THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL

THE JOURNAL. CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 11, 1869.

E. A. Invis has received at the "Corner Store." Curwensville, a fresh supply of Summer Goods. See advertisement.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE .- By Divine permission, the Rev. Samuel Miles will preach in the Baptist church next Sabbath, at 11 o'clock, when the Lord's supper will be celebrated.

NEW STOCK .- We direct special attention to the advertisement of Matthew Forcee, who has received a new stock of Seasonable Goods at the old stand in Bradford, which he offers to purchasers on very advantageous terms.

TALL TINOTHY .- Several tall stalks of timothy, which grew on the farm of Mr. Allen Mitchell in Lawrence township, were left at our office a few days since. They were cut off at the first join t, about 4 inches above the ground, and yet some of them measured 5 feet 9 taken to Philipsburg for examination. inches in length.

DR. A. M. HILLS desires to notify his friends and patrons in the vicinity of Glen Hope that he will be at Harris Green's in that place, on the week commencing 23d July. All persons desiring his services as a Dentist, will please call early in the week, so that arrangements may be made to accommodate all. 2t.

NEW LANDLORD .- By referring to an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Mr. H. H. Morrow has retired from the Clearfield House, and that his place has been taken by Mr. Geo. N. Colburn. Mr. Colburn is an accommodating gentleman, a clever landlord, and keeps a good house. We have no doubt that he will do a flourishing business.

PATAL ACCIDENT .- A young man named Nathaniel Austin. in the employ of Mr. C. Blanwhard, while engaged at repairing the dam at Moore & Kirk's mill on Anderson's creek, in Union township, this county, on Friday the 29th ult., was struck on the back of the head by a dead limb which was blown from a tree near by, and injured so much that he died on Tuesday evening, July 3d.

BAUTAL OUTRAGE .- On Thursday last, an Irishman, named Hugh Frield, was committed to jail in this place, charged with attempting to commit a rape on Rebecca Sinkabine, a girl of 13 or 14 years, in Guelich township, on the 24 inst. Frield, we are informed. caught the girl on the plank road, and forced her into the bushes, bordering it, when her cries attracted the attention of her mother, who hastened to her rescue, and caused Frield to seek safety in flight. A warrant, however, was issued, and the officer fortunately succeed-quite a display of fireworks, and on the evening of the 4th, the marrial baai of the Cleardeld Rifle Company came to town and livened us up with their music. We must in all candor say that this band, considering all things. play in a highly creditable style, and receive commendatory remarks from all we heard speak of them.

ARRESTED .- E. C. Merrifleld, a stage driver, was yesterday arrested in this place on a warrant from Philipsburg, in which he is charged with having taken $443, which Jacob Kepler had left in his linen coat whilst playing ball in that place, about four weeks ago. Merrifield, it seems, has of late been rather flush of money, and this, in connection with the fact of his having bought out the saloon kept here by Mr. Ed. Goodwin, and other circumstances, fastened suspicion upon him and led to his arrest. Wo understand he alleges that he procured some money from a brother in Pittsburgh, and that it was in this way he was enabled to purchase the saloon. He was Centre and Pleasant Grove Sunday School Celebrateon, July 4th, 1860.

The schools met on the old camp-ground on the tarm of Capt. A. Addleman at 11 o'clock A. M., when, on motion, Alex. Caldwell, Esq., was called to the chair; Jordan Reed and Sam'i Fullerton were chosen Vice Presidents, L. K. McCullough and Geo. Boai as Secretaries, and Abram Bailey was appointed Chief Marshal, with a number of assistants. The necessary committees were then announced from the stand; after which the ladies spread an excellent dinner of the abundance of good things prepared and brought to the ground for the occasion, and to which the children and visitors did ample justice.

Atter dinner, all assembled in front of the stand, where an appropriate hymn was sung, and prayer offered up by Rev. Wm. McCullongh. The Declaration of Independence was read by I. Test, Esq., who then proceeded to address the assembly in an able manner. He was followed by H. B. Swoope, Esq., with an appropriate speech, after which the follow-ing toasts were read by Wm. J. Hemphill, Esq. 1st. The 4th of July-our National Holliday-may it always be celebrated by a free and happy people.

2d. The Heroes of '76-we this day venerate their memories, admire their heroic actions, and enjoy the rich fruits of their joint labors, joint trials, and joint triumphs.

8d. The Signers of the Declaration of Independence will have a name and a place in every true American heart.

4th. The Constitution of the U. States-the strongest fortress of our National defence, the patriot's chart, the statesman's anchor, and the citizen's hope.

5th. The American Flag-may it never be sullied by American hands. 6th. The unity of the States-by the bond of affection may they be eternally held together. 7th. The people of this country-may the day never come when they shall cease to regard each other as brothers. 8th. The American Army-in war or peace, intelligent, brave and humane.

Signed by order of the Executive Com-mittee. ALEX. McLEOD, President.

ed in arresting and lodging him in prison as stated above.

ACCIDENTS .- Some two weeks since, whilst Mr. Samuel Brown, of Lawrence township, was working in a clearing, a limb, knocked off one of the trees close by, struck him on the head, cutting a deep gash, and knocking him senseless. He remained for several days in a rather bad condition.

About the same time, a young boy, son of Gileon Goodfellow, of Lawrence township, who was assisting to haul saw logs, received severe injuries on the jaw and side of the head, by being struck with a hand-spoke, which a log rolling into the mill-race caused to fly up. He remained irrational for two or three days, but is now stirring around again.

On the 1st inst., a little girl, aged 8 or 10 years, daughter of John Featon, of Lawrence township, from some cause or other fell, and in attempting to save herzalf, broke her right arm above the wrist. The fracture was properly attended to, and she is thought to be in a tair way of recovering speedily.

FOCRTH OF JULY .- The 84th Anniversary of American Independence was celebrated at a number of places in this county.

At Clover Hill,a Sabbath School Celebration was well attended, and the proceedings were of a pleasant and entertaining character. An excellent dinner which had been liberally prepared by the people of the neighborhood. having been disposed of, the scholars, parents and spectators seated themselves around a stand erected for the occasion, and listened to the reading of the Declaration of Independence, and to an appropriate address from Rev. J. M. Galloway, after which they engaged in such pastimes as each felt inclined to. The place selected for holding the celebration, is a beautiful one-a forest, on a high hill, which terminating abruptly, is washed at its base by the waters of the Clearfield Creek, on the opposite side of which stretch out fields, forests, hills and dales, in grand succession, that inspire the beholder with a sort of pleasurable awe and amazement.

At Goshen School House a very large celebration was held, the Goshen, Shawsville, and the two Mt. Joy Sabbath Schools being in attendance. The Clearfield Rifle Company was also present, and took part in the proceedings. A good dinner was disposed of, and speeches were made by Rev. M. King and J. H. Larrimer, Esq. Altogether, this was one of the best celebrations we have heard of being held in this region. Our thanks are due some of the kind triends who toox part in the celebration, for several slices of good cake.

The Sabbath Schools in the vicinity of Centre Church assembled on the old Campground on Addleman's farm, and were addressed by H. B. Swoope and Israel Test, Esquires. We are told that about 300 persons were in attendance. The account of the proceedings was accompanied with an excellent cake-a present from Mrs. L. K. McCullough, tor which all hands in the office tender their thanks.

There was also a Sabbath School celebration in Curwensville, which we are informed passed of in the most agreable manner.

We understand that a celeb
