township, on the 21st of June. We are requested to state that Elder Lanning is expected to preach in the Baptist church in Clearfield on Thursday evening, 17th inst., and in Philipsburg on Friday evening, 18th instant. DAMS SWEPT AWAY .- We learn that a number of dams on Cold stream, beyond Philipsburg, were swept away by the freshet of last week, and that other damage was done to property lished. in the vicinity.

JAMES NOLEN is the name of the man who saved Mrs. Alexander from drowning in the back-water at Pusey's mill-dam in Woodward township. He performed a brave act and deserves to be remembered.

THE "BOROUGH FATHERS" are at work grading Market street, with a view of running the water from the Diamond down that street into the River, instead of draining it into the "swamp" at the east end of town.

THE GROWING GRAIN in this regoin looks well at present, and if not damaged in some way, will yield lagely in harvest time. The fruit prospects are also good, and if not injured by frost there will be an abundance of apples, &c., in this county.

COURT .- The June Term of our Courts commences on the third Monday, 18th day, and will continue two weeks. There is a large amount of Commonwealth business to be tried -one case of murder, one of intanticide, one of high-way robbery, and over a hundred indictments against log men, being on hand.

NEW ARRANGEMENT .- By an advertisement in another column of this paper, it will be seen that Wm. Irvin, of Curwensville, has transferred all his interest in the store lately kept by him, to his son, Edward A. Irvin, who has just received and opened a large stock of Seasonable Goods, which he offers at the lowest prices.

THE LUMBER BUSINESS of this county is about closed up now, the rise in the Susquehanna last week having enabled our lumbermen to run all their rafts, with the exception, perhaps, of here and there one. Some damage was done to rafts on Clearfield and Moshannon creeks by the sudden rise of the waters, but what it will amount to, we have not

LET THE LIGHT SHINE .- A few weeks since, Johnson, of the Mansion House, put up a street lamp at his corner, which proved to be put up one across the way, and we understand that several others are talking of following their example. The lamps, which are neat on Second street.

A WATERY ADVENTURE .- Mr. Charles Macomber, yesterday, attempted to cross the River at the fording below town, with a twohorse wagon; but the water was too high and after driving in a short distance, the bed became detached from the rest of the wagon, and our friend Charley found himself floating down stream, nor did he succeed in landing his singular craft until he had proceeded as far as Isaac Thompson's, about half a mile from where he started. In the meantime the horses worked their way back to shore, minus the hind carriage of the vehicle.

SINGULAR CIRCUMSTANCE.—Some ten days ago, the carcass of a fine black mare was found in the woods on the hill near the mouth of Potts run, in Knox township. The fact that ne one in the neighborhood had such an animal, that the carcass was found in a secluded place not likely to be frequented by a horse, and other circumstances, have raised suspicions that the owner of the mare, whoever he may have been, has been foully dealt with. Considerable excitement exists among the people of that vicinity in regard to the matter, | Clearfield county. and it is to be hoped that the mystery, of what soever character it may be, will soon be

A young man who is serving out a term in the Michigan State Prison, has written a long letter to his triends, dwelling upon the causes which led him into crime, and summing up the conditions of "tip-top life," as understood by rapid young gentlemen. He says :- "You may not comprehend this term, but let me explain. By living a tip-top life, is meant first to be idle; second, to drink whisky, or anything else, (and of course get drunk;) third, to frequent all places of coarse fun, such as cock-fights, boxing matches, negro-shows, &c.: fourth, to keep a concubine or two; and fifth, to steal all they can lay their hands upon. LATEST NEWS FROM HARPER'S

caused a great deal of gas to be let off by leading politicians and the political press of this great politicians and the political press of this great country, and in fact, the majority of the people of all parties, were more or less excited on reading the first account of the insurrection-some of the papers trying to make political capital out of the papers trying to make political capital out of the affair and others making light of the matter. But if it had been an Italian strike for Freedom against their lawful sovereign, led on by Mazzinni or Garibaldi, the Press of this country, with but one exception, would call meetings and pass resolutions and solicit subscriptions to aid them in their so called patriotic work; but amidst all this neonsistency there is one man that is not the least interested in the fate of Brown or his companions, and that one is Frank Short of the Short Shoe Shop on Second street, where he will be found at all times ready and willing to wait upon persons calling on him for anything in the Boot, Shoe or Gaiter line. Thankful for past favors he only asks a continuance of the same, and will sell as cheap for cash or hides as any other man in the county.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.
It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the sys-tem as to secure permanent health. In order to ac-complish this desired object, the true course to pur-sue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, ena-

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or Bilious complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentary, Cholic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhea, dysentery or flux, so generally con-tracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspep-sia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to de-rangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bit-ters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them althere is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE .- This trying and provoking discase, which fixes its relentless grasp on the bo-dy of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTER'S. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healty digestion, and the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure. For Persons in Advanced Years. who are suffering from an enfeebled consitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mo-ther's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostet-ter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all ca-ses of debility, and, before codoing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Stomach Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

Caution .- We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle. and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork. and observe that our autograph signature is on the label. Prepared and sold by Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburg, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers. and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.
