CLEARFIELD, PA., FEB. 1, 1860.

Charles Holes has opened an Ambrotype Gallery in Shaw's Row. See advertisement.

TYPBOID FEVER and Pueumonia are said to be prevailing to some extent in the neighboring town of Philipsburg, Centre county.

The attention of persons in need of Stoves, Plows, and other Castings in common use, is directed to the advertisement of Robison & Denmark, of Curwensville.

A meeting of the Clearfield County Bible society will be held in the Lutheran church in this place on Sunday evening next, Feb. 5th, en which occasion Rev. Dr. McLeod is to deilver an address.

ACCIDENT .- We understand that a man on Wm. H. Robertson's log job, neur Cathcart's on Little Clearfield creek, had both his legs broken last Wednesday or Thursday. We have been unable to learn either his name or the particulars of the accident.

Last Saturday morning, snow to the depth of 5 or 6 inches fell in this region, which had the effect of again putting our lumbermen to work at hauling timber to the river. The quantity of lumber this season will be rather larger than it has been for three or four years.

RELIGIOUS .- The Northeastern Conference of the Allegheny Lutheran Synod will assemble in the Borough of Clearfield on Tuesday evening the 14th day of February, 1860, and continue in session during the week. The Lord's Supper will be administered on Sunday the 19th. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

ARM BROKES .- Last Thursday afternoon, a man named Thomas James, who resides at Morrisdale, this county, whilst driving a team between that place and Allports, slipped on the ice with which the road was covered, and broke one of his arms above the wrist. He at once went to Philipsburg to have the fractare properly attended to by a physician.

CHASED BY A WOLF .- Early on the morning of the 21st January, as Mr. Joseph McCollough of Wheatland, in the south part of this coundy, was proceeding to Janesville, in a twohorse sled, he was met by a large wolf which seemed determined to attack him in the sled. but was kept out by a smart application of the whip as the "varmint," from time to time. came within reach. When within about half a mile of town, the wolf gave up the chase, turned into the woods, and laid down in a patch of laurel. On arriving in Janesville, McCollough related the chase to Mr. Abraham Nivling, who proceeded to the place designated, with some friends, and succeeded in capturing the wolf. McCollough, it is thought, will after this adventure probably drive horses not quite so lean as those he used on this occasion, or go to town later in the day.

MYSTERIOUS .- Last Thursday morning, when / Mr. Henry Kerns, of Curwensville, went to his shop, which is open beneath, he discovered that during the night an old maple stump had been put under it and ignited. Fortunately the stump was of a spunky nature, which prevented the fire from breaking out in a blaze. For what purpose it was put there, and by whom, are mysteries at present. Had the shop taken fire, it would doubtless have resulted in a heavy destruction of property, as it closely adjoins a block of three or four houses, which could not possibly have been saved.

The closing Years of Life are often rendered THE Head of the Susquehanna Shear Boom is vertiched by ailments which are triffing in themwretched by ailments which are trifling in themselves and easily cured if taken in time. Affection of the liver, stomach, and other organs concerned in digestion, are the most frequent. They naturally make the sufferer nervous, irritable and complaining, and relatives and friends are forced o bear the brunt of their ill humor. The use of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters will prove an efficient remedy for this evil, it will not only strengthen the whole physical organization, but entirely cure the most obstinate cases of Indigestion, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, and Liver complaint. The first physicians in the country are loud in their praise of this preparation. Another recom-mendation of the Bitters is that it is so palatable to the taste that it may be used even as a beverage. Sold by all druggists.

M., the provide for the wants of the really needy. dwelling house of Mr. Stacy W. Thompson in Knox township, was burned to the ground, together with the furniture and about 40 bushels of buckwheat. The men were absent in the woods at the time the fire occurred. Through the intrepid exertions of Mrs. Thompson, the principal part of the bed clothing, wearing apparel, and all the papers of her husband, were rescued from the devouring element. A trunk, containing some valuable papers, she saved by entering the house through one of the windows after the doors were enveloped in flames. The fire originated at the stove-pipe. The direct loss of Mr. Thompson will not be less than $800 or $900. The inclement season of the year makes the loss more severely felt ; but we are glad to learn, he has procured a house, belonging to Mr. John Morgan, into which he has removed his family.

On Wednesday night, about 1 c'clock, the house occupied by James C. Barrett, at New Salem, in Brady township, with all its contents, was consumed by fire. The family were awakened by a Mr. Heiges barely in time to flames make, that the very sills of the building were burned to ashes. The fire, it is suphouse of Mr. Daniel Barrett was in great danger of being also burned, and was only saved by tearing down a ware house and stable that stood between the two houses. The loss will, however, be most seriously felt by Mr. James C. Barrett, whose whole family are thus rendered destitute, whilst he himself, by paralysis, has for labor of any account.

On Friday evening, the house of Mr. George also burned to the ground. It was, we understand, a comparatively new building, having been erected about two years ago. The stove pipe had become detached from the flue, from which the garret floor took fire between 6 and 7 o'clock, and so rapidly did the flames spread that nearly all the contents, including some corn and buckwheat, were consumed. The loss will exceed $1000-no insurance.

It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has inname, which is not a new medicine. but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease. For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or Bilious complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producingCramps, Dysentary, Cholic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal. Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, so generally conracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bit-ters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their dy of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTER'S. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healty digestion, and the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled consitution and infirm body. these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart tempothe first account of the insurrection-some of the should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before to doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the
