

CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS.

Alcoholic Register—a red nose. About—thieves. Look out for them. Cool and wet—the weather, last week. Ground rents—the effects of earthquakes. Cruel—to shoot birds when they are young.

Will be heavy—the grass crop, in this county. Touching—the appeals of pick-pockets and burglars. Good—Purviance's pictures. Call in and see them.

Bank—the weeds in the park. What are they good for? Out-spoken—some millers, but generally they are a mealy-mouthed set. Make heavy hauls—light fingers, occasionally. Vide, Post-master Fowler.

The Masonic orders in the United States now embrace 4,792 lodges and 195,170 members. Acted foolishly—the chap who put himself on the outside of six glasses of "tangie-foot."

Cigars cost the people of the U. States over $40,000,000 annually—far more than is spent for purposes of education. Theodore Parker bequeathed his private library, containing over 30,000 volumes, to the public library of the city of Boston.

Funny—to see a drunk man fall into a ditch, and then try to pull the shadow of the tavern sign over him for a covering. Mr. Seward has given a freeman who had his shoulder dislocated by falling from his barn, $100, and paid his doctor's bill.

The cost of the N. Y. Central Park, thus far is $7,900,000. The sum of $2,500,000 will be expended on further improvements. Remarkable—a wit, soon after the battle at Lepcis: "Bonaparte must now be in funds, as he received a check on the bank of the Elbe."

Passed a stringent law—the Legislature of Tennessee, against the adulteration of liquors. Using poisonous ingredients is declared a felony. The Washington Constitution says that the administration "are trying to put an end to the robbing of the Treasury." Yes, by making it not worth robbing.

In Washington county, Va., Wm. Woodson, who is worth over $100,000, was convicted of hog stealing, last week, and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Dr. Holland describes a certain dismal class of people—the grubbers—as "sitting on the north side of the tree of life, and peeling rotten apples with a rusty knife."

To be completed—the new State House at Columbus, Ohio, by the 1st of October next, at a cost of about $1,350,000. The building is 304 feet long and 184 feet wide. Struck for higher wages—the printers at Pike's Peak. They want $100 per month, and they have been receiving $75. Day labor at the Peak is from $2 to $3 per day.

Exclaimed—a darkey in Washington, after gazing intently at the Japanese: "If de white folks is as dark as dat out dere, I wonder what de color ob de niggers." The following return was made by the Sheriff of a county in Virginia, upon a capias: "Was seen, but not arrested; was caught, but not held; was shot at, but not hit."

Unfortunate countries—Nicaragua and the United States. The former has had ten President kidnappers, and the latter has had ten. Which is entitled to the most condolence? Fall—the Chester county prison. There are 49 prisoners within its gloomy walls—24 of whom are under sentence, the balance awaiting trial. A large family for one building.

The Secretary of War has given the contract to Mr. Mills, for the bronze statue of a Mr. Ames, of Massachusetts, offered to cast it for. An editor of our acquaintance says he has an antipathy to disembodied spirits. We know he has, for he never comes across them without taking good care that they shall not remain long out of the body.

There is growing in a parlor, in the City of N. York, a thrifty plant which sprung from a seed procured from an Egyptian mummy, entombed thousands of years ago. Though the seed had been injured, the germinating principle still remained. The newly revised statutes of Massachusetts, Bank officers are required to stamp all spurious bills which may be received in the course of business, under a penalty of paying the full amount of the bill or bills allowed to pass without being so stamped. That's right.

Parson Brownlow, the fighting Whig editor and Methodist preacher, has been challenged to fight a duel; he accepted, as follows: "We select a hog-pen, immediately after a hard rain, and dung forks as the weapons—whichever lifts the other out is to be acknowledged victor." Mrs. Partington called on the Japanese at Washington and told 'em, "she was mighty glad to see them, as she understood their President was Ty-Coon, who she doubted not, was nigh kin to old Zip-Coon that the Whigs run in 1840. If they wanted him to, Ike would sing 'em a song about old Zip."

A TERRIBLE AFFAIR.—A terrible tragedy was enacted on Friday, at the residence of Mr. U. G. Flowers, of Warren county, Miss. A few years ago, Mr. Lafayette Lee was married to a Miss Hicks. In a short time Lee gave unmistakable evidence of being dissatisfied, and treated his young wife unkindly. A temporary separation took place. On Thursday last, Mrs. Lee expressed her anxiety to see her mother, and a wish to visit her home, if she could obtain a conveyance. Mr. Flowers (a relative with whom they were then residing) informed her that his carriage was at her service. Lee remarked that she should not go, and threatened to kill her if she did so. Having been repeatedly threatened by him in a like manner, she did not appear alarmed. On Friday the subject was again alluded to. Mrs. Lee sat down to play a game of chess with Mr. Flowers. In a few moments an expression of horror was noticed upon the face of Mrs. Lee, who appeared to be gazing at her husband. Mr. Flowers, thinking, perhaps, that Lee was suddenly taken ill, turned and asked him what was the matter. The answer given was, that "nothing was the matter" with him. He resumed his play, when the report of a pistol was heard, and Mrs. Lee started convulsively, exclaiming that she was shot. Mr. F. immediately caught her on his left arm, and supported her sinking form. Lee now advanced and fired again at his wife, and once at Mr. Flowers. Mrs. Lee, at this time, had sank nearly to the floor, supported by the left arm of Mr. Flowers, who drew a revolver from his pocket, and, partially turning, fired five times (over his shoulder) at Lee. Each ball took effect in the face of Lee, one near the right temple, one near the middle of the forehead, one near the left temple, one in the jaw, and the other just above the mouth. The wound inflicted upon Mrs. Lee was of the most dangerous character. At the last accounts she was in a most critical condition. The jury of inquest acquitted Mr. Flowers.

THE COMING ECLIPSE.—Already the press is noticing the interesting eclipse of the sun which will occur on the 18th of July, and will be of great importance to the scientific world. Astronomers in many places in Europe are making arrangements to take full observations of it. The Director of the Dorpat Observatory, it is said, was the first to remark that at the moment of obscuration four of the planets, Venus, Mercury, Jupiter, and Saturn, will appear in the vicinity of the eclipsed sun, as a kind of rhomboidal figure; a phenomenon of such extraordinary rarity that many centuries will elapse before its repetition. For the information of our readers we would add, that Dorpat, or Derpt, is a town in Russia, on the road between St. Petersburg and Riga. Its celebrated University was founded in 1632, by Gustavus Adolphus, of Sweden. It has eighty professors, a fine observatory, &c., and is the principal school for the Protestant clergy of Russia.

ENGLISH IRON.—The following item from a Trenton (New Jersey) paper, sufficiently indicates the working of our tariff law:—"Some few weeks ago it was announced in the True Democrat and other papers of our city, that the Trenton Locomotive Works had secured the contract for erecting a large iron bridge across a Southern river, amounting to $180,000. The news was joyfully received by all classes of our citizens, as such a contract would give steady employment to a large number of hands, and of course benefit our traders generally. A party of English speculators have since underbid them, and the bridge will be made in England, of British iron. A nice commentary on the free trade policy of our government."

If that bridge had been made in this country, ten per cent of the one hundred and eighty thousand dollars, which would have been paid for it, would have gone into the pockets of workmen here.

The following is a sample of the numerous letters constantly receiving for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Canadagua, July 15th, 1859. Messrs. Hoettger & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Gents:—As we are strangers, I herewith enclose you twenty-five dollars for four dozen Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which you forward to Michigan Southern Railroad, Toledo, Ohio, and Clayton Station. I have purchased several dozen bottles at Toledo this Summer, but the sale is on the increase so much that I wish to open a direct trade with you. I was induced to try your Bitters by my physician, for the Liver Complaint, and received such material aid that I have recommended it to others and have sold about two dozen per week for some time. I have all kinds of medicine in stock, and having a fine assortment of Bitters, for the Liver, I can so cheerfully and truthfully recommend as your Bitters, for I know they have helped me beyond my expectation. Yours &c., PHILIP WILSON.
