CLEARFIELD HOUSE, CORNER OF FIRST AND MARKET STREETS, CLEAR-FIED, PA.—The undersigned would respectfully inform his friends and the travelling public in general, that he has taken the above house, (formerly known as the Hemphill Hotel,) and that the house has been recently refitted, improved and newly furnished; that extensive stabling has just been completed; and that he is pre-pared to accommodate all who may give him a call in the most pleasing and agreeable manner. He is amply provided with everything to render his house a desirable stopping place, and will endeayor to entertain his guests in a manner that cannot fail to give the fullest satisfaction. The house is situated in a pleasant and quiet part of the town, and no expense or attention will be spared to make it one of the best houses in the county.
A liberal patronage is respectfully solicited. His bar will be supplied with an assortment of choice liquo s. [june2-'58] H. HAYS MORROW.

KEEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.—Re-movals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have remov-ed my Saddler Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street, nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Single Harness, Double Harness, Tag Harness, Bribands, Side Straps, and in fact every article in the line of Saddling and Harness making. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed I solicit a continuance of the same and a call from as many new customers as can make it suit.

Aug. 29, '59. GEORGE W. RHEEM. P. S. My being connected with the Drug busiless will not interfere with my shop, for I have the Drug Store attended to by careful hands and intend devoting my time exclusively to my regu-

LATEST NEWS FROM HARPER'S FERRY.—Brown, the leader of the Insurrection, found guilty of Marder and Treason in the First degree.—The above named 'insurrection' caused a great deal of gas to be let off by leading politicians and the political press of this great country, and in fact, the majority of the people of all parties, were more or less excited on reading the first account of the insurrection-some of the papers trying to make political capital out of the affair and others making light of the matter. But if it had been an Italian strike for Freedom against their lawful sovereign, led on by Mazzinni or Garibaldi, the Press of this country, with but one exception, would call meetings and pass resolutions and solicit subscriptions to aid them in their so called patriotic work; but amidst all this nconsistency there is one man that is not the least interested in the fate of Brown or his companions, and that one is Frank Short of the Short Shoe Shop on Second street, where he will be found at all times ready and willing to wait upon persons calling on him for anything in the Boot, Shoe or Gaiter line. Thankful for past favors he only asks a continuance of the same, and will sell as cheap for each or hides as any other man in the county
