We can perhaps tolerate a man who has just / ignorance enough to talk among fools, if he has discretion enough to be silent among men of sense.

The dogs killed in Cleveland, Ohio, are sold to a glove manufactory in Litchfield, Medina county, where the skins are made up into kid and buckskin.

Only about 20,000 barrels of whisky are annually manufactured in Kentucky, and yet the sales of "Old Bourbon," in the same time are nearly five millions of barrels. Dealers and consumers can judge that there must be an enormous "extension" in the article some way.

A Pittsburg Judge in charging a jury recently, used the following language with reference to ardent spirits and its doing : "Independent of its effects, individual, social, moral, religious, and political; drink wields the clubbrandishes the bowie-knite-hurls the bulletnerves the burglar-inspires the thief, and kindles the torch of incendiary. It first maddens the tiger, and then unchains him."

KEEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.-Re-movals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddler Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street. nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Siagle Harness, Double Harness, Tug Harness, Briles, Collars, Whips, Halters, Honsings, Breechands. Side Straps, and in fact every article in the line of Saddling and Harness making. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed I solicit a continuance of the same and a call from as many new customers as can make it suit. GEORGE W. RHEEM. Aug. 29, '59, P. S. My being nnected with the ness will not interfere with my shop, for I have the Drug Store attended to by careful hands and intend devoting my time exclusively to my regularg business. G. W. R.

This Magazine is now finishing the first year, and drawing near the close of the Second Volume, and has met with unparalleled success

The Third Volume will commence with the number for January, 1850, which will be issued early in December, 1859. Every number will be splendidly illustrated in the highest style of art. Among the numerous contributors engaged for the coming year are the following well known distinguished authors: Fitz Green Halleck, Orestes A. Brownson, Seba Smith (Jack Downing), George P, Morris, J. T. Headley, Geo. D. Prentice, Wm. Gillmore Simms, Alice Carey, Park Benjamin, John G. Saxe, Calbour McKenzie, M. F. Maury, Hannah F. Gould, Mrs. Kirkland, Mrs. Oakes Smith, Mrs.

Ellet, Phebe Carey, &c., &c., &c., &c. In the January number will be commenced the most strikingly original novel of the day, entitled The Prophet; ar. Scenes of Barder Life, By Elizabeth Oakes Smith. There will also be commenced in an early number of the coming volume a most startling and intensely interesting original novel, entitled The Slaver of the Coast ; or, The African Trader, By Calhoun McKenzie.

The "Great Republic Monthly" is the largest Magazine published in this country. Over $40,-000 has already been expended to bring it to its present high degree of merit. The publishers are letermined to give it the largest circulation in the world. With this view they make the following nagnificent offers. And they refer to every suberiber now on their books as to the fidelity with which they fulfil their obligations.

TERMS :- Single copies, 25 cents; Subscription er year, $3 00; Clubs, of three or more, each $2. Any one sending a club of five subscribers, with the money, shall receive, by mail, h schoice of either of the following magnificent Steel Engravings, viz: The Last Supper: size of plate, 25 by 40 inches; value, $5. The City of the Great King; size of plate, 25 by 39 inches; value, $5. The Palace of Westminster; size of plate, 25 by 39 inches; value, S5. Any person sending a club of Ten subscribers shall receive his choice of any two of above engravings. Any one sending a club of Fifteen subscribers shall receive his choice of any four of above engravings. Any sending a club of Twenty subscribers shall receive all of the above engravings, and a copy of the magazine for one year, gratis.

This splendid offer will enable every one, by a trifling exertion, in getting subscribers, to obtain as fine a collection of rare works of Art to adorn ois parlor, as can be obtained anywhere for twenty-five dollars, cash. Young gentlemen and young ladies, all over the country, are invited to get up clubs upon above terms. Postmasters, and other respectable persons who may desire to act as Agents, and to receive a cash commission instead of the above liberal offer, are authorized to forward us subscribers at the prices before named, deductng twenty per cent. for their trouble. The engravings will be sent in rotation, in the order in which he clubs are sent in. First come first served.

In addition to to the above unparalleled offer we now announce that where parties do not form clubs and where their names are not sent in clubs, that single subscribers sending the amount set opposite to each of the above engravings, shall receive the engraving chosen and one copy of the magazine for one year. Some of these engravings are of three times the value of those offered by the Old Ary Union, and all of them are better and of more intrinsic worth than any engravings ever offered by any Gift Enterprise or Art Association."

"The Last Supper." and "The City of the Great King," should adorn the walls of every Clergyman and Scholar in the country.

No such offers as these were ever made beforethere is no . chance" in the matter, no "lottery, no gift enterprise, no humbug. We call upon Clergymen, Postmasters, travelers, scholars, and all who are interested in the success of American Literature and Art, to avail themselves of these generously liberal offers. In addition to all of the above, any one sending one dollar and a half extra. ($1 50,) shall receive the twelve back numbers of the magazine from January, 1859, forming a perfect set of the "Great Republic" Monthly from
