

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., MAY 2, 1860.

NEW STOCK.—Kraetzers advertise in another column of our paper, a splendid stock of Seasonable Goods of every description, which they offer to customers at fair prices.

BIBLE SOCIETY.—The next monthly concert of public worship in aid of the objects of the Clearfield County Bible Society, will be held on Sunday evening, May 6th, in the Baptist Church in this borough.

RUN OFF.—Last Friday, a horse, which our young friend, Alfred Graham, was driving in a dearborn wagon, took flight as he was making a turn, and running away, made rather sad work with the wagon, which he wrecked in a gutter, without, however, doing any injury to the driver or himself.

DROWNED.—On Sunday, the 22nd April, a young man named Adam Rice was drowned in David Youngkin's mill dam, on Clearfield creek. He attempted to cross the stream on a "dog raft," but was carried over the breast of the dam and was drowned. He was about 22 years of age. His body was afterwards recovered.

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—A meeting of the Clearfield County Agricultural Society will be held in the Town Hall in Clearfield Borough, on Monday evening, June 18th, (count week). The several Vice Presidents are requested to make return to this meeting of any monies they may have received; and their presence is especially desired, as it is proposed then to take action about holding a Fair the coming Fall.

ELLIS IRWIN, Pres.

N. B. An election of officers will also be held.

READ! READ!—Dr. Jackson, the Reformed Botanic and Indian Physician, who has proved very successful in treatment of chronic diseases, particularly those brought about by use of calomel, (he has no equal perhaps, in treating successfully, affections of the Lungs), will visit Clearfield, Pa., and can be consulted at the "Mansion House," on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, May 22nd, 23rd and 24th; also at Curwensville, "Stage House," Friday, May 25th. The afflicted should not fail to see him—and to mark well the time. For further particulars see advertiser's supplement.

A CLEARFIELDER ROBBED IN HARRISBURG.—In the Telegraph of the 24th April, we find the following in the Court proceedings of that day:—"Com. vs. George Gastrock and Samuel Houpt, indicted for robbery on the oath of Michael Dinges. The defendants are two young men of our city, and the prosecutor is a raftman. From the evidence it appeared that he was met by the defendants between eleven and twelve o'clock on Friday night last, and after some conversation they enticed him down to the river under the pretence of taking him home. After they got him there they demanded his money under the threat that they would kill him. They obtained some 5 dollars in cash from him and also a knife and port monnaie. The offence was clearly proven, and the prisoners had no testimony to offer. The jury convicted them of the offence charged."

SAD OCCURRENCE.—A CHILD DROWNED.—The Mother Saved.—On last Tuesday, April 24th, the wife of Mr. Abimelech Alexander, of Woodward township, returning from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Miles, got a man at Pusey's saw mill, near Alexander's, fording, to take her across the creek, in a skiff or flat. When near the opposite shore, the man dropped a bottle of whisky from his pocket, and in endeavoring to recover it, fell and upset the boat, precipitating Mrs. Alexander and child, as well as himself, into the stream a short distance above the dam. A person on the shore saw the accident, threw a plank to the woman, and made other exertions to render her assistance, but before he could reach her, the woman, with one arm over the plank and holding the child in the other, was carried over the breast of the dam. The man who was trying to render assistance, hurried with all possible haste around the mill, and seeing the woman disappearing in the re-action water, jumped in and succeeded, at the imminent peril of his own life, in catching hold of her and bringing her safe to shore. The child, unfortunately, was drowned, and at last accounts its body had not been recovered. The conduct of the person who rescued the woman, is highly praiseworthy, and we are sorry that we have not been able to learn his name. We understand that the proprietor of the bottle of "Jersey lighting" has disappeared.

BLOODY MYSTERY.—There is a cave, says the Pittsburg Journal, in the "honey-comb rocks," near the Kingston Iron Works, above the upper Birmingham bridge, on the Pittsburg side, known as "The Old Man's Cave," which is so located that considerable ascent is requisite to reach it, and stones have to be piled up to form a foot-path to it. There is a small cavity in the rocks, after ascending the hill before reaching the cave, from which the entrance to the cave is some eighteen or twenty inches in diameter. Boys are in the habit of visiting this place for sport. On Saturday last, they were there as usual, and returned again on Monday, when they found a large quantity of blood, apparently fresh, on the floor of the cave, and they also found some grey hairs on the edge of the rock at the entrance. As yet no clue has been discovered to the cause of these strange circumstances.

The bleached remains of the emigrant party massacred at the Mountain Meadow, in Utah, have been collected into a single grave, and a stone monument, conical in form, fifty feet in height, now marks the spot where they rest. This is surmounted by a cross of red cedar, twelve feet in height, on which is carved the following inscription:—"Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord." On the base of the monument stands a granite slab, into which are cut the words:—"Here in cold blood, early in September, 1857. They were from Arkansas."

CLIPPING AND SCRIBBLINGS.

ALL the rage—Shaker bonnets.

P. T. Barnum is building another house not far from his old Iranian.

The Parker Mills, at Wareham, Mass., are cutting 10,000 kegs of nails per month.

The Chicago City Collector's office was robbed of $19,000 in cash and checks on the 16th inst.

Some author tells us that "much is said about the tongue." True, the thing is in everybody's mouth.

Virginia Carson was killed in Mobile, Alabama, last week, by a negro with whom she had been living in adultery.

It is stated that 20,000 Swedes and Norwegians are preparing to embark in the coming summer for the United States.

A woman recently got a divorce from her husband, in Illinois, because he insisted (very like a horse) in sleeping with his shoes on.

At a recent wedding in Rockingham county, Va., James Devier, the father of the bride, was shot dead by one of a calumpian band.

Edward Reid, convicted at Charleston, South Carolina, of robbery on the highway, has been sentenced to be hung on the first of June.

In Clay county, Indiana, a few days ago, a woman obtained a divorce from her husband, and married another man fifteen minutes afterward.

Week before last 2,214 aliens arrived in New York, making a total for the year thus far of 11,140, against 8,248 to the same date last year.

Lace shawls are said to be the rage of the fashionable ladies of New York, and they are infernally expensive, of husbands, too, no doubt.

REED, WEAVER & CO., have just received a large stock of seasonable goods, which they are selling at reasonable rates. Advertisement next week.

The announcement of the marriage at Auburn, New York, of Mr. Edward Straw to Miss Eva Smiley, suggests the probability that he tickled a proposal, and that she sniled a consent.

Albert String has been found guilty of supplying the citizens of Mobile with poisonous water, and fined $2,000, he having used lead instead of iron pipes for leads in the water works of that city.

A child in Wheeling, Virginia, lately bitten by a rabid dog, has since become an idiot, and assumes the tastes, actions and brutalities of a dog, snapping at everybody, and greatly distressing its parents.

Elgee, of Louisiana, for $1,001,200."

THE FEMALE ORGASMISM is often as frail as that of a tender flower. Many of the sex enter into marriage relations without being able to undergo the labors and trials of maternity. In the county thousands of young and beautiful women are sacrificed every year from this cause alone. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters will save many of this class from an untimely grave. This medicine has been used with great benefit by immense numbers of people throughout the republic, and the proprietors have received grateful commendations from all sections of the country. The Bitters will be found to be very pleasant to the taste, even as a beverage, and prompt and powerful in its effect as a medicine. It infuses new vitality into the frame, and strengthens the whole system, so that women who use it are enabled to go through with labors which would, without it, be certain to prostrate them. Sold by all druggists.
