WHITTEN'S GOLDEN SALVE is a most elegant article for chapped lips, and every raftsman ought to procure a box, before he starts down the river. Those who have tried it, say it is the best salve they have ever used. It is for sale at stores in different parts of the county. M. A. Frank is the general agent for Clearfield.

FARMING OPERATIONS are somewhat backward in our county this Spring, in consequence of the sudden and numerous changes which tittle plowing has been done, and no considerable quantity of seed has been sown. We may, however, expect soon to have more favorable weather. The growing crops look well, so far as we have learned.

SENECA OIL.-Persons, who have paid attention to the matter, express great confidence that oil can be found in abundance in this part of the State; and it having been asserted that unmistakable "signs" are visible in the neighborhood of our town, an effort is, we gamy understand, being made to organize a company for the purpose of making an examination, and ascertaining to a certainty whether the oil does exist in this region. The experiment is worth trying, and we hope that it will be made as soon as possible.

RAFTING .- On Sunday last the water in the Susquehanna rose again to a good rafting stage, and on Monday the river banks presented once more a scene of life and animation. During the course of the day, the rafts which had been "tied up," since the preceding "rise," in this vicinity, started on their downward course, whilst others from the Cherrytree and intermediate points above were constantly arriving and departing. It is to be hoped that our hard-working and deserving lumbermen will be able to get the product of their winter's labor to market on this freshet, as they have been subjected to no inconsiderable extra expense by the detentions they have experienced in consequence of the short durations of the "floods," this season.

CREAM HILL TURNPIKE .- At a meeting of the stockholders in the "Cream Hill Turnpike Company," held at their office in the Borough of Clearfield, on Monday the 23d day of April, 1860, the following Board of officers were elected, viz :- Hon.
