CLEARFIELD, PA., AUG. 1, 1860.

HON. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, FOR VICE PRESIDENT. HON. HANNIBAL HAMLIN.

HON. ANDREW G. CURTIN, of Centre Co.

THE STATE CANVASS. The canvass in Pennsylvania has been actively opened by Col. Curtin, our talented and popular candidate, who is now traversing the State and addressing the people at various points on the great political topics of the day. Wherever he appears he is received with enthusiasm, and his speeches are awakening the masses to the importance of the contest. Of commanding presence and attractive personal appearance, an orator in every sense of the term, conversant with the political history of the State and the Nation, and familiar with the business interests and wants of the country, he cannot fail to produce a favorable effect upon the large gatherings which he is called upon to address. Nor can there be any doubt as to his position. Taking the broad, national, conservative principles enunciated by the Chicago Convention, he commends them to the people of the State, and urges the election of Lincoln and Hamlin as the representatives of those views. What a strong contrast between his course and that of his Democratic competitor! Can any one tell where Gen. Foster stands? Is he for protecting the interests of the laboring men of our good old Commonwealth, or is he in favor of the "progressive free-trade" views of the Democratic party? Is he for Popular Sovereignty, or for a Slave Code for the Territories? For Douglas, or for Breckinridge? For Freedom, or is daily displayed a flag bearing the names of practically, the same thing over the Fire Eattor Slavery ? Is he for paying the free, white | Lincoln and Hamlin. Occaquan is the resi. ers. Each seem to be glad they have got rid workingman fair, living prices, or does he think, like Herschel V. Johnson, that "capital should own labor?" He asks to be elected Governor, and the voters have a right to demand answers to these questions, in order that | men. It is reported here that the mob is headthey may know what to expect from him. His ability and prowess as a public speaker papers, but we have not heard that he has ventured thus far to define his position in this

SELLING OUT!-Some facts have recently been developed, which place the managers of the Bell and Everett party in a very unenviable light. In New York, Instead of placing to-night to Occaquan. We have no news from in the field an electoral ticket, they have been | there of to-day's doings. bargaining with the Douglasites for a transfer of the Bell vote of that State to the Little Giant. In New Jersey, they were last week trading with the Breckinridge men, and a "mongrel" electoral ticket was formed, having on it three Breckinridge, three Bell, and a dubious Douglas elector-the three Bell men on this ticket being, however, also placed on a straightout Bell and Everett ticket. In Georgia, the Bell and Douglas schemers are trying to strike a bargain; and in Texas the former Houston. With these facts staring him in the tace, we do not see how any sincere opponent of Democratic corruption and extravagance can vote the Bell-Everett ticket, when by so doing he is countenancing a pack of political speculators, headed by Washington Hunt and Erastus Brooks of New York, in the nefarious business of selling votes to the highest Democratic bidders-no matter whether they are Douglas or Breckinridge buyers. We ask the few Bell men, who may be found here and there in this State, to give this matter their serious consideration. It is rumored that, in consequence of these bartering operations on the part of some of the leaders of the Constidrawing from the canvass, having no idea of says, "a cats-paw for Joe Lane's chestnuts."

The Douglas State Convention at Harrisburg last week was largely attended. Resofor a joint electoral ticket, and demanding that the State Committee shall interrogate the Convention-that, in the event of any members of the State Committee refusing to committee shall carry out the wishes of this convention. "No compromise or fusion," is the Douglas watchword. .

exposition of the views of the several candidates for the Presidency.

Ex-Mayor Vaux, of Philadelphia, we learn, ing at Curwensville, on Saturday.

"CAPITAL SHOULD OWN LABOR!"

Is not this a hard saying? Is it in harmony "laboring men" cheer or hiss such a sentiment? whether slavery was voted down or up. A Is it true or false? Does ii belong to the creed of a republic or of a Despotism?

It was uttered by a man professing Democracy, and every Democrat in the land is, today, asked to vote for him. His name is HER-SCHEL V. JOHNSON, the Douglas candidate for Vice President! The heresy is embodied in speech made by him in Philadelphia on the

there any doubt that there must be a laboring class everywhere? In all countries and under there living by the sweat of their brow; and care not whether it is voted down or up. then there must be another class that controls and directs the capital of the country."

things said by the advocates of Slavery. God and humanity have been alike insulted by more offensive been avowed than is here boldly and unblushingly proclaimed by this candidate of the Democracy for the high office of Vice President of the United States.

To "own labor" is to own laborers. By "the class of men who get their living by the sweat of their brow," is not meant negroes merely; any more than that by the "class that controls and directs the capital of the country," is meant owners of negroes. It is a general fall. Load for Breckinridge!" phrase, embodying all who labor for their bread

-white and black alike. In the opinion of Douglas Democrats, the man who owns a Cotton Factory should own the men, women and children who attend the looms and spindles. In Herschel V. Johnson's opinion, the man who owns a Machine Shop or Furnace, should own the Machinists and Moulders whose labor contributes to his wealth. In the opinion of the man whom the Douglasites support for Vice President, whoever has capital enough to employ laborers should own them, whether those who labor are Cotton Pickers, Farmers, Engine Builders, Carpenters, Masons, Blacksmiths, Hatters, Sacemakers, Brewers, Hod-Carriers or Printers. He makes no distinction. All laborers should be owned by those who are rich enough to employ labor!

WHITE MEN! What do you think of the demagogue who utters such a doctrine, or of the party who seeks to honor him for it? It was uttered, we repeat, by Herschel V. Johnson, and the Democratic party is laboring to make him Vice President of the United States! Will you vote for him? Do you think, as he does, that the man who is poor should be the purchased slave of the man who is rich? Is it your opinion-you who "get your living by the sweat of your brow"-that "Capital should seven national democratic papers in the State, own labor?" Whatever may be your opinion three are for Douglas, two for Breckinridge of Negro Slavery, do you think White men and two on the fence. Under these afflictive should be made Slaves ?-Alb. Journal.

Washington, July 26, 1860 .- Considerable excitement prevails in Occaquan, Virginia, sixteen miles from Alexandria, in consequence Virginia in 1856 for attending the National Convention that nominated Fremont. He was a delegate to Chicago, and, it is said, is sustained in his course at home by three hundred ed by the captain of a millitary company, who has resigned his office, and that General Hatton consented to let them have arms. The were the boast and pride of the Democratic Republicans of Occaquan held a meeting on Monday nigh and resolved to fortify and defend their liberty pole and flag at all hazards. They sent to Alexandria and this city for ammanner. Can any of his friends inform the munition, and notified Governor Letcher of people when they may expect to hear his overall the facts in the case, and imformed him if he did not protect them they should do it powering eloquence, or shall the latter conthemselves. He despatched a messenger last tinue to regard him as the "mum" candidate? night stating that they should be protected, and ordered General Hatton to call out his command, whereupon Hatton resigned. Sixty Republicans swear to die before they surrender their liberty pole and flag. The military of Alexandria are expecting orders to march

NEW JERSEY POLITICS .- The first important movement of this campaign, involving the selection of an electoral ticket was made on Wednesday at Trenton, where the anti-Republicans of every name gathered in seperate or joint Conventions. It was a very carnival of tusion and confusior. Three electoral tickets were nominated. One Convention called by the Democratic State Committee, consisted of 420 supporters of Breckinridge and 120 supporters of Douglas. This body nominated a fusion ticket, consisting of three Breckinridge men, three Bell men, and one so called will probably try to deal with the friends of Douglas man; if the vote of the State will elect any one of the three candidates then all these electors are to go for him; if not, they are to vote as they please, provided that in no event are they to vote for Lincoln. Next the Bell and Everett Convention, which nominated a justice. full ticket, including the three Bell men on the fusion ticket, and giving the State Committee power to fill vacancies. Finally, there was a Straight Douglas Convention, called by the New Jersey members of the Democratic National Committee. Here a full Douglas ticket was nominated, not including the so-called Douglas man on the fusion ticket.

A Couple of Disunionists .- Mr. Lawrence M. Keitt, of South Carolina, has never been regarded as a man profoundly wise, and he has talked disunion in Congress so long, that nobody, at either the South or the North, ever tutional Union party, Mr. Everett is about with- treats what he says as worthy of serious thought. In the profound calm with which people are awaiting the election of Lincoln, being made, as one of his editorial supporters he once more lifts up his voice, and appears before the world with a long document, declaring that the only honorable course for South Carolina to pursue is to secode from the Union, as soon as the success of the Republican party is known. Mr. W. L. Yancy writes a briefer lutions were adopted rejecting the proposition letter, looking to the same remedy for the grievance of a Republican President. Sensible men in all sections are accustomed to these little outbursts of folly from such men as Keitt electors, and that the places of all who will and Yancy, and they are not alarmed at not pledge themselves for Douglas and John- them. The letters are not worth publishing, son shall be supplied by a Democratic State and still less worth predicating revolutions upon. There is plenty of patriotism, conservatism and good sense at the South to submit to the constitutional election of a Republican ply with this demand, the balance of said com- President, and to try how he governs, before thinking of secession.

The German papers relate that recently there arrived at one of the first hotels of Berlin, a most elegant traveler fresh from Cali-Hon. John Hickman, on Tuesday of last fornia. TTICAL ITEMS.

-The Douglas men are beginning to deny with the spirit of the age? Whether would that their champion ever said he didn't care reference to the Congressional Globe for 1857-8, volume 1, page 18, will refresh their memories on this point. They will there read, in Mr. Donglas' speech in the Senate, on the 19th of December, 1857, as follows :- "But I am told on all sides: "Oh, just wait; the pro-slavery cause will be voted down." That does not obviate any of my objections; it does not 17th day of September, 1856, and is as follows: diminish any of them. You have no more "We believe CAPITAL SHOULDOWN LABOR; is right to force a free State Constitution on Kansas than a slave State Constitution. If Kansas wants a slave State Constitution she every form of social organization there must has a right to it. It is none of my business be a laboring class—a class of men who get which way the slavery cause is decided.

-An occurrence in one of the interior counties of New York Indicrously illustrates There have been a great many abominable the bewilderment into which the double-headed Presidential nomination has thrown the Democracy. When the news of the nominathem. But by none of them has ever anything | tion of Douglas flashed along the wires, a village Postmaster summoned the "unterrified" to bring out the gun and fire a salute. They had got about half through the allotted number of discharges, when a messenger from the telegraph office informed them that the Seceders had nominated Breckinridge. "The dthey have," said the Postmaster. Standing a moment in a brown study, he shouted, "Boys! there is no knowing into whose hands we may

-The Democracy of Vermont have again put up John G. Saxe for Governor. Now let them take hold and give him their every vote. They will be few enough at best; but let him have the last one. John is a clever fellow, a genius, a wag, and writes good, lively, rattling verses; above all, he is a genuine Hunker, believing in Rum, Slavery, and all other Democratic principles, if there be any other. Let him have a vote that will be really complimentary-one that will do to quit upon. He is too clever a fellow to be distanced year after year for life .- N. Y. Trib.

-In Washington city, D. C., application was recently made by the Republican Association for permission to raise a liberty pole in that city. The Mayor consented, as did also the Commissioner of Public Buildings, at first, but after nine days delay in an examination of the laws, Dr. Blake has discovered that it is unlawful to erect liberty poles in that district, and therefore the permit is withdrawn. Queer country this when a liberty pole can't stand in | ship, week before last. . . . On the 19th July, the capital of the republic.

-In the State of Vermont there are some what less than two democrats to the square mile! Yet, notwithstanding this, the party seems to be very much split up; for of the circumstances we do not see how the Democracy of the Green Mountain State can be expected to carry it.

-The Washington Star calls Douglas's friends "a gang of Abolitionists in disguise," of an attempt being made to demolish a liberty | and seems really pleased that they have left pole, erected by the Republicans, upon which | the Democratic party. The Donglas men say, ice of Mr. Underwood, who was driven out of of the other; and the people are glad that they are about to get rid of them both. So we are "jolly" all around.

-Gov. Seward, who the Democratic papers predicted would turn a cold shoulder to "honest old Abe" because he was not himself nominated, in order to show his sincerity in the support of Lincoln and Hamlin, has agreed to visit Michigan in September and address the people in favor of the Republican candidates. From there he will go to Minnesota for the same purpose.

-The difference between the parties is thus graphically set forth by an exchange. The Republicans are in favor of voting slavery down in our Western Territories; the Breckinridge party is in favor of voting it up; the Douglas party don't care whether it is voted up or down; and the Bell and Everett party don't know anything about nothing."

-The best description of what is really intended by squatter sovereignty, was given in a speech delivered by Abraham Lincoln, in Cincinnati, in September, 1859, as follows: Douglas popular sovereignty is simply this-If one man chooses to make a slave of anotha right to object."

-At the meeting of the Houston State Committee held in New York city last Wednesday, letters were read from Massachusetts, stating that Mr. Everett has it in contemplation to withdraw from the Presidential contest in disgust at the duplicity with which he is treated by the leaders of the so-called Union party in -Kansas is still out of the Union, because With all his pretended zeal for the will of the people, he had not the moral courage to plead for the admission of Kansas. He is as bold as a lion to do wrong, but he hasn't the courage of a mouse in the cause of humanity and

-The Albany Argus welcomes the Bell men of that State to the bosom of the Democratic party, and thinks it will be "like Blucher coming up with the Prussians" and declaring the fate of the battle. The Utica Herald says it is more like the Hessians coming over to help George Third and getting whipped at that.

-- At the Breckinridge meeting in New York the other evening, Daniel S. Dickinson said that when the New England and Northwestern delegates at Baltimore promised their States to Douglas, that pledge was made "subject to a slight incumbrance, held by one Abra-

-Gerrit Smith, the New York abolitionist, is out again as a candidate for the Presidency.

ANOTHER HORROR IN IOWA .- Iowa is gaining a very unenviable notoriety. The recent Otumwa and Kephart murders are fresh in the public mind. Here is another piece of brutality:-The Oskaloosa Herald says a worthless scoundrel named Hall, living near Tallyrand, Keokuk county, treated his wife with flendish cruelty a few days since. She had been teaching school to maintain the family. Without her knowledge he drew her wages, then beat clothing, and with a cord tied her hands and

PREPARED FOR THE "RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL." VENANGO COUNTY .-- The farmers of this county have gathered a good harvest this season. . . . The oil excitement still continues, and new oil deposits are being daily found. . . A son of Peter Miller, aged about six years, in company with a brother a few years older, ascended a charcoal pit, on the 18th July, in Rockland towaship, for the purpose of stopping some "mulleins." The pit suddenly "caved in" beneath the feet of the smaller boy, engulfing him in the burning wood. All the efforts of the brother to extricate him from the burning grave were unavailing, and the little sufferer was literally roasted to death, ere help could be obtained. His remains were finally rescued from the flames and decently intered. The heart stricken parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

ELE COUNTY .- We learn by the Ridgway Advocate that on the 16th July, the steam saw-mill of Joseph S. Hyde, Esq., about 5 miles above that place, was destroyed by fire. Owing to the combustible nature of the building, in a very short time after the fire was discovered, it was enveloped in a sheet of flame, and was soen a mass of charted and smoking timbers. By the most incredible exertions about a 100,000 feet of boards and 500 logs were saved from the devouring element : but the total loss will not fall far short of $12,-000, on which there is no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is strongly suspected to be the work of an incendiary. This is the second steam mill which Mr. Hyde has had burned down within the past twelve

CENTRE COUNTY .- On the 14th of July, a party from the vicinity of Wolf's store in Miles township, went to the Narrows to gather whortle-berries. Jaspar Wolf, a lad of about 16 years, had a small rifle with him, which he attempted to discharge, but failed. Placing the gun on his shoulder, he then commenced gathering berries, when, from some cause or other, an explosion took place, the charge lodging in his left arm, breaking the bone. and the bullet lodging in his shoulder. At first it was thought the injury would prove fatal, but he is now in a fair way of recovering Jonathan Wolf and John Wolf each recently resped with a sickle, in one day, one hundred shocks of grain. So says the Demo-

Indiana County .- A copperhead snake, measuring six feet in length, was killed on the farm of Capt. Adams, in Blacklick townwhile John Kelly and Robert Orr were finishing the cornice of a new house of Mr. James Hood, of White township, the scaffolding gave way and precipitated young Orr to the ground, a distance of 30 feet, injuring him severely. Mr. Kelly saved himself by seizing the end of a projecting lath and dragging himself upon the roof of the building. . . . A hail storm, which did much injury to the corn and oats crops and broke windows exposed to it, passed over Saltsburg and vicinity a few days

YORK COUNTY .- A boy named William Chalmers, employed in a sash factory in York borough, met with an accident which, in its results, is almost incredible. It appears that workmen set a circular saw in motion, not knowing that the boy was so near. As he was emerging from the place, the boy's head came in contact with the saw, and in a twinkling penetrated the brain to the depth of three inches. He was conveyed to the Hospital, and in a few hours was as merry as if nothing had happened. The doctors think he will recover.

CAMBRIA COUNTY .- A German miner, named Michael Glauber, was killed in one of the Iron company's coal pits on the 21st of July, by the falling of a quantity of slate. . . . A little daughter of Julius Moore, of Johnstown, died suddenly on the 20th, after suffering but a few hours from convulsions which defied the skill of physicians. . . . Emanuel J. Pershing, a citizen of Johnston, died very unexpectedly at the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, on the 22d. His disease was pulmonary consumption.

BAPTISTS IN MAINE. - The Maine correspondent of the Christian Chronicle, writes: "As a denomination, the Baptists are the most numerous in Maine. We have 278 churches, with 21,380 members. Many of the churches, hower man, neither that man nor anybody else has ever, are small and feeble, and destitute of constant preaching. The number of preachers being only 137, and some of these without pastoral charge, leaves over one hundred churches without pastors."

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pur sue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, howels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or Bilious complaints. arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentary, Cholic, Chol era Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal. Diarrhea, dysentery or flux, so generally con tracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily reg-STRAYED from the premises of the subscri-ber in Lawrence township, about six weeks ago, a Black Bull, two years old last spring, with cause of which may always be attributed to de rangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bit-ters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science FEVER AND AGUE .- This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTER'S. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interrup tion of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healty digestion, and the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure. For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled consitution and infirm body. these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostet- | mittee. ter's Stomach Ritters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before o doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Stomach Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness

Cantion .- We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle. and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork. and stamped on the incurrence and observe that our autograph signature is on the label. De Prepared and sold by Hostetter & Smith, within a day's travel, will always be in charge of agraful and attentive hostlers. In short, every and dealers generally throughout the United | department of his establishment will be supplied States, Canada. South America, and Germany.
