SHE DIDN'T MEAN THAT .- The Neosho, Mo., Herald relates the following amusing incident of a Maying party : "Muggins-the ubiquitous Muggins-attended a May day pic-nic this season. Being somewhat of a lady's man and good looking withal, it is not strange that Muggins should be found at the head and bottom of all pic-nics, quiltings and social gatherings in his immediate neighborhood. Well, Muggins was in 'clover'-the pic-nickers assembled in a beautiful grove, a short distance from town. What with dancing, singing and sparking,' the time passed off unnoticed, and the shades of evening were fast approaching. family articles generally. Some ten or fifteen girls and boys were enjoying themselves in the play of Seven Kingdoms,' etc., and it was agreed to wind up' by kissing round, Muggins to begin the good work. Now it happened that Sue -, a bright-eyed, rosy-cheeked lass, was standing at the extreme end of the row from where the kissing commenced, and getting impatient, not only to start for home, but also to receive her share of the 'busses,' she clapped her hands exclaiming : . Boys, kiss the girls at both ends !' The boys yelled outright, the girls giggled, poor that,' and Muggins hastened to our sanctum and confidently informed us of Sue's proposition. After explaining to the ignorant scamp that Sue meant to kiss them at each end of the row, we ordered our devil to kick him out, and forbid him ever to enter our presence again, and the last we heard of him he was back of town a short distance, 'fishing and fighting,' and hunting turkeys.' ----

KEEP UP THE EXCITEMENT .-- Re-movals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddler Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street. nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Single Harness, Double Harness, Tug Harness, Bri-dles, Collars, Whips, Halters, Housings, Breechands, Side Straps, and in fact every article in the line of Saddling and Harness making. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed I solicit a continuance of the same and a call from as many new customers as can make it suit.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.-The Tribune-now more than eighteen years old, and having over Two Hundred Thousand subscribers. or constant purchasers, diffused through every State and Territory of our Union-will continue in essence what it has been-the earnest champion of Liberty, Progress, and whatever will confuse to our national growth in Virtue, Industry, Knowledge, and Prosperity. It will continue to urge the emancipation not only of the Black laborer from chattleism and legal impotence, but of the White likewise from Land Monopoly, Intemperance, Ignorance, and that dependence on remote Markets which paralyzes exertion by denying to Toil any adequate and morally certain reward. Believing that the chief evil of our time is the inordinate multiplication and disproportion of Not-Producers, it will continue to war against whatever tends to degrade Manuel Labor or deprive it of its just and full recompense. It will inflexibly commend the policy of winning hither from Eu-rope the Useful Arts, and, wherever they may be needed, the Artisans as well, for whose products our country is now running recklessly into debt, while our laborers roam in fruitless quest of employment, leaving their children in want of bread. ough the farmer is too often compelled to sell iscrops at most inadequate prices In short while battling against Fillibusterism and every other nanifestation of that evil spirit which seeks thro' he spollation of other countries that aggrandizement which is to be truly attained only through the due development and cultivation of our internal resources, it will argently advocate a more effectively discriminating Tariff, the Freedom of the Public Lands, the construction of a Railroad from the navigable waters of the Mississippi to those of the Pacific, and every other measure which seems to us calculated to enhance the dignity or the recompense of Labor and premote the well-being of Mankind.

The "irrepressible conflict" between Darkness and Light, Inertia and Progress, Slavery and Free-dom, moves steadily onward. Isolated acts of folly and madness may for the moment give a seeming advantage to Wrong ; but God still reigns.and the Ages are true to Humanity and Right. The year 1860 must witness a memorable conflict between these irreconcilable antagonists. The question-"Shall Human Slavery be further strengthened and diffused by the power and under the flag of the Federal Union ?" is now to receive a momentous if not conclusive answer. "Land for the IF you want good Cherry Brandy go to Mossop's. Landless, tersus Regioes to Millions who, having battle-cry of the embodied Millions who, having just swept Pennsylvania. Ohio and the North-west, appear in the new Congress, backed by nearly every Free State, to demand a recognition of every man's right to cultivate and improve a modicum of the earth's surface wherever he has not been anticipated by the State's cession to another. Free Homes, and the consecration of the virgin soil of the Territories to Free Labor-two requirements, but one policy-must largely absorb the attention of Congress through the ensuing session, as of the People in the succeeding Presidential canvass. and, whatever the immediate issue, we cannot doubt that the ultimate verdict will be in accord at once with the dictates of impartial Philanthropy and the inalienable Rights of Man. Having made arrangements for fuller and more graphic reports of the doings of Congress, and of whatever else transpiring at the Federal Metropo-lis shall seem worthy of public regard, and having extended both our Foreign and Domestic Correspondence and strengthened our Editorial staff, we believe The Tribune may safely challenge a comparison with any rival, whether as an exponent of principles or as a reliable mirror of the passing world. We purpose not to be surpassed nor anticipated in the collection or presentation of intelligence, though we eschew that reputation for enterprise which is acquired by bribing mes-sengers and clerks in public offices to connive at the premature publication of treaties or other of-ficial documents. We prize accuracy of statement quite as highly as promptitude. but endeavor not to sacrifiee the latter while securing the former. Essentially, The Tribune will be what it has been, while we shall constantly study to improve its every feature, and "make each day a critic on the last" The general verdict of the Press and the Public has affirmed the success of our past labors. and those of the future shall be by equal earnest-ness and assidnity. We ask those who believe the general influence of our journal to be salutary to aid us in extending that influence through an increase of our subscriptions. The New-York Daily Tribune is printed on a large imperial sheet, and published every morning and evening (Sundays excepted.)
