

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., APRIL 18, 1880.

COURT.—An adjourned court was held in the Town Hall yesterday. The argument list was disposed of, and some other business, of little general interest, transacted.

ACCIDENT.—Last Friday, Mr. M. W. Snyder of Lawrence township had one of his feet badly mashed at the "Stepping Stone," where the raft on which he was, and another belonging to Henry Swan, were stored.

COMMENCED.—Geo. Thorn, the contractor of the new court house, yesterday commenced the work of laying the foundation, and, judging him by his well known energy, we have no doubt that he will get up the brick-work during the summer. He is employing good and competent workmen, and no labor will be spared in making it a substantial building.

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—A meeting of the Clearfield County Agricultural Society will be held in the Town Hall in Clearfield Borough, on Monday evening, June 18th, (court week.) The several Vice Presidents are requested to make return to this meeting of any monies they may have received; and their presence is especially desired, as it is proposed then to take action about holding a Fair the coming Fall.

PAINFUL REMOVAL.—It is reported here that, one day last week, a young man named Conway, of Covington township, 17 or 18 years of age, was drowned at the foot of Buttermilk Falls. He was attempting to push some logs from the front of a raft, when he fell and was precipitated into the water, and before assistance could be rendered, the raft passed over him. We hope the rumor, which has already been contradicted, may not prove to be true.

"STOVING."—Quite a number of rafts, we understand, have been "stowed" in Clearfield creek, as well as in the river. It is said that seven rafts were at one time piled up on the head of "Spruce Island," on the Creek, and that in order to get the course open, it was found necessary to chop up some of the timber. We have heard of several being badly damaged on the river, but do not know that the losses will be heavy, except in one or two instances.

At the adjourned court yesterday, on application of R. J. Wallace, Esq., District Attorney, the Court assigned Israel Test, Esq., as assistant counsel in the case of the Comth. vs. Sarah Breneman, charged with infanticide, and J. B. McEnally, Esq., in the case of the Comth. vs. James Hockenberry, charged with the murder of John Thompson. Both prisoners will remain in jail until their trial takes place, unless they should make their escape, of which there is very little probability.

SHOCKING DEATH.—We learn by the Brookville Jeffersonian, that on last Wednesday evening, the 11th inst., Mr. Cambridge Johnson, formerly of Brady township, this county, met with almost instant death in the following manner:—He came from Reynolds' on a raft, and when in the act of landing along side of another raft, in Taylor's pond, the point of the oar struck against something and he was thrown into the stream, by the oar-stem. As the two rafts came together suddenly, he was ground between the timbers in a most shocking manner and died in about ten minutes after being taken out. The deceased was about 40 years of age, resided at Prospect Hill, in Jefferson county, and leaves a wife and five children to mourn his sad fate.

EXCITING FOOT RACE.—We learn that one day this week a very exciting foot race came off on the River bank above this place. Two men, poorly apparelled, starting at a given point, rushed along at full speed, ran over two little girls, scattered about a dozen of boys, and "elevated the ancient Henry" generally among the hogs, dogs, cows, ducks, geese and chickens in that locality. When taken to task for producing such an uproar, they excused themselves on the ground that Mossop had just received and opened, at his store on Market street, an unusually large stock of Spring and Summer Goods, of every description, for ladies and gentlemen, and they were hurrying on to get some before they were all sold. As they are selling rapidly, all others who wish to procure reasonable goods should lose no time in making their purchases. A fuller enumeration of articles kept by Mossop will be given in an advertisement in next week's Journal.

THE LOAFER.—The most miserable, hopeless scrap of humanity, is an idle man—a man whose chief aim of life is to "loaf"—to waste in listless lounging and mental and physical inaction, the best years of his life. There are such beings in every town—miserable loafers whose soul occupation is to avoid employment of any kind—whose lives can scarcely be called lives—who die one after another, and leave behind them what? A vacancy to be mourned? No, for they are in themselves vacancies, not men. To these atoms society owes nothing. The history of the world's progress ignores their names, their existence, and being dead, the grave contains no more inert, worthless earth than it did before. They become chronic nuisances; they have no local habitation or name in so far as regards their worth or value, and from day to day, in the haunts of busy men, they pass current as uncurrent funds—at so much of a discount that their can't even buy themselves. The only apparent exertion they exhibit is that which enables them to be eternally in somebody's way, to the great hindrance of that somebody's progress and business. They never do any special harm and never accomplish any good. They die only when they get too lazy and indolent to use their respiratory organs. They never get the consumption, because they haven't energy enough to cough. They give employment to nobody, for they have none for themselves. From such as these, may Fortune preserve all well-meaning mortals.
