CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 4, 1860.

FOR PRESIDENT HON. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. HON. HANNIBAL HAMLIN.

FOR GOVERNOR. HON, ANDREW G. CURTIN, of Centre Co.

UNDER WHICH KING.

The nomination of two Presidential tickets by the Democracy at Baltimore, threw the faithful into the worst dilemma they have ever experienced. They were at a loss to know which of the two they should support-whether they should go for Douglas, or for Breckenridge-and several days passed before any considerable number would commit themselves. Their newspaper editors were the most sorely puzzled of all, and made all sorts of excuses for postponing any decided expression of opinion until they could, like a certain Hoosier politician, get "moar light on the subjeck." Our neighbor of the Republican seems to have been in this category; but we presume that by this time he has consulted the proper oracles, heard their decree, and will in his issue this week let the world know whom he will serve. Quite a number of his editorial brethren have in the meantime taken their position-some for Douglas, others for Breckenridge-and if we are permitted to judge from the press how matters stand with the masses, we should say | publicans have made a wise choice in selecthat the party is nearly equally divided between the two factions. Efforts, it is true, are being made to reconcile differences; but there is too much bitterness and hatred exhibited by nay proverbial, honesty and probity, of nerve, both wings to admit of a well grounded hope that any thing can be effected. Their traditionary charm of "sticking to the ticket," and that the party was invincible, has been dispelled, and certain defeat stares them in the face. Indeed, some of the leading Democrat- reform, moral and financial, in the federal Adic papers acknowledge that there is no hope | ministration, that probably never was so greatfor them. We have only room to give a para- ly and urgently needed as at the present time. graph on the subject, from the N. Y. Herald. And when a man has won the esteem and con-In a late issue that paper says :-

"The Democratic party is destroyed. There is not the remotest visible ghost of a contin- and substantial popularity with the masses, gency for the reunion of the belligerent elements of this revolutionary convention. The moral consequences of what they have already done render it superfluous to speculate upon what they may do to-day or to-morrow. As suming that those fighting factions, cliques, and sections may still agree to bury the hatchet, and unite upon a compromise ticket, it will avail them nothing. The party is broken to too seriously crippled, and has too many bones broken, to be healed and put upon its legs again in a single day or a single year. It is lass. Davis said his fate would be like that of practically dissolved and disbanded, whatever | Van Buren, and that his followers were only a may be the remedies attempted. In brief, set of spoilsmen and Treasury plunderersthe National Convention of the Democratic party, having become degraded to the base condition of Tammany Hall in its worst days of rufflanism, is only suffering the fate of Tammany Hall-discords, divisions, rebellion, deteat and disgrace."

ARRIVAL OF THE GREAT EASTERN .- The immense steamship Great Eastern has reached the port of New York. At 71 o'clock on the morning of the 28th she came to anchor off the light-ship at Sandy Hook, after a voyage of 11 days, and within half an hour the news was flashed all over the Union. Her best performance was 333 nautical miles in 24 hours, and had she been run at full speed, and by the most direct route, her passengers assert that she would have made the passage inside of nine days. The cautiousness of Capt. Vine Hall, however, led him to deviate occasionally to the southward of the true course, and much time was lost in verifying and correcting the compasses, between which, owing to the local attraction, there was a very considerable difference. She came into port much lighter than she will usually sail, in order to cross the bar; but this fact is countervailed by the foulness of her bottom, which very much retarded her speed. Unquestionably she is in many cleaner than any other ship. She is stiff and staunch-so much so, that her great engines, wheels and paddles impart scarcely a perceptible vibration to her frame. She moves loving wife. He kindly invited her to partake through the water with the least swell conceivthe front, she looks square, vast and ungainly, and in her upper works appears like a crippled replied that it was "nothing." He will be ship. The latter fact is probably due to the hung on Friday, the 6th of July. absence of main-top-gallant yards. Only three of her masts are sparred at all. The first look at her disappoints one; but when she passes objects by which her vastness may be measured, then she looms up in all her gigantic proportions. Within an hour or two after her arrival the whole bay was covered with water craft, loaded down with thousands of passengers whose enthusiasm was truly electric.

Mr. Fitzpatrick, who was nominated for Vice President on the Douglas ticket, having declined the honor, the National Executive Committee have selected Hershel V. Johnson, of Georgia, who has accepted the nomination.

weeks, for the benefit of her stockholders.

BATES AND LINCOLN.

The Hon. Edward Bates, who was the first choice of many Republicans as the party's nominee for the Presidency, has written a letter to the St. Louis Democrat, in which he gives his cordial endorsement to the Chicago nomination. He affirms, what is undeniably true, that the Presidential contest will be between the Republicans and the Democrats. He prefers the former party for various reasons; that the Democratic party has merged its national existence in the one and sectional question of negro slavery; that it has in various instances endangered the constitutional rights of co-ordinate branches of the government, attempted to degrade the judiciary by striving to make it a passive registrar of party decrees. In most, if not all things, he considers the Republican party the opposite of the Democratic, and therefore entitled to his support, and this would be a sufficient reason for his supporting any man whom the Republican party might put forward if he had no other good reasons for supporting Mr. weak to elect any candidate or establish any principle. He says he has known Mr. Lincoln for more than twenty years, and that "he has earned a high reputation for truth, candor, courage, morals and amiability; that he has talents and he will use them to the best advantage. He is the peer of the first men of the nation, and well able to sustain himself and advance the cause against adversary, and in any field where mind and knowledge are the weapons used : that, in brief, he considers him a sound, safe, national man, who could not be sectional if he tried, for all his feelings and interests are identified with the great valley of the Mississippi, and that for the good of the whole country he hopes he may be elected."

Edward Bates has a Union-wide reputation for conservatism, probity and high intelligence. and his testimony to Mr. Lincoln's character, abilities and national spirit, is of the highest value. It would be satisfactory and conclusive to every candid man, even if it stood alone. But similar testimony is borne by all who have known and closely watched Abraham Lincoln of Illinois. Unquestionably the Reting him as their standard bearer. As a man of high talents and a most estimable character, a man of rigid temperance, of unquestioned, courage and powers of endurance, and totally unconnected with any clique either of political, impracticable or political speculators, he is the man for the time, to whom the whole country could look with confidence for that fidence of his fellow citizens of the character of Edward Bates, as well as attained a just there exists no reason why he should not be triumphatly elected to the highest office in the gift of the American people.

CUTTING OFF A DISEASED MEMBER. - The speeches made by Jeff. Davis, Breckenridge, Hallett and Toombs, upon the occasion of a serepieces, and, with one, two or three tickets, it | nade to Breckenridge, at Washington, after must be superseded. It is too badly cut up, his nomination, show the prevalence of the most intense feeling of bitterness toward Douglass. Davis said his fate would be like that of they would cut him off as a diseased member, just as Van Buren was cut off. It is thus the South deals with refractory Northerners. It uses them while it can, and when they show the least signs of independence, spurns them as rebels. . The administration and the South have determed to crush Douglas, and they

> On the Second Ballot, by which Douglas was nominated, only twenty-four out of the thirtythree States voted at all. These States cast 1944 votes out of the 256 to which they are entitled. So that nine States were not represented at all in this sectional Convention. Of the twenty-four which were represented, only nine cast their full vote. It is asking too much of poor, weak human nature, to consider this a national convention. Compared with the Chicago Convention, Lincoln received more votes in Convention from Slave States than Douglas, although only five Southern States were represented at Chicago, while 8 of 15 were in the Douglas Convention.

> TERRIBLE CALAMITY .- A correspondent of the Syracuse Journal writes that, recently, Mr. George Schwab, a wealthy and respectable farmer, residing seven or eight miles north of Newark, N. Y., was burning over a piece of land. His two daughters being near the fire, by some means it caught in their clothes, and before any assistance could be rendered, they were both burned in a most shocking manner. One of them has since died of her injuries, and it is said that the other must soon follow. Later in the week, two fine horses belonging to Mr. Scwab were killed by lightning.

PREPARED FOR THE "RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL." WESTMORELAND COUNTY .- A young man named Neff, of West Newton, recently moulded Eight Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-Eight Brick in one day! This will be acknowledged an extraordinary day's work, but he is willing to undertake the moulding of Ten Thousand from sun-up till sun-set. . . . On Saturday, 24th of June, a little son of Thomas Copeland, of Sewickly township, aged about eight years, accidentally fell into the Youghiogheny river, at Buena Vista, and be-fore he could be rescued was drowned. Every effort that could be made by diving to recover his body before life had fled was in vain. It was not found for about an hour, and when taken out he was past resuscitation. . . . On the 22d, Mrs. White, an aged lady, of Unity township, while engaged in gathering some cherries fell from the tree, a distance of about eight feet to the ground, and, in the fall, broke both of her arms. . . . Mr. Chris Shaffer, formerly of Saltsburg, now residing at Carpenter's about thirteen miles west of Greensburg, had for several years a negro man that was notoriously addicted to drinking. This negro was out at some gathering about three weeks ago and returned home at night very much intoxicated. He lay down as usual in the bar-Lincoln. The Union party he considers too room to sleep; during the night time he took fire, and before he could be awoke, all his clothes were burnt off him, and the grease melted out into the board where he lay. When he was pretty well into a crisp, he awoke and made a great noise, which raised Mr. Shaffer, but he was so badly burned that he soon died in great agony. Whether he took fire spontaneously or from matches he was in the habit of carrying in his pocket, is not known. . . . The residence of Col. D. K. Marchand in Greensburg, took fire on the 24th, and before the flames could be extinguished sustained damages amounting to $800 or $1000. . . . On the 17th, a severe hail storm passed over a never sought office; he is an outsider and noportion of this county. Mr. Cyrus Caven, about 4 miles above Ligonier, had thirty sheep killed by one flash of lightning-one only of the flock escaped. CRAWFORD COUNTY .- On Thursday the 21st

June, Thomas Mosier, of Bloomfield township, attempted the murder of his wife with an axe. from there, cannot know. We submit, how-It seems that Mosier, who had been married but several months, had parted from his wife; that in a short time they again got together; that subsequently they parted a second time, she returning to her parents. On Wednesday, he came to her father's residence; staid over night, and was about starting away in the morning. He had got as far the wood pile, and was talking to her mother, when he saw his wife sitting at the window. He then took up an old axe, and going round to the back door, entered the room. On seeing him, she tried to escape, but he knocked her down with the axe, and afterward, repeated the blows three times on her head, injuring her so severely that no hopes are entertained of her recovery. Mosier was arrested and lodged in jail. . . . On the evening of the 21st, an affray took place on Chestnut Street, Meadville, between Mr. R. H. Guinnip, of the firm of Guinnip & Co. and Mr. Jno. W. Crocker, of Chatanque county, New York, in which the latter was dangerously, perhaps fatally wounded, by a shot in the breast. The parties had a quarrel on the day previous, but had been separated, and on meeting the next evening, renewed the quarrel. Guinnip delivered himself up, and was H. Forcee will continue to carry on the business child of Mrs. Harrison, of Meadville, aged about four years, fell into a large kettle of boiling soap, and was so badly scalded that it died shortly afterwards.

POTTER COUNTY .- During the thunder storm of June 18th, a frame house in Pleasant Valley township belonging to A. M. Benton, Esq., and occupied by his brother, Samuel Benton, was struck by lightning and completely shattered, and yet not set on fire. The lightning entered the upper plate of the building at the north west corner and followed the plate to the opposite corner where it seems to have divided into three bolts or forks, one going down into the buttery, another to the kitchen, and the other passing down and out of the end of the building to the ground, where it tere up the turf for some distance. Mrs. Benton and her children, together with Mr. Benton's mother, were in the kitchen; and Mrs. B. was shocked so badly by the lightning that she was insensible for several hours, and is still very weak, though going about the house. The others were slightly benumbed. A firkin of butter standing in the buttery, was stripped of the hoops and staves, leaving the solid cake of butter otherwise undisturbed. A gun standing in the corner of the chamber where the lightning entered the building is supposed to have attracted it. The building is a complete wreck. A shawl was set on fire but was extinguished by a man who was present.

CENTRE COUNTY .- Jacob Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills, whilst playing ball at Philipsburg recently, took off his linen coat, in the pocket of which he had $440, and laid in a desk in the bar-room; but when he came to put on the coat, the money was missing. . . . A young man named Michael Canlan was drowned at Curtin's Ore Bank, near the Boiling Spring, week before last, whilst taking a bath. His body was not recovered until next morning. . . The shoe shop of Jesse Gillespie, of Bellefonte, was entered on the 18th, and 3 pairs of new shoes stolen therefrom. Two pairs of the shoes were afterwards recovered. No arrests

INDIANA COUNTY .- On the 20th ult., a little daughter of Thomas C. Hood, of White township, was knocked down by a passing wagon, and had one of her feet badly injured by being tramped by one of the horses. . . . The weavil has made its appearance in several localities and some of the wheat fields have been badly damaged by the destroye insect. . Mr. Marshall, of Indiana bugh, has shipped this season from that place, four hundred car loads of bark to Pittsburgh. . . . Mr. John A. Barclay, of Centre township, has a calf, a cross of the common Durham and English Durham, which weighed, when about 15 hours old, one hundred and five pounds!

The Naples correspondent of the Daily News writes as follows :- "Everything wears a warlike aspect here, and there is no lack of energy in making preparations for putting down the almost universal rising of the nation. Steamers come and go day and night-ammunition in great abundance and provisions are sent without ceasing; and that there is any necessity for the latter shows how completely the Government has lost the command of the Island. From one magazine alone, that of Scafati, 180 cantaria of powder have been brought over this week to Baia, for the manufacture of bombs-those amiable persuaders, those favorite counselors of the Bourbons.

ago; the home thrusts which have been made at those pairs of mythical boots that were not, when he was a member of Congress, sent home under his official frank; the fearful onslaughts that his old flat-boat has endured; the hard words that have been leveled at his mouth, nose, head, hair, legs, eyes: the objurgations showered upon his height; the anathemas hurled against his popular name among the people, "Honest Old Abe"-these ought to be sufficient proof that in all the essentials that make up a man fit for the Presidency, he so well satisfies, the Democrats that they have not a word of criticism or complaint. We have seen no allegations that he has not the ability to fill with honor to himself and his party, and with safety to his country, the high place for which he is named. We have not yet ascertained that there is a journal whose editor is brazen enough to lay the charge of know the man who has the hardihood to allege that his every public act has not been dictated by conscious patriotism. Nothing of accidents. He is too long; he is ugly; he has been poor and humble; he once thought of becoming a blacksmith and pounding out his fortune on the anvil; he cannot make the bow of a French dancing-master; his learning was acquired, not thrust upon him; he has body supposed that he was in the line of preferment. Such are the objections thus far developed. What there is in store in that magazine of lies of which the Sham Democrats have the key, we who do not draw our arms ever, that until his ability is disproved, his integrity soiled, or his love of country successfully questioned, the people will be justified in believing as they now do, that Lincoln is the man of their choice. As in these he is invulnerable, let us advise the Democrats to keep firing away at the rails and the boots.-
