CLEARFIELD, PA., FEB. 22, 1860. How Some Things were Done .- A development was made before the Senate Investigating Committee, at Washington, week before last, which should cause the people hereafter to regard with suspicion the efforts periodically made in this country to organize what are called "third parties." While the avowed purposes of the leaders in these movements may be plausible enough, they are in reality gotten up as a political speculation by interested persons. Before the Investigating Com. mittee, Mr. Magarge, a Democratic paper merchant of Philadelphia, testified among other things that he had received between four and five thousand dollars from Mr. Wendell, in 1856, to be applied to the purpose of organizing a third party in the city, the object of which was to operate on the Presidential and Gubernatorial elections, and which was considered as essential to the success of the Democrats in the State. "This general fact," says a Washington correspondent, "was well understood at the time, but it was not known then that the public money was thus shamefully appropriated to a partizan object. The funds so used were derived from the profits of the public printing and other jobs, so that it may be said they were virtually taken from the treasury and corruptly distributed to affect the elections. While honest men in Philadelphia and the eastern part of the State supposed they were sustaining a principle in supporting a third organization, it turns out that they were only the dupes of vile tricksters, who had been purchased to set that ball in motion under the inspiration of managers at this capital, and with money provided by assessments levied upon office-holders and contractors. The whole scheme was contrived here, and while tens of thousands of dollars were subsequently contributed by New York to aid in these infamous operations, the inception of to the plunderers who had and still have their headquarters at Washington, and directly un-

We have five days later intelligence from Europe by the steamer Bohemian, which reached Portland on the 14th. Her dates are to the 2d inst. The New York packet-ship Endymonian was destroyed by fire in the Mersey on the 31st ult. There were twenty-five second cabin passengers, who with the crew and the luggage of the passengers, were saved. Some of the cargo, which was large and valuable, would be saved in a damaged state. The London Times says that proposals have been made to the United States relative to the San Juan affair, which would prove satisfactory to both countries. The Paris Univers has been suppressed, the immediate cause of which was the publication of the Pope's letter giving the motives for his refusal to accept the advice of the Emperor to give up the Romagna. The paper is to be continued in Brussels. Other journals have been warned. A popular demonstration had occurred at Chamberry against the annexation of Savoy to France. The French protecionists were making strenuous efforts against the proposed commercial treaty. It now appears that the ancient rule in Central Italy cannot be restored, and that the Congress | war of 1812. is postponed indefinitely. Owing to the continuance of agitation and demonstrations of discontent, it was considered likely that a and Moors is reported, in which the latter were repulsed with immense losses. Garibaldi had arrived in Milan with his bride.

Post Office Bill.-This bill having passed both houses of Congress, and received the Ex- | Clerk might re-arrange member's seats. Reecutive signature, is now a law. It appropriates $4,296,000 to supply the deficiency, and $4,000,000 for the support of the department sition of Cuba by negotiation, and its admisfor the year ending June next; and the further sion into the Union. HOMESTEAD BILL .- Mr. Grow, Republican member of Congress from this State, has introduced into the House a Homestead bill. The bill covers all land subject to pre-emption, and extends the right to all who are now set- the franking privilege, the resolutions reporttled, as well as those who may hereafter settle in the new territories.

The Louisville Journal says: "If we were called on to guess who will be nominated at | ted States and Cuba, for information relative the Charleston Convention, we should, under existing circumstances, answer with little or no hesitation, Alex. H. Stevens, of Georgia."

A Washington correspondent says that during the session of Congress on Monday a-week, when the death of Senator Broderick was announced, nearly every Southern member left the House. What was wrong?

THIRTY-SIXTH CONGRESS FEB. 13 .- In the Senate, the death of Senator Broderick, of California, was announced by Mr. Hann, Dem., Cal., who took occasion to give a brief history of the career of the deceased. He was followed by Messis. Crittendon, Seward, Foster, Foot and Toombs, when resolations of respect for the memory of the deceased were passed, and the Senate adjourned. In the House, Mr. Sherman called for the question on his motion to go into an election of Printer, and, after a qualification to the effect that the House shall retain the right to modify existing laws relative to the printing of the House, and that the Printer chosen shall accept the office with this understanding, the House agreed to the motion. Before proceeding to a vote, however, a committee of seven was ordered to be appointed, whose duty it shall be to examine the law relative to the printing for the House, the prices paid for the same, the duties of the Printer, and report to the House such amendments as they may deem expedient. The House then proceeded to vote for a Printer. Two votes were had, when further proceedings were interrupted by the reception from the Senate, announcing the death of Senator Broderick of California. In the first vote Mr. Defrees received 89; Mr. Glossbrenner 88; Messrs, Gales & Seaton 2; Mr. Blanchard 2; Mr. Mitchell 1: Mr. Flanagan 1 necessary to a choice, 92. In the second vote, Mr. Defrees received 90 and Mr. Glossbrenner 89-92 being still necessary. Messrs. Burch, Dem. Cal., Haskin, A. L. Dem., N.Y., Hickman, A. L. FEB. 14 .- In the Senate the Wyandot (Kansas) Constitution was received. Seward, Rep., N. Y., moved its reference to the Committee on Territories. Mr. Brown, Dem., Miss., moved an inquiry, whether it contained the provisions of the English bill, upon which there was some discussion, when Mr. Doolittle, Rep., Wis., moved as an amendment, that the Committee be instructed to report immediately a bill for the admission of Kansas under the Constitution submitted. The hour for a special order arrived, and by general consent the Senate proceeded to the reception of petitions and reports without deciding the question on the Kansas Constitution. Quite an amount of routine business was then gone through with, when Mr. Brown's Territorial Government resolutions were taken up. Mr. Hale, Rep., an executive session was had, and an adjournment followed.

In the House, on motion of Mr. Grow, Rep., Pa., the powers of the Special Committee on the prices paid for binding, engraving &c. The Speaker announced the pending business to be the election of a Printer. Efforts were made to take up the Post Office bill, and to adjourn, when by general consent the election of a Printer was postponed till to-morrow at 1 P. M. The Post Office bill was then taken up and finally reported to the House with the the young woman who killed her illegitimate Senate's amendment abolishing the franking | child in Altoona has left for parts unknown.

A. mong the bills introduced, was one by Mr. Morrill, Rep., Vt., donating lands for the pro. motion of the arts and sciences in the various States, and another for the prevention of polygamy in the Territories. Mr. Waldron, Rep., Mich., moved an inquiry into the expediency of legislating against the importation of adulterated tea. Mr. Fenton, Rep., N. Y., introduced a bill to settle claims for services in the Revolution. Also a Pacific Railroad Bill. Mr. Duell, Rep., N. Y., offered a resolution, calling on the Postmast r General for the instructions issued by him to Postmasters relative to the destruction of mail matter supposed to contain incendiary matter. PREPARED FOR THE "RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL." CENTRE COUNTY .- On the 9th inst., a man Messrs. Valentine's near Pleasant Gap, left to visit some friends in Stone Valley. When about fifty rods back of the saw mill. on the road leading to the meadows, he was seized with a violent pain in the stomach. Finding that he was going to fall he threw himself on a pile of brush near by, and loosing all power of his limbs lay there during the afternoon, all night Thursday, and most of Friday. Near nightfall on Friday, he recovered slightly, and by crawling on his hands and knees and rolling his body along over the stones and rocks, reached the saw-mill where a son of Mr. Eckenworth's was working. Assistance was immediately called, the unfortunate man taken up and kindly cared for. To twice where the water runs over a foot deep; neither of the crossings being bridged he dragged his body through the stream. The preservation of Mr. Mash's life is wonderful when we recollect that he was exposed to the cold for nearly 46 hours. Thursday night was one of the wildest and coldest nights of the season; yet during the whole of that terrible night the poor man lay exposed to the storms and winds move hand or foot, and waiting only for the cold hand of death to close his eyes and end his misery torever. Both of his legs have been amputated, one above the knee, and the other at the ankle joint. His life is not despaired at Pennsylvania furnace, was assisting to load a stick of timber. One end was on the wagon and the other partly raised, where the stick slipped and falling on bim, broke his arms and legs and mashed his head so badly that death ensued immediately. . . . A man named James Huey, was seriously injured while emby being caught in a strap attached to some part of the machinery while it was in motion. He was much cut about the head by being thrown a considerable distance, but is again able to be about.

BLAIR COUNTY .- The dwelling house of Mr. Geo. A. Smith, of Antis township, was entirely destroyed by fire on the night of February 4th, with all its contents. The family barely escaped being burned to death, as they were compelled to flee from the house with nothing to cover them but some bed clothes. . . . On the 31st ult., a little child 20 months old, the N. H., addressed the Senate at length, when | daughter of Mr. Shearer, in Scotch Valley, fell backwards into a tub of scalding water, and was so severely injured, that she died in five hours. The child's mother was engaged in washing, had poured some water into a tub, Printing were enlarged so as to inquire into and whilst she turned to procure another bucket of water the sad event took place. She is said to have been a peculiarly lovely child. . . . Mrs. Funk, the wife of Mr. John Funk of Plane 10, stepped out of her door on Sabbath morning, the 12th inst., slipped, fell and dislocated her left shoulder and broke the arm just below the shoulder. . . . She soon, however, discovered him to be dead. This was ship the same week, the other being that of Mr. Daniel Baker, who was killed instantly by a tree falling on him which his own sons were cutting down.

TIGGA COUNTY .- The public house of Mr. Root, near Liberty, caught fire and was consumed on the 2d inst. Mr. and Mrs. Root were both absent at the time, and the children were left at home. The upper part of the house was first destroyed. The children were unconsious of the fact until some one rushed in the burning house and saved three from destruction. The loss is estimated at about $2.

INDIANA COUNTY .- A wild cat was shot in the borough of Taylorsville, on the 27th ult. by Mr. James T. Shields. The varmint was chased by dogs into the village, where it treed and was shot. Three others are said to harbor in the vicinity. . . . The scarlet fever and putrid sore throat, are said to be very bad in the southern sections of the county. A number of children have died from the disease. SULLIVAN COUNTY .- Mr. Timothy May, was literally eaten up by a horse, belonging to Col. James Deegan, in the Borough of Laporte, one day week before last. The horse was a vicious one, and young Hay having occasion to go before him in the stable, was seized, and before assistance could reach him was almost totally devoured! His remains were interred a short distance from town.

Lycoming County .- An old lady residing in Moorland township, accidentally fell into a well last week, while getting some water, and was so severely injured that she died a short time after being taken out. . . . Mr. Henry Moore, formerly of Williamsport, was burned to death in a house which was destroyed by fire at Troy, Pa., a couple weeks since.

The Georgia papers do not like the disunion speech of the Hon. Mr. Gartrell, one of the Representatives of that State. The Griffin American Union uses the following sharp language :- "We see from the report of the proceedings in Congress that Mr. Gartrell has made a speech on secession, and contended that a State has the right peaceably to secede from the Union. Now, all we have to say is this: If Mr. Gartrell wants to secode from the Union, he is perfectly welcome to pack up and be off as soon as he pleases, and we hope that in his peregrinations he may come up with some form of Government that suits him bet. ter than this. Our country would experience a happy deliverance if Mr. Gartrell, and all other disunionists like him, would quit and be off as soon as possible. Their places might then be filled with statesmen and patriots, who would carry on the Government as it should be done. There are too many fanatical simpletons in Congress. They know how to keep up a row, but have no capacity for business."

UTAH .- Copies of the Valley Tan, dated the 11th and 18th of Jan., have been received. There is no particular news, and, singular to say, not a murder recorded. A robbery has to the removals, &c., of Post Office officials in Captain P. T. Turnley, Assistant Quartermasbeen committed at Camp Floyd, the office of ter at that post, having been entered and $1,-000 in gold abstracted. They were taken from the natives on the Island on the 22d of October; were found sixty miles inland. The Herald says; The girls appear to be about the respective ages of fifheart-rending; their bodies, emaciated from long suffering and exposure to the weather, are covered with a coating of hair; the skin. stained by their tormentors to assimilate with their own, had become spotted and wrinkled, as if from old age; the nose had been flattened by force, the limbs distorted, and the vacant stare of Idiotcy has left these poor creatures in appearance human, and although enabled gradually to recognize such things as they must have been in the habit of seeing hourly reach the mill Mr. Mash had to cross the creek | before they fell into the hands of the natives, their acquaintance with their mother tongue is, as yet, apparently quite gone." Other Europeans are believed to be prisoners of the blacks on Frazer Island.

A HARD CHOICE .- It is tolerably evident that the appeal to be made by the Democratic party to the country, during the Presidential campaign, is to be made up exclusively of the in a bleak wilderness; far from any habitation. threat that the south will dissolve the Union conscious that he was freezing, yet unable to if the election is carried by the Republicans. All the speeches made by the Democratic members in Congress come to this point, and it is palpable that this Congressional oratory is to give the cue to the press and to the stump. It is an old tune, heretofore executed in detachof, however. . . . On the 9th, one of the hands | ed parts and by single performers, or by performers in squads, but now struck up by the whole band, with kettledrums and cymbals. It is at this moment in full blast, and we must make up our minds not to hear the last of it until the appointed day in November, a dreary nine months hence, when the people of the United States will be frightened into choosing ployed in Mann's Axe Factory a few days ago, a Chief Magistrate to be designated by the Creek, in Covington township, where he is prepa-

> FIGHT WITH A MAD DOG .- A few nights ago Mr. Owen Hamilton, of Chester county, was aroused by his dog going mad in the room occopied by himself and family. Lighting a candle as quick as possible, he saw the dog coming towards him as if to make battle. Not knowing in the moment of excitement what to do, he jumped upon the bed; but seeing the danger of his wife and children, and having no weapon at hand to kill him with, he made an effort and succeeded in catching him back of the neck. After a desperate struggle. we might say for life and death, he overnowered the dog. Then came the trouble to despatch him-being almost overcome in the struggle. The gun was brought, but it was unloaded; the axe, but both hands were required to hold the dog. Finally a rope was procured, and the wife tied him. He was then killed. Mr. Hamilton fortunately received no injury; but one hand was completely paralyzed for a time from the effects of the struggle.

LATEST NEWS FROM HARPER'S rection, found guilty of Murder and Treason in the First degree. I he above named 'insurrection' caused a great deal of gas to be let off by leading politicians and the political press of this great country, and in fact, the majority of the people of all parties, were more or less excited on reading the first account of the insurrection-some of the papers trying to make political capital out of the affair and others making light of the matter. But if it had been an Italian strike for Freedom sgainst their lawful sovereign, led on by Mazzinni or Garibaldi, the Press of this country, with but one exception, would call meetings and pass reso-lutions and solicit subscriptions to aid them in their so called patriotic work; but amidst all this inconsistency there is one man that is not the least interested in the fate of Brown or his companions, and that one is Frank Short of the Short Shoe for approved country produce. As their stock is entirely new, and purchased on the most advantageous terms, they feel confident that they can sell representation of the large Shop on Second street, where he will be found at Stevens and Hazlett have been sentenced to be hung publicly on Friday, the 16th day of March next, between the hours of 10 o'clock at many and 2 o'clock p. m.
