There is only one objection to people who "mean well," and that is they never can spare time to carry out their meaning.

The writer of the following must have been a homopath : "Surely it is a blessed privilege to be kissed by the breezes that have kissed all the pretty women in the world."

The large yield of 2006 bushels of wheat was obtained from thirty-five acres this year, by R. F. Peckham, of the Pajan Valley, California-nearly 67 bushels to the acre.

Austin Avery, of Windham, Connecticut, is said to have a pumpkin vine in his garden 1328 feet long, which has produced 60 pumpkins averaging 9 inches in diameter. Which, the vine or the garden?

A merchant in a certain city, who died suddenly, left in his desk a letter to one of his correspondents. His sagacious clerk, a son of Erin, seeing it necessary to send the letter, wrote at the bottom, "Since writing the above I have died."

A passenger train on the Northern railway, a few days since, ran over an intoxicated fellow on the track. He was so insensible to the magnitude of the misfortune as to remark to the conductor, while he looked at his lacerated limbs,"This is too bad; I didn't mean to hinder the train."

The fishermen have a very curious way of catching fish in the Rhone. They wade into the water at night, with a knife and a watertight lamp. They place the lamp under water, and the trout will soon follow it. As the fish come up to the surface of the water, the fisherman kills them with his knife.

KEEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.-Removals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddler Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street, nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Single Harness, Double Harness, Tug Harness, Bri-dles, Collars, Whips, Halters, Housings, Breechbands, Side Straps, and in fact every article in the line of Saddling and Harness making. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed I solicit a continuance of the same and a call from as many new customers as can make it suit. GEORGE W. RHEEM.
