

S. B. ROW. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

CLEARFIELD, PA., APRIL 25, 1860.

GEN. SIMON CAMERON, Subject to the decision of the Chicago Convention FOR GOVERNOR. HON. ANDREW G. CURTIN.

ABUSE OF COL. CURTIN.

We believe we heretofore briefly alluded to the fact that The Pilot, a Catholic paper printed in Boston, had recently made a vile attack on the Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, our candidate for Governor. It says, "Curtin was a rank, intolerant bigot " in politics and religion long before the inaugu-"ration of Know Nothingism Sheer, narrow-"minded whiggery always marked him." "It " was chiefly through him," it remarks, "Millard " Fillmore got the Nativist nomination at the last " Presidential campaign; and it was chiefly thro' " his positive concurrence with the Know-Nothing " School Directors of Philadelphia, that they dared "to dismiss one morning all the female Catholic "teachers from the public schools of the city " Again it says, "As an American citizen he is ani-" mated by no public principles but those that are "at once antagonistic to, and subversive of, the "constitution of the country;" and then draws the conclusion that "The voters of that State, " (Pennsylvania,) will never give their suffrages to "a deceitful renegade from all the attributes of of Providence, you will return triumphantly " race, and a heretic of the most dangerous stamp "in political matters." Did any one ever see so much falsehood and misrepresentation, so much bigotry and spleen, embraced in so few words? We doubt whether, in those sections of the State where Col. Curtin is well known, any man of in- not yet had time to hear much from Mississiptelligence and character, with a proper regard for truth and fair-dealing, would have the temerity to openly endorse the low abuse heaped upon him by the paper ailuded to. It is true, however, that there are those who do not scruple to spread any imputations, no matter how base and false they are, which the malignity of others may have invented for the purpose of injuring a man whom they dislike, and who may happen to be a candidate for the suffrages of the people. We were not should, after the bue and cry had been raised by the Pilot, follow close upon its heels, and bay lustily at "Col. Curtin's Antecedent's." Whether our up-town neighbor had the article of his Boston cotemporary before him when he penned his own, or whether his thoughts inadvertently ran in a similar direction, is a question upon which we are not prepared to give an opinion; but the two articles will no doubt prove interesting to those who are fond of studying into the strange coincidence of ideas which occasionally shows itself in the articles of newspaper editors who have no "literary friend" to furnish them with the "brilliant productions" which from time to time adorn the columns of their sheets. This, however, is a matter for which we have no concern. Our solicitude is of quite a different nature. We are anxious to know if our friend "Andy" will be able to survive the combined onslaught of the Pilot and Republican. The fact is, they are a formidable pair, and are "not to be sneezed at" contemptuously; for there is no telling what amount of mischief they might do, if their ire should become fully aroused We trust this may not happen. Indeed, it is possible that it will not, for before he finishes his article, the editor of the Republican permits his feelings to become so far mollified that, after saying that the cause which Mr. Curtin had espoused, if successful, "would have disfranchised his own father had he been living," and "was an insult to his memory as his remains mouldered in the grave, he remarks: "Personally, we esteem Col. Curtin " for his many fine qualities of head and heart." Prodigious condescension! The Col. will doubtless feel himself highly flattered by this public avowal of our neighbor's esteem. But this is not all. The editor of the Republican goes farther. He says, if Mr. C. "had ever possessed the nerve " to cut loose from the political parasites, which " for years surrounded him, for the purpose of be-"their own benefit, instead of his own and his " country's advantage, as he could have done, and " covered himself with glory, when his party ask-and Clearfield Republican. Congress .- Very little business was transacted by Congress last week. Some of the Members went to Charleston to attend the Democratic National Convention, and others took advantage of this circumstance, by pairing off, to visit their homes. On Thursday the Homestead Bill was taken up in the Senate, and after brief consideration made the by the Senate until after the 1st of May, as it will meet only once in three days, probably to adjourn for three days more; nor is it certain that the House can in the meantime make much progress in the way of transacting important business.

Andy should have failed to "exercise his talents"

in behalf of the Democratic party, or in some other way that would have "covered him with glory!"

What a quantity of "esteem" he would have secured! But. alas! alas! it is clean gone, and there is no help for it now! To speak seriously, however-is it not a piece of cool effrontery to indulge in vile abuse of, and low flings at a man, and

WASHINGTON, January 12, 1857. you may judge with what satisfaction we received an account of the proceedings of the National Democratic Convention, held at Lecompton on the 3d inst. THE POINT ON WHICH THE CONSTITUTION TO THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS; AND BY THE PEOPLE I MEAN, AND I HOPE NO DOUBT YOU MEAN, THE ACTUAL BONA FIDE RESIDENTS, WHO HAVE BEEN LONG ENOUGH IN THE TERRITORY TO IDENTIFY THEMSELVES WITH ITS FATE. The Legislature determined three months as the period of residence to entitle individuals to vote for the members of the Convention, and if the Convention should think proper to adopt the same period to entitle individuals to vote for or against the constitution, it appears to me this would be reasonable. On the question of submitting the constitution to the bona fide residents of Kansas, I AM WILLING TO STAND OR FALL. IT IS THE PRINCIPLE OF THE KANSAS-NEBRASKA BILL; THE PRINCIPLE OF POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY, AND THE PRINCIPLE AND FOUNDATION OF ALL POPU-LAR GOVERNMENT. THE MORE IT IS DISCUSSED THE STRONGER IT WILL BECOME. Should the Convention of Kansas adopt this principle, all will be settled harmoniously, and, with the blessing the cause of the decrease was attributed to the high water. The strictures of the Georgia and Mississippi Conventions will then pass away, and be speedily forgotten.

In regard to Georgia, our news from that State is becoming better every day. We have Should you answer the resolution of the latter, I WOULD ADVISE YOU TO MAKE THE GREAT PRINCIPLE OF THE SUBMISSION OF THE CONSTITUTION TO THE BONA FIDE RESIDENTS OF KANSAS CONSPICUOUSLY PROMINENT. ON THIS YOU WILL BE IRRESISTIBLE. With the question of climate every person is acquainted, and the more you insist upon this, the more will our opponents urge that we are violating the principle of non-interference at the foundation of the Kansas and Nebraska bill. It is strange day are dipped. A large number of men were that people at a distance, who have no practisurprised, therefore, to find that the Clearfield Re- cal acquaintance with the condition of Kansas, paring to pump. It is beyond all question the true policy to build up a great Democratic party there to maintain the constitution and the laws, composed of pro-slavery and free-state Democrats. and if the majority should be against slavery, to obtain such constitutional provisions will secure the rights of slaveholders in Missouri and other States, and maintain all the laws guarding the just rights of the South.

Col. Cummings has been appointed Governor of Utah. This will cause his place to be vacant after the brief period required for settling up his business, and I certainly shall be disposed to fill it by the appointment of Mr.

Gen. Harney has been ordered to command the expedition to Utah, but we must continue paying quantities. They have dipped off sevto have him with you, at least until you are out of the woods. Kansas is vastly more important at the present moment than Utah. The pressure upon me continues without intermission. I pray that Divine Providence, in which I place my trust, may graciously preserve my life, and my health until the end of my term. But God's will be done in any event.

With every sentiment of esteem, I remain always sincerely your friend, [Signed.] JAMES BUCHANAN. To Hon. Robert J. Walker.

A NAUGHTY MAN .- The unfortunate wife of one George W. Burtt publishes a card in an exchange paper, in which she warns "man and womankind" against her husband, and asks the press everywhere to "be good enough to copy this warning." She says he has been married fifteen years to a respectable woman, during which time he has deceived several other women, and twice again married. He was at one time sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the New Jersey State Pri-"guiling him into the exercise of his talents for son, and through the exertions of his wife was pardoned out after a service of nine months. George W. Burtt is six feet two inches high, rather slim, spare face, blue eyes, dark brown hair, wears a very heavy hand, one tooth out of under-jaw, trades in watches, repairs clocks, &c., carries a small leather trunk well ornamented with brass nails, &c., &c. He is a smooth man, and well-calculated to deceive the women. He has escaped, and officers are now after him.

WHAT THE RUMMIES DRINK .- We see it stated that a chemist in New York has analyzed sixteen samples of wines, Port, Sherry, and Madeira-in which not one drop of the juice of the grape was found. The basis of the Port wine was diluted sulphuric acid, colored order of the day for next Wednesday. It is not with elderberry juice, with alum, sugar, and likely that that or any other business will be done | neutral spirits. The basis of the Sherry wine was a pale malt, sulphuric acid from bitter almonds, with a percentage of alcoholic spirits from brandy. The Madeira wine was a decoction of hops, sulphuric acid, honey, Jamaica | not likely to yield to him. spirits, &c.

They have experienced some difficulty in getting to the rock, but their prospects warrant a vigorous prosecution of the enterprise. Thursday, April 12th, we commenced to as that of Judge Cross, and on the same tract, a few rods above, Wm. Cross is operating. The next well, belonging to Graff & Co., was pumped a few days, and yielded 3 barrels per day, which did not satisfy the proprietors, and they have again commenced boring. It is now 170 feet deep. The company have started another well close by. The McClintock well, reported to be a twelve barrel, is next, but while we good prospects. On the farm of Buchanan, above these wells, Rouse & Benedict recently struck a rich vein. The oil, after the manner of Artesian wells, rushed up over the conductor, 3 feet above the surface. Over thirty barrels have been dipped from this well. It will be pumped in a few days. H. R. Rouse, T. Mitchell & S. Q. Brown are operating on which was forced up the conductor in the manner last mentioned. Several barrels had been dipped when we were there, and oil was still flowing over the conductor at intervals. The ground in the vicinity was completelo saturated with oil that had ran so fast as to prevent the operators from saving it. Two barrels a No estimate can yet be made of what it will yield. The barrels at this and the McClintock well are marked "Titusville, Pa.," although some 14 miles distant-a piece of semi-innocent deception, of which the oil merchants of Titusville ought to be ashamed. Homan & Webber are boring a few rods above the Hibbard well, with good prospects, and near them D. Hays & Co. have bored 150 feet, and have struck oil in eral barrels. On the land of John Rynd, Watson & Kier, have a well down 50 feet, and have surface oil. Brooks Rynd is also preparing to bore on Rynd's Run. There are 4 wells commenced on this stream, and that of Hovas & Co. furnishes some oil. Our foreman says " up," and we must defer the matter till next week. We have ample notes for another article.

The wife and daughter held the sick man down while young Stephenson cut him literally to pieces with a knife, killing him almost immediately. While this was going on, Gen. Bishop knocked out the eye of the elder Stephenson with a hatchet. The Stephensons were subsequently arrested.

Mrs. Eberstaller who is said to be a very respectable lady, made information against the two disciples of Esculapius before a Justice of the Peace, a warrant was issued and they were immediately arrested. They will both doubtless have a "safe deliverance" at June Court, until which time their numerous patients must have patience. . The Johnstown Echo reports the death of Henry Hunter, at that place, from the effects of intemperance. When found, his wife, also drunk, was endeavoring to revive him by pouring liquor down his throat! The poisonous liquor, which was the immediate cause of this beastly demoralization and dreadful death, had been procured in quantities by the unfortunate pair, and the drunken revelry had been kept up for several weeks previous to the day upon which grim death had interfered to stop its disgusting progress. The room, the bed and the persons of the unfortunate pair were covered with vermin of the most offensive nature, and presented a scene of horrid degradation. WESTMORELAND COUNTY .- The whereabouts of the ex-Rev. Keisey, who eloped in company with a woman named Minnie Lusk, alias Sarver, from Greensburg last October, have at last been discovered. Mrs. Keisey has lately received a letter from a gentleman in Canada, informing her that Keisey is teaching school in Toronto, Canada West. It is said that shortly after leaving his home he became disgusted with the woman with whom he eloped, and the same farm, and on Monday last, struck oil, abandoned her. . . . ARMSTRONG COUNTY .- An accident of rather a serious nature occurred at Montecello Furnace, on Thursday afternoon the 12th inst., which resulted in the severe injury of two persons, and death of one engaged at it. The furnace "hung," that is, the surface became baked or solidified, while the fuel below burned out, leaving a vacuum. During the process of smeltering this immense mass became detached, and, falling suddenly into the molten metal below, caused it to gush out at every opening and crevice. The three workmen being near were almost enveloped in liquid metal. One of them, named Troutner, died on Saturday from his injuries.

POTTER COUNTY .- A frame house belonging to Wm. H. Metzgar, situated near his steam saw mill in Hebron township, was destroyed by fire on the 9th inst. It was occupied by three families-Joseph Lent, John Schmeltz, and Wm. V. Cone. Mr. Lent lost everything; Mr. Schmeltz saved his furniture and lost his stock of provisions; and Mr. Cone, who had but recently been married and commenced housekeeping, lost all his goods. . . . On the 10th, the carpenter shop of Mr. W. B. Gordonier, of Coudersport, was destroyed by fire, together with most of his tools and a quantity of lumber. The loss is about $1000.

CLARION COUNTY .- The grocery store of Mr. Samuel Arner, of Rimersburg, was broken open one night week before last, and about $50 in cash, and several articles of merchandize taken. . . . Samuel Wilson, Esq., of Strattanville, narrowly escaped drowning in the Clarion river, at the mouth of Mill Creek. The Banner says that a son of Mr. Thos. BLAIR COUNTY .- A terrible accident occurred at Sabbath Rest on the 15th April. A young man named John Bush, while in the act of greasing the engine, which blows the Furnace, had his right arm torn off and terribly mangled, by being caught between the crank of the fly wheel and the pitman, making it necessary to amputate the arm near the shoulder. His friends entertain the hope that he will speedily recover.

A half witted man named Isha P. Rudd, residing in Lincoln county, Tennessee, has been seized with a mania for burning all churches over ten years old, as he thinks that is a long enough period for such buildings to do service. He had actually carried his theory into effect on four buildings, worth in the aggregate $5,000 or $6,000, when he was arrested.

Undoubtedly the oldest man in the world, says the New Orleans Crescent, is Captain Viroux, of Belgium. He was born on the 6th of November, 1709, and is consequently 151 years old. He entered the army in 1830, at the advanced age of 121 years, and remained in the service until recently, when he was put upon the pension list.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS
It is a fact that, at some period, every mem ber of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has in troduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine. but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or Bilious complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentary, Cholic, Chol-

Diarrhea, dysentery or flux, so generally con tracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dysper sia, a disease which is probably more prevalent in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bit ters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE .- This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the bo dy of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healty digestion, and the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the produc tion of a thorough and permanent cure. For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled consitution and infirm body these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, may be wanted in this section of country; conand here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temposhould by all means try this remedy for all ca-ses of debility, and, before o doing, should ask virtue of the Stomach Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness. Caution. - We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle and stamped on the mctallic cap covering the cork. and observe that our autograph signature is on the label. Prepared and sold by Hostetter & Smith. Pittsburg, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United

KEEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.—Removals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddler Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street, nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Single Harness, Double Harness, Treg Harness, Bridles, Collars, Whips, Halters, Housings, Breechbands, Side Straps, and in fact every article in the line of Saddling and Harness making. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed I solicit a continuance of the same and a call from as many new customers as can make it suit.
