

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., AUGUST 1, 1860.

MORE TALL OATS.—Mr. Robert Owens, of Lawrence township, sent to our office, some oats stalks that are six feet one inch in length—heads about 15 inches. He has a couple acres of the "same sort."

CLEARFIELD COUNTY BANK.—At a meeting of the stockholders of this institution, held in Clearfield borough on last Saturday, James T. Leonard, James B. Graham, Jonathan Boynton, Richard Shaw, G. L. Reed, W. A. Wallace and Wm. Porter were elected Directors of the Bank.

LOOK OUT.—There are in circulation in this vicinity orders on the Crawfordville, Loganport, and Northern Indiana R. R. Co., got up in the shape of bank bills, which may be good enough at home, but are regarded as utterly worthless here, and will not pass at the counter of the Banking House.

MR. S. M. BAILEY. of Lawrence township, we are informed, on Tuesday last week, mowed 2 acres of grass in 74 hours. Who can beat that?

MR. BAILEY HAS A FINE PROSPECT of good cabbage—some of the leaves are now 2 feet in length and 14 to 16 inches wide.

NEAT AFFAIR.—We are indebted to Mr. Frederick Letzinger, of this place, for a flower-urn, made of stone-clay, of beautiful form, and finished in a neat and tasteful manner. Persons wanting anything of this kind, should by all means call upon Mr. Letzinger, who is one of the best workmen, in his line of business, that the country affords. His stone and crockery ware are justly regarded as being of a very superior quality.

LINCOLN AND CURTIN CLUB.—Last Wednesday evening, a number of the friends of Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin assembled at the Town Hall in this Borough to take steps towards forming a Club. Dr. M. Woods was chosen President; L. K. McCullough and G. B. Hoover, Vice Presidents; and S. B. Row and Cornelius Owens, Secretaries. A Constitution was adopted and signed; and after the transaction of some other business, the meeting adjourned till Friday evening.

On Friday evening, the Club re-assembled and elected the following permanent officers: President—Joseph B. McEnally, Esq. Vice Presidents—L. K. McCullough, Oliver Conklin, A. G. Hoyt, N. Rishel, Isaac Thompson, S. J. Row. Corresponding Secretary—S. B. Row. Recording Secretary—Geo. W. Rheem. Treasurer—A. C. Finney.

On taking the chair, the President delivered a neat and appropriate speech. The Club adjourned to meet on Friday evening, 3d inst. The Club already numbers 35 members.

THE TOMATO AS FOOD.—Dr. Bennett, a professor of some celebrity, considers the tomato an invaluable article of diet, and ascribes to it various important medical propensities. First: that the tomato is one of the most powerful aperients of the liver and other organs, where calomel is indicated; it is probably one of the most effective and least harmful remedial agents known to the profession. Second: that a chemical extract will be obtained from it that will supersede the use of calomel in the cure of disease. Third: that he has successfully treated diarrhoea with this article alone. Fourth: that when used as an article of diet it is an almost sovereign remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion. Fifth: that it should be constantly used for daily food either cooked or raw, or in the form of catsup, as it is the most healthy article now in use.

STATISTICS OF THE LUTHERAN CHURCH.—It is estimated, by those who may be assumed to be posted on the subject, that there are scattered in various parts of the world, 42,912,601 Lutherans. Of these, there are in Sweden, 3,000,000; in Norway, 1,500,000; in Denmark, the Faroe Islands, Jutland and Greenland, 2,000,000; in France, 500,000; in Protestant Germany, 25,000,000; in Prussia, 5,000,000; in Austria, Hungary, Bohemia and Moravia, 1,600,000; in Poland and Russia, 2,500,000; in the United States, 1,000,000; in West India Islands, 100,000; in Brazil, 100,000; in South America, 50,000; in New South Wales, 3,014; in Nova Scotia, 4,087; in Holland, 600,000; in England, 40,000; in Italy, 500; in Turkey in Europe, 15,000.

By the steamer City of Washington, which arrived on Saturday, we get the intelligence that a proclamation had been issued by Garibaldi against the Bourbon, in which he proclaims himself a Royalist, but prefers Victor Emmanuel, who he says, will lead them against Austria. At Naples there had been a collision between the troops and the people, in consequence of popular manifestations in favor of some refugees who had disembarked at that place. The Ministry had been dismissed and a new Cabinet formed. Affairs in Syria are looking blacker and blacker. The British government has received intelligence of the massacre of 500 Christians at Damascus. Among the killed was the Dutch Consul. The American Consul was wounded.

Judge Terry has been acquitted of the charge of murdering Senator Broderick in a duel. The witnesses to establish the guilt of Terry were on their way from San Francisco in a small boat, but being delayed, did not reach the Court House till the case went to the jury. On the opening of court the District Attorney announced that his witnesses had not made their appearance. The case went to the jury without a word of testimony, and, under the charge of Judge Hardy, a verdict of acquittal was rendered.

METHODISM IN GREAT BRITAIN.—An English paper says: Wesleyan Methodism is one of the wonders of the age and of the world. The increase of its membership during the past ecclesiastical year was fifteen thousand four hundred and sixty-nine full members, and twenty-six thousand seven hundred and forty-eight re-converts. The candidates for the ministry are more numerous than in any former year. The missionary collections for the year amount to $750,000.

In town last week—Evans R. Brady. He is trying to find the way to the Legislature. It's a hard road to travel, Colonel.

Exciting—the newspaper war down town, on Tuesday, so on with your kicking, gentlemen: it's fun for the spectators.

The last new wrinkle is "cable punch," at which interperate youths take a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether.

Troublesome—the double-headed electoral ticket of the Democracy. It requires a great deal of explanation. Ahem!

In Europe, the people take off their hats to great men. In America, great men lift their hats to the people—before an election!

Died—Joseph Gales, one of the editors of the National Intelligencer at Washington, on the 21st July, in the 75th year of his age.

Hon. Brenton Halliburton, Chief Justice of Nova Scotia, better known in this country as Sam Slick, died at Halifax, on the 16th of July.

Must be scarce—Breckinridge men, in Minnesota. A paper announces the discovery of one Breckite, and says that makes three in State.

Captured a beaver—a young lady in Ralls county, recently, and also the man who carried it about on his head. Young ladies are given to such tricks.

It is said that the peach crop of Louisiana this year will be so large that the New Orleans market will be overrun, and it is proposed to ship by express peaches to the North, where they will arrive several weeks in advance of the season.

Parson Brownlow says that the Rev. Dr. Daily, recently deposed from the Presidency of Bloomington College, Indiana, and at the same time expelled from the Methodist church for drunkenness and adultery, has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Madison District of Indiana.

HEATED WIND STORM.—A heated wind storm passed over a portion of Kansas on the 7th ult., which proved nearly as destructive to animal life as the recent tornadoes that visited with such terrible effect, portions of Iowa. The wind arose about half past 10 o'clock a.m., and continued until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. At one o'clock the mercury rose to 119 deg. and continued so for about an hour, and then gradually began to decrease. The effect can scarcely be imagined. The wind blew a gale, carrying with it a salty, sulphurous smell. Two men in attempting to cross the country from Iowa to Humboldt (distance eight miles), were overtaken and perished. There were three others at Humboldt, who were caught out with teams, which perished, the men alone surviving, and are now in a fair way to recover. There was scarcely a chicken left in the country. Hogs and cattle fell in their tracks and suffocated. Various reasons and conjectures as to its cause are given, but all unsatisfactory.—Chic. Journal.

LATEST NEWS FROM HARPER'S FERRY.—Brown, the leader of the insurrection, found guilty of Murder and Treason in the first degree.—The above named insurrection, having a great deal of good to be let off by leading politicians and the political press of this great country, and in fact, the majority of the people of all parties, were more or less excited on reading the first account of the insurrection—some of the papers trying to make political capital out of the affair, and others trying to make it a party issue. If it had been an Italian strike for Freedom against their lawful sovereign, led by Mazzini or Garibaldi, the Press of this country, with but one exception, would have meted and passed resolutions and editorials in its honor, and in their so-called patriotic wrath; but amidst all this inconsistency there is one man that is not the least interested in the fate of Brown or his companions. He is a man of the name of Ed. McGarvey, Esq., who has a shop on Second street, where he will be found at all times ready and willing to wait upon persons calling on him for anything in the Boot, Shoe or Gaiter line. Thankful for past favors he only asks that you will call on him, as he is as cheap for cash or hides as any other man in the place. November 9, 1859. FRANK SHORT.
