WHICH END OF TROUBLE .- Not long ago a bridegroom returning home from his wedding. was met by a friend, who thus addressed him, "Well, Jack, I'm glad to see thee in thy happy position, thou hast seen the end of thy trouble now." "Thank thee, lad," was Jack's answer, "I hope I have." About a month afterwards the two friends again met, when Jack, speaking rather warmly, exclaimed, "John, thou telled me a lie that morning I got wed! Didn't thou say I'd seen the end of my trouble?" "I did," was the reply, "but I didn't tell thee which end."

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.-The Tribune-now more than eighteen years old. and naving over Two Hundred Thousand subsetibers, r constant purchasers, diffused through every State and Territory of our Union-will continue in essence what it has been-the earnest champion of Liberty, Progress, and whatever will conduce to our national growth in Virtue. Industry, Knowldge and Prosperity. It will continue to urge the emancipation not only of the Black laborer from chattleism and legal impotence, but of the White likewise from Land Monopoly, Intemperance, Ignorance, and that dependence on remote Markets which paralyzes exertion by denying to Toil any adequate and morally certain reward. Believing that the chief evil of our time is the inordinate multiplication and disproportion of Non-Producers, it will continue to war against whateyer tends to degrade Manuel Labor or deprive it of its just and full recompense. It will inflexibly commend the policy of winning hither from Eqrope the Useful Arts, and, wherever they may be needed, the Artisans as well, for whose products our country is now running recklessly into debt, while our laborers roam in fruitless quest of employment, leaving their children in want of bread. though the farmer is too often compelled to sell his crops at most inadequate prices In short while battling against Fillibusterism and every other manifestation of that evil spirit which seeks thro' the spoliation of other countries that aggrapdizement which is to be truly attained only through the due development and cultivation of our internal resources, it will urgently advocate a more effeetly ly discriminating Tariff, the Freedom of the Public Lands, the construction of a Railroad from the navigable waters of the Mississippi to those of the Pacific, and every other measure which seems to us calculated to enhance the dignity or the recompense of Labor and premote the well-being of Mankind. The 'irrepressible conflict' between Darkness and Light, Inertia and Progress. Slavery and Freeom. moves steadily onward. Isolated acts of folly and madness may for the moment give a seemng advantage to Wrong; but God still reigns and the Ages are true to Humanity and Right. The year 1850 must witness a memorable conflict between these irreconcilable antagonists. The question-"Shall Human Slavery be further strengthened and diffused by the power and under the dag of the Federal Union?" is now to receive a momentous if not conclusive answer. "Land for the Landless, versus Negroes for the Negroless" is the battle-cry of the embedied Millions who, having just swept Pennsylvania. Ohio and the North-west, appear in the new Congress, backed by nearly every Free State, to demand a recognition of every man's right to cultivate and improve a modicum of the earth's surface wherever he has not been anticipated by the State's cossion to another. Free Homes, and the consecration of the virgin soil of the Territories to Free Labor-two requirements, but one policy-must largely absorb the attention of Congress through the ensuing session, as of the People in the succeeding Presidential capvass; and, whatever the immediate issue, we cannot doubt that the ultimate verdict will be in accord at once with the dictates of impartial Philanthro py and the inalienable Rights of Man. Having made arrangements for fuller and more graphic reports of the doings of Congress, and of whatever else transpiring at the Federal Metropolis shall seem worthy of public regard, and having extended both our Foreign and Domestic Corspondence and strengthened our Editorial staff, we believe The Tribane may safely challenge a comparison with any rival, whether as an exponent of principles or as a reliable mirror of the passing world. We purpose not to be surpassed nor anticipated in the collection or presentation of intelligence, though we eschew that reputation for enterprise which is acquired by bribing mes-sengers and clerks in public offices to connive at the premature publication of treaties or other official documents. We prize accuracy of statement quite as highly as promptitude. but endeaver not to sacrifice the latter while securing the former Essentially. The Tribune will be what it has been while we shall constantly study to improve its every feature, and "make each day a critic on the last". The general verdict of the Press and the Public has affirmed the success of our past labors, and those of the future shall be by equal cornest ness and assiduity. We ask those who believe the general influence of our journal to be salutary to aid us in extending that influence through an increase of our subscriptions. The New-York Dully Tribune is printed on a large imperial sheet, and published every morning and evening (Sundays excepted.) It contains Editorials on the topics of the times, employing a large corps of the best newspaper writers of the day; Domestic and Foreign Correspondence; Proceedings of Congress; Reports of Lectures; City News: Cattle, Horse, and Produce Markets: Reviews of Books: Literary Intelligence; Papers on Mechanics and the Arts. &c . &c. We strive to make The Tribune a newspaper to meet the wants of the public-its Telegraphic news alone costing over $15,000 per annum. TERMS ; - The Daily Tribune is mailed to subscribers at SS a year, in advance; $3 for 6 months. The New-York Semi-Weekly Tribune is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the Editorials of the Daily with the Cattle, Horse, and General Markets, reliably reported expressly for The Tribune; Foreign and Domestic Corres pondence; and during the sessions of Congress it contains a summary of Congressional doings with the more important speeches. We shall, as here-tofore, make The Semi-Weekly Tribune a Literary, as well as a political newspaper, and we are determined that it shall remain in the front rank of family papers. One copy. 1 year, $3; Two copies, 1 year, $5; Five copies, one year, $11 25; Ten copies, to one address, $20 00. Ten copies, or over, to address of each subscriber, $2.20 each.

Any person sending us a club of twenty, or over, will be entitled to an extra copy. For a club of fifty, we will send the Daily Tribune', one year. The Semi-Weekly Tribune is sent to Clergymen at $2 per annum.
The New-York Weekly Tribane, a large eight-page paper for the country, is published every Saturday, and contains editorials on the important topics of the times, the news of the week. interesting correspondence from all parts of the world; the New-York Cattle. Horse, and Produce Markets; interesting and reliable Political, Mechanical and Agricultural articles. &c . &c.

We shall, during this year as hitherto constantly labor to improve the quality of the instructive entertainment afforded by The Weekly Tribune, which, we intend, shall continue to be the best Family Weekly Newspaper published in the World. We consider the Cattle Market Reports alone richly worth to cattle raisers a year's subscription price
