SENATORIAL CONFERENCE .- The Conferees of the Senatorial District, composed of Cambria, Blair, and Clearfield counties, assembled in Tyrone, on the 27th January, to elect a delegate to the State Convention of the Peoples' Party, to be held at Harrisburg, on the 22d of February. George W. Patton, Esq., of Blair, was elected President, and Wm. McBride, of ceeded in a free-and-easy style, to show why Clearfield, Sec'y. Jacob M. Campbell, Esq., of Cambria, was unanimously elected the Delegate, and the following resolutions were adopted without a dissenting voice :

Resolved. That the Delegate this day elected, is hereby instructed to vote for the Hon. SAMUEL CALVIN, of Blair county, as the candidate of the People's Party for Governor, and in the event of the name of Mr. Calvin being withdrawn, or there being no prospect of his nomination, then he shall vote for the Hon. ANDREW G. CURTIN, of Centre county, as the only remaining choice of the majority of the people of this Senatorial District.

Resolved, That the said Delegate be further instructed to oppose by all fair and legitimate means, the selection of delegates to the National Convention, believing as we do, that it helongs of right to the people of the respective congressional districts and to them alone.

MORE TREASON .- At a recent political meeting in Knoxville, Tenn., Judge Baily, formerly of Georgia, made a startling disclosure touching Gov. Wise. He said that, "during the Presidential contest, (of 1856,) Gov. Wise had addressed letters to all the Southern Governors-and that the one to the Governor of Florida had been shown him-in which Wise said that he had an army in readiness to prevent Fremont from taking his seat, if elected, and asking the co-operation of those to whom he wrote !" When the Senate gets through investigating the Harper's Ferry affair, would it not be well to make an equally thorough investigation into the nature and extent of this "conspiracy ?" In the meantime our Democratic friends might get up a series of 'union' meetings, and express their abhorrence of the meditated "treason" of Gov. Wise. We shall watch with some degree of interest to see if a single so-called Democratic paper will publish the above extract from Judge Baily's speech, and desounce the plot therein exposed.

JAN. 23.—In the Senate, after the adoption of a resolution offered by Mr. Hale, calling for the names and salaries of the persons employed in the Treasury Department whose appointments have not been confirmed by the Senate, Mr. Douglas' resolution directing a bill to be framed to protect States of the Union from external invasion, was taken up, and Mr. Douglas proceeded to sustain the resolution, holding that the Constitution guaranteed to each State a Republican form of Government and protection from invasion-the President having replied to Gov. Wise that he found no power in the Constitution for action on his part. He wished to raise the question whether Congress should not, under the authority of the Constitution, pass whatever law was necessary. He charged the Republican party with the responsibility of the John Brown invasion. Mr. Fessenden, Rep. of Me., replied in defense of that party, and Mr. Douglas retorted, when the Senate adjourned. In the House, Mr. Barksdale (Dem., Miss.) referred to the condition of the Honse, now maintained for seven weeks, and declared, that rather than have Mr. Sherman elected, disorder might reign there for ever. He then spoke at length on the Slavery question. He also declared that he would resist the inauguration of a Republican President. After Mr. B. had concluded a somewhat fierce disunion speech, Mr. Corwia (Rep., Ohio) took the floor, and prothe House should go into a ballot for Speaker, as it was only by voting that the House was ever to become organized. Adjourned. Jan. 24 .- Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to secure wages to seamen in case of wreck. Mr. Brown, a bill to provide for the public printing. Mr. Rice moved that a bill be framed for the organization of the Territory of Dacotah, which was laid over. Mr. King's a bucket of boiling water upon her head, resolution relative to paying for the public scalding her so severely as to result in almost printing was adopted. Mr. Iverson offered a instantaneous death.... The schoolhouse near joint resolution relative to the pay of retired and decrepit officers of the Navy, which was adopted. The President sent in the information called for relative to the Perugia affair. Mr. Douglas' resolution was then taken up, and Mr. Toombs (Dem., Ga.) addressed the Senate. The debate was continued by Messrs. Foster (Rep., Conn.,) Mallory (Dem., Fa.,) and Benjamin (Dem., La.,) when the resolution was postponed ; an Executive session was had, and the Senate adjourned. In the House, a personal matter was brought up and discussed, relative to the Douglas Democracy of Illinois, by Messrs. McClernand (Dem., Ill.)

Fainsworth (Rep., Ill.,) and Logan (Dem., Ill.,) when Mr. Corwin (Rep., O.,) resumed his remarks commenced yesterday, and speaking four hours, the House adjourned without a vote for Speaker. JAS. 25 .- In the Senate, Mr. Lane (Dem.,

Mr. Keitt (Dem., S. C.,) replied to some of the arguments of Mr. Corwin. Mr. Boteler (S. Am., Va.) followed, attributing John Brown's raid to the Republican party agitating the Slavery question. Mr. Colfax (Rep., Ind.,) replied. Mr. Etheridge (S.Am. Tenn.,) then arged the House to stop debate and vote for Speaker. After his remarks, the House voted, when it was found Mr. Sherman lacked three votes of an election. Adjourned. JAN. 26 .- Mr. Rice, (Dem. Min.) introduced a bill for the relies of the mail contractors. Mr. Benjamin (Dem. La.) introduced a bill-to authorize the Missionary Society of the Episcopal Church to enter a certain tract of land in Wisconsin. On motion of Mr. Bright (Dem. Ind.) the Committee on Claims was ordered to be increased to seven members. Mr. Hunter (Dem. Va.) desired Mr. Douglas's resolution to be made the special order for Tuesday afternoon next. Mr. Davis (Dem. Miss.) objection. Mr. Wilson (Rep. Mass.) took the floor in reply to Mr. Davis's speech yesterday, and concisely summed up the aggressions of the South, stating them in detail. A colloquy ensued between Messrs. Hammond, Fitch, Davis and Wilson, when the Senate adjourned. In the House, members generally came in to-day with the understanding that, under Mr. Etheridge's proposition, they were to continue voting for Speaker, without debate, for an indefinite period, if no choice was made. Mr. Hickman (A. L. Pa.), however, stated that he had intended to resist a vote to-day, but he would not interrupt the understanding. He would, however, withhold his vote, regarding the arrangement as a farce. Some discussion was had as to the obligation of members to regard the understanding alluded to as binding upon them, and the House proceeded to a vote. Mr. Sherman received 109 votes-five after discussion thereon, two more votes were had with the same result. JAN. 27 .- Senate not in session. In the ter thinks the nomination of Hon. Edward House, Mr. Adrian (Anti-Lecompton, N. J.) Bates, of Missouri, for President, and Hon. called attention to an editorial in The Tribune relative to his position on the Speakership question and said that he had made no pledges to join the Republicans in organizing the considered, as the Opposition could put in House. Mr. Davis A. L. Ind.) made a similar trial of Sylvester McFillen, indicted for the statement, as also Mr. Riggs (A. L., N. J.) The House then, on motion of Mr. Maynard Mr. Mallory (S. A. PREPARED FOR THE "RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL." BLAIR COUNTY .- The scarlet fever, which for some time past been prevailing in Tyrone City . is abating. . . . On Saturday morning, Jan. 21st, Mr. George Boyer of Bald Eagle Furnace, whilst going to the barn, slipped and, falling upon a piece of cinder, broke his knee; he is lying in a very critical situation. . . . On the 25th, Rev. Mr. Ward, Miss Margaret Condo. and Mrs. Myers, started for Bald Eagle furnace in a carriage belonging to the National Hotel, Tyrone City. When just above the toll-gate, the tongue broke, and the horses, becoming unmanageable, upset Mr. Ward, Miss Condo, and the driver, Dan. Yellots, into the Bald Eagle creek. After the horses had run some distance, Mrs. Myers jumped out and fortunately escaped with a few scratches. The party in the creek escaped with a cold bath. . . . On the 21st January, a girl named Dunn, living with a family in the North Ward, Altoona, gave birth to a female child, which she laid between the straw bed and chaff bed, where it was found soon after by a woman who went to her room, suspecting from the girl's conduct that something was wrong, though prior to that time her real condition was not suspected. The coroner held an inquest on the body of the infant, and rendered a verdict that it came to its death by the hands of its mother.

CAMBRIA COUNTY .- A rather singular accident occurred one day last week, to Mr. Robert Rowland, who lives about two miles south of Ebensburg. During the performance of some labor with his team, one of the horses slipped and fell, crushing him to the ground, and severely injuring him. . . . A child aged about 2 years, daughter of M. J. Smith, of Gallitzen, was so severely scalded on Saturday January 21st, as to result in her death. In playing about a table, she accidentally upset Scalp Level, in which Mr. Joseph Holsopple has been teaching during the winter, was burned to the ground on Monday Jan. 28d. On the same night the "Albach" schoolhouse in Jackson township, Mr. John Duncan teacher, was also totally destroyed by fire. Both fires are supposed to have been the work of incendiaries. . . . Mrs. Munson, of Johnstown, received a check from the American Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia for the sum of one thousand dollars, being the amount of the policy held by her late husband, and which they promptly paid upon his death.

JEFFERSONCOUNTY .--- For several weeks past a disease, something of the nature of putrid sore throat, has been raging in Oliver township, some ten miles south of Brookville. Since then no clue has been obtained to his whereabouts. Some have alleged that he has decamped with the proceeds of his sales, but the fact that he paid the indebtedness of the firm in Pittsburgh, purchased a new stock of goods and many other acts evidencing an intention of returning, repels this presumption, and gives credence to the more probable surmises that he has been foully dealt with. Report says, the last place he was traced to, was a low tav-ern in the city of Pittsburgh. There all trace of him was lost. His disappearance has created much talk in the neighborhood of the business operations of the firm. LAWRENCE COUNTY .- Sometime in September last the store of M'Millan & Sons, New Castle, was robbed of a large amount of furs, dry goods and other articles. The other day a set of the missing furs was recognized, on the wife of George Farron, of New Castle, and on his house-being searched, more of the missing goods were found concealed there. He was held to bail to answer a charge of larceny at Court. On Saturday evening, Jan. 21st, two houses built by Mr. John Steel, at a coal bank, on the farm of Mr. David Damels, in Union township, were destroyed, with all their contents. Mr. John Johnson, a miner, had moved into the houses but a short time before the event, and as he and his wife were absent at New Castle at the time, all their household goods were destroyed with the houses. Mr.Steel was also absent at the time, and what belonged to him, including his books, were also destroyed. LANCASTER COUNTY .- A man named George Clinton, aged torty-seven years, was burned short of an election. The question was then to death on Friday night, Jan. 20th, by the raised as to a continuance of the voting, and, explosion of a fluid lamp, at Shock's mills, on the Harrisburg and Lancaster branch railroad, about three miles this side of Marietta. The deceased was the Station agent at that point, and was about lighting the lamp in front of his office when by some unknown means it exploded, setting his clothes on fire, and burning him so badly that he died the same evening. LETTER FROM HARRISBURG. Correspondence of the "Raftsman's Journal."

HARRISBURG, JANUARY 28, 1860. DEAR Row :- Matters are moving on here about as usual. Considerable attention appears to be given to solving the problems of who shall be the Speaker of Congress-who shall be the next President, and who shall be the next Governor. Talking about the next Governor-who do you think will get the nomination of the People's Party ? I do not know who you are in favor of, and I don't care much-but without claiming any credit as a prophet, I say that ByElection expenses, Col. Curtin is the coming man. He is already fortified with a bulwark of strength that cannot be shaken. There is no question about his nomination on the second or third ballot. This is conceded by those who are the friends of other aspirants. The contest after the nomination will be a severe one, but Col. Curtin's well known abilities on the stump will be brought into requisition, and as he is perfectly at home there, he will make the fur fly to some purpose. On Tuesday last, Senator Welsh presented a memorial in the Senate, which, aside from its novelty, attracted some attention, because, like the Tariff resolutions, it may be regarded as a political feeler. It is from John H. Wheeler, asking for indemnity in the sum of $5,000 for the loss of five slaves rescued from him by Passmore Williamson and other Abolitiontsts, in Philadelphia, in 1855, while on his way to Nicaragua. Of course his right to recover any By damages is disputed, although he fortifies his claim by a long array of legal decisions. The celebrated Lemmon case, now in the Court of Appeals of New York, is one of the same nature, and if it is there decided that slaves may be held while in transitu in free States, Mr. Wheeler may possibly recover-but not from the State of Pennsylvania. The municipal government of a city which is too weak in the Jordan, knees to suppress riots, must pay for the damages done by them. There is a bill before the Legislature to levy- Jordan, an additional tax on Brokers-that is to say, making them pay four per cent. on their profits, and swearing to the amount. This is right. By a system of adroit financiering they are enabled to net a much higher rate of interest than the law contemplates, and all engaged in the business manage to grow rich. If you look at the total amount of tax paid by Brokers, you will find that it reaches only $7,000, while that derived from Banks foots up at least a quarter of a million.

Chest, While on financial affairs, I may as well state Jordan, Pike, that there are several applications for new Covington, J B. Barmoy, 00 00 bank charters awaiting action, which I have Penn, not noticed before, viz: one from Clarion ounty, one from Scranton, one from Lewis-

No Speaker in Congress at latest dates. On Monday Mr. Sherman withdrew in favor of Mr. Pennington of New Jersey, remarking that he would consider it a national calamity to have the control of the House fall into the hands of the Administration party. A vote was then taken, with the following result :-- Pennington 115, Smith, S. Am., 113, scattering 6.

Samuel C. Sterling, of Juniata township, Perry county, was arrested lately on a charge of obtaining money by misrepresenting matters. It appears he made some simple folks believe that he had a large fortune coming to him, and they were fools enough to lend him judgment notes, which he sold and they will have to pay.

A GOOD TICKET .- The Indiana, Pa., Regis-John M. Read, of Pennsylvania, for Vice President, would make as strong a span, all things harness, for the approaching contest.
