intensely severe weather.

CAMBERG COUNTY.—Mr. Jacob Yost and wife, of Cambria township, whilst returning home from Ebenezer on the 6th inst., were thrown from a small wagon and severely injured, the old lady having her right arm broken in two places, and the old gentleman getting one of his ribs broken. The parties are each about 70 years of age, and are rapidly recovering from their injuries. . . . The dwelling house of Mr. Wm. McGahey, of Munster township, was burned to the ground on the night of the 10th inst., about 11 o'clock, a fire broke out in a row of frame buildings east of the bridge which connects Johnstown with Conemaugh Borough, and before it could be stopped, five of the buildings were consumed. Several poor families were rendered homeless and almost destitute of clothing by the calamity, although most of their property was saved. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. . . . The brick walls of the new German Catholic Church in Cambria City, were blown down by the violent storm of the 15th. The loss falls heavily on the contractors, Messrs. Eastly & Son.

INDIANA COUNTY.—Mr. John McNeal, Sr., of White township, was knocked down and badly bruised by the large door of his barn blowing shut, on the 16th, and striking him. . . . A large bear was killed near Diamonds Mills on the 12th; another one made its escape. . . . On the 11th, Mr. George McCartney, an aged and respected citizen of White township, whilst working in his corn-field, was attacked by heart disease, which caused almost instantaneous death. On the same day, Mr. Francis Meloy, whilst engaged in a similar pursuit, died from a similar attack. . . . A portion of the brick walls of the new school house in Indiana Borough, was blown down by a strong gust of wind on the 11th. . . . On the 14th, a son of Mr. David Mitchell, of Washington township, was out hunting, when by accident the gun was discharged, and the contents, entering his side, produced a severe, but not a dangerous wound.

VENANGO COUNTY.—On Saturday, the 8th inst., a fatal lady took place in Sandy creek township, between Yancout Vossler and Wm. Donahue, which resulted in the latter being struck on the head by a stone, which fractured his skull, and caused his death on the following morning. They resided near each other, and were on good terms until a day or two previous, when some difficulty occurred between their families. They met on the evening referred to, and after some warm words came to blows. Donahue stooped to pick up a stone, when Vossler picked up one quickly and threw it at him with the above result. Vossler has not been arrested, and is supposed to have left the country.

ARMSTRONG COUNTY.—The house of Rev. Jamison, was entered on Friday night the 14th Oct., by a party of burglars, who stole from it $20 in money, and a pair of pants. Entrance was effected by means of an instrument, with which the perpetrators succeeded in turning the key on the inside. The same night the store of Wilson Sprout, at the same place was entered, but nothing carried off. The lock of Gen. Anderson's store was also turned, but nothing was taken, having been granted to the undersigned by a party of burglars, who were secured by an inside bolt. One of the windows of the Priest's parsonage was raised, but the servant overhearing it, gave the alarm, and they fled.

CENTRE COUNTY.—A large black bear, week before last, crossed from Nittany Valley to the mountain, near the residence of Mr. Jacob Barnhart. Brin was taking things leisurely, and though pursuit was given, made his escape. . . . Martine Furnace and the steam saw-mill adjoining, were recently consumed by fire. The loss falls heavily on the owner, Jack Thompson. . . . John Carr, a colored man, was committed to jail in Bellefonte on the 11th, charged with stealing a coat from Mr. Michael Lepklicher.

WARREN COUNTY.—Tuesday, Oct. 11th, Lawrence Mowrer, living a mile below the town of Warren came to his death in a singular manner. He has been out to Dunkirk a few days, and on his return, he stopped at the village of Sinclearville, Chautauque Co., N. Y., to stay over night. In driving his load into the barn of the village hotel, Mr. Mowrer's head came in contact with a beam, causing almost instant death.

ELK COUNTY.—Rosencrantz and Rowlee, convicted of horse-stealing, were last week taken to the Penitentiary in Allegheny City, by Sheriff Healy. . . . The old Rough & Ready Mill, about a quarter of a mile above Ridgway, was destroyed by fire on the 11th inst. The mill belonged to the Sunbury & Erie Railroad Company. The loss is only the value of the building.

MIFLIN COUNTY.—John Swigart, an old citizen of Oliver township, was found dead in his barn a few weeks ago. He had left the house an hour or two for the purpose of attending to the cattle, and probably died from apoplexy.

CRAWFORD COUNTY.—The famous Oil factory of Mr. Drake, in Titusville, was destroyed by fire on the 9th inst. The loss is estimated at $10,000. The "hole" from which the oil is drawn is left unharmed.

POTTER COUNTY.—The house of Mr. Henry J. Leach in Hector township, was robbed of goods to the value of over $100 on the night of the 5th inst.

Much has been said of the Eastern Escalupus' labors for the sick; not one half has yet been told of the indomitable perseverance of this singular man. Imbued with the conviction that Scrofula is the parent of disease, he has been years engaged in searching the boundaries of the earth, for its antidote. With vast labor has he canvassed the products of sea and land through both continents until he has discovered that combination of remedials which expurgates this human rot and corruption from the system. This new invention we now offer in our columns under the name of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, although its virtues are from substances far more active and effectual than Sarsaparilla.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The steamship Anglo-Saxon, with Liverpool dates to the 10th inst., passed Father Point for Quebec at 8 a. m. on the 23d. The difficulties in the Zurich Conference still remained unadjusted and the prospects of a favorable termination of its labors were not encouraging. The Great Eastern had made a successful trip from Portland to Hollywood, when it was reported, she would proceed to Southampton, to remain for the Winter. The British Cabinet was seriously divided on the Chinese question. Sir Robert Stephenson, the eminent engineer, was in a dying state. The London builders' strike still continued, and the hopes of its speedy adjustment had been destroyed. The United States had received a warning, for an article on Cochinchina. Spanish troops were about to enter Moorish territory; the Spanish Consul at Tangiers had received orders to quit his post.

WHERE WILL THEY GO?—Since the result of the late elections have become known, it is conceded on all sides that Douglas is played out. His strongest friends admit that he has no longer the semblance of a chance of getting the Charleston nomination. Had his friends succeeded in carrying Ohio, Iowa and Minnesota, they would have gone to Charleston and put in a strong claim for him on the ground of availability. They would have insisted that he was the only man who could carry enough Northern States to elect a Democrat President, and pointed to what he had done in the North-Western elections this fall. But all that argument is gone to the land of dreams, and at Charleston he will scarcely be mentioned except as the late Mr. Douglas. For the next six months the wire-pullers will be actively employed canvassing the strength of the various candidates. —Chicago Press.

It is said that Governor Wise is not very complimentary to the people of Harper's Ferry, imputing to them cowardice, in allowing such a handful of men to hold a population of nearly two thousand inhabitants prisoners for twenty-four hours. He also spoke of the fact of eight or ten men keeping forty or fifty citizens in confinement. One replied: "Well, Governor, but you must remember we were packed together like sheep."

A man in New York recently bought a clock at auction for fifty cents. About a week ago he sold the clock to another man, who after taking it home, discovered that a looking-glass in the back of the clock was broken. He took out the glass to have it replaced by a new one, when he discovered notes of the Bank of England to the amount of ten thousand dollars. It is reported that the holder of the estate to which the clock belonged are going to commence suit for the recovery of the money.

Judge Terry, who killed Senator Broderick of California in a duel, has been arrested and held to bail in the sum of $10,000. After giving bail the accused was released.
