THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL,

At a public dinner, three clergymen stood up at the same moment to say grace. Sydney Smith, who was present, called them "the Three Graces."

"Gentlemen," said a tavern keeper to his guests, at midnight, "I don't know whether you have talked enough or not, but for myself I am going to shut,up !"

A party of nine hunters in the lower part of Fort Bend county, Texas, lately killed in seven hours, four bears, one wild cat, five deer, eral. seventy-five ducks and millards, and forty-three prairie chickens and partridges.

Abont a year ago a fellow named Webb, left his family at Corning, N. Y., and went to Ohio, without contributing to their support in any way. Last summer a Mr. Newton wrote to Webb, offering him work, and urging him that he should return and support his wife and children. He accepted the offer, and for some weeks applied himself to work ; but in November he ran away with Newton's wife, and went to Cooperstown, where they set up housekeeping and lived quite contentedly until the woman's husband found them week before last and broke up the adulterous nest.
