Resolved. That we, the delegated representatives of the Republican electors of the United States in Convention assembled, in the discharge the River, near the residence of John F. Lee, Esq., and will commence on Friday, 17th of August Preachers and people are invited to attend.-Huckstering will not be allowed. july18 E. W. KIRBY. of the duty we owe to our constituents and our country, unite in the following declarations : lst—That the history of the nation during the last four years hus established the propriety and necessity of the organization and perpetuity of the Republican party, and that the causes which called it into existence are permanent in their nature, and now more than ever before, demand its peace-ful and constitutional triumph. 2d-That the maintainance of the Federal Constitution is essential to the preservation of our republican institutions, and shall be preserved. 3d-That to the Union of the States this nation owes its unprecedented increase in population, its surprising development of material resources, its rapid augmentation of wealth, its happiness at home and its honor abroad ; and we hold in abhorrence all schemes for disunion, come from whatever source they may. And we congratulate the country that no Republican member of Congress has uttered or countenanced a threat of disunion so often made by Democratic members of Congress. without rebuke, and with applause from their political associates. And we denounce those threats of disunion in case of a popular overthrow of their ascendancy, as denying the vital principles of a free government, and as an avowal of contemplated treason, which it is the imperative duty of an indignant people strongly to rebuke and forever

4th-That the maintainance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially the rights of each State to order and control its own domestic institutions according to its own judgment exclusively, is essential to that balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of her political faith depends. And we denounce the lawless invasion by an armed force, of any State or Territory no matter under what pretext, as among the gravest of crimes.

5th-That the present Democratic Administration has so far exceeded our worst apprehensions in its measureles subserviency to the exactions of a sectional interest, as is especially evident in its desperate exertions to force the infamous Lecompton constitution upon the protesting people of Kansas-in construing the personal relation be tween master and servant to involve an unqualified property in persons-in its attempts at the enforcement, everywhere on land and ssa, through the intervention of Congress and the Federal Courts of the extreme pretensions of a purely local interest, and its general and unvarying abuse of the power entrusted to it by a confiding people. 6th-That the people justly view with alarm the reckless extravagance which prevades every department of the federal government. That a return to rigid economy and accountability is indispensable to arrest the system of plunder of the public treasury by favored partizans; while the present startling developments of fraud and cor-ruption at the Federal metropolis show that an entire change of administration is imperatively demanded. 7th-That the new dogma that the Constitution. of its own force, carries slavery into any or all of the territories of the United States. is a dangerous political heresy, at variance with the explicit provisions of that instrument itself, with its extemporaneous exposition, and with legislative and judicial precedent, is revolutionary in its tendencies and subversive of the peace and harmony of the country.

8th-That the normal condition of all the territory of the United States, is that of freedom .-That as our republican fathers, when they had abolished slavery in all our national territory ordained that no person should be deprived of life, meeting. All persons opposed to the present liberty and property, without due process of law it becomes our duty, by legislation, whenever DISTRESSING AFFAIR .- We are pained to learn that on Wednesday, August 1st, Mr. James White, an old and respected citizen of Karthaus township, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. He had gone to the barn, and there committed the rash act, but succeeded in returning to the house, where he remained several minutes before his condition was discovered. He then said to his fam ly that they should not censure him, as he had done the deed whilst laboring under great pain. He was placed in bed, and Dr. Campbell, of Snow Shoe, sent for, but the windpipe being severed, all human aid proved unavailing, and he died in the afternoon. He made a will, dividing his property equally among his heirs. Mr. White was about 60 years of age, and his family deserves the pity and sympathy of the community.

A WOMAN SHOT .-- On Saturday evening, August 4th, at about 5 o'clock, John Catheart of Knox township, shot his wife with a gun. It seems he came home under the influence of liquor, but what was the direct cause of his committing the deed does not appear clearly. He alleges that he did it accidentally. As there are a number of contradictory reports in circulation, we withhold the expression of any opinion in regard to the matter. The woman died at about 11 o'clock the same evening. Dr. Fetzer was called in and extracted the bullet before she expired. A coroner's jury was held and a verdict rendered that Mrs. Cathcart died from the effects of a gun-shot wound inflicted by her husband. Cathcart was brought to town on Monday and lodged in jail. He is a son of Archibald Cathcart. His wife was a daughter of Lyman Miles.

INDIAN BURYING GROUND .- Mr. E. H. Spencer, of Grampian Hills, writes us that whilst he was recently hunting and fishing along Curry's Run in that section of our county, after emerging from a thick growth of underbrush, he came upon a beautful piece of ground, girded on three sides by hills and on the other by the Run, the spot embracing perhaps an acre. The absence of any but tall trees, attracted his attention, and upon a close examination of the ground, he discovered numerons mounds, almost sunken to a level with the earth. The thought struck Mr. Spencer that it had been a burying place of the Indians at some remote period. With nothing but a sharp stick in his hands, he commenced digging and, soon removed the earth to the depth of about two feet, when he found inumerable small stones, of different sizes and shapes, laid in with great care. On removing these he came upon the skeleton of an Indian. He gathered from the grave the Indian's implements of war, which consisted of a stone hatchet, a quiver of arrow heads, the wood having long since decayed, and a piece of what he supposed to have been the red-man's bow.

him as a supporter of the Fugitive Slave Law, another column. and declaring that no true abolitionist can support him. In this he repeats the movement of vision of the Constitution against all attempts to violate it; and we deny the authority of Congress, of a territorial legislature, or of any individuals. to give legal existence to slavery in any territory of the United States.

9th-That we brand the recent re-opening of the African slave trade, under the cover of our national flag, aided by preversions of judicial power, as a crime against humanity, a burning shame to our country and age; and we call upon Congress to take prompt and efficient measures for the total and final suppression of that execrable traffic.

10th-That in the recent vetoes, by their governors, of the acts of the legislatures of Kansas and Nebraska, prohibiting slavery in those territories, we find a practical illustration of the boasted democratic principle of non-intervention and popular sovereignty in the Kansas and Nebroska bill, and a denunciation of the deception and fraud involved therein.

11th-That Kansas should, of right, be immediately admitted as a State under the Constitution recently formed and adopted by her people, and accepted by the House of Representatives.

12th-That while providing revenue for the support of the general government by duties upon imports, a sound policy requires such an adjustment of these imposts as to encourage the development of the industrial interests of the whole country, and we commend that policy of national exchanges which secures to the working men liberal wa ges, agriculture renumerating prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the nation commercial prosperity and independence.

13th-That we protest against any sale alienation to others, of the public lands held by actual settlers and against any view of the free homestead policy which rega. ds the settlers as paupers or suppliants for public bounty. And we demand the passage by Congress of the eimplete and satisfactory homestead measure, which has already passed the House.

14th-That the National Republican party is opposed to any change in our naturalization laws. or any State legislation by which rights of citizenship hitherto accorded to emigrants from foreign lands shall be abridged or impaired, and in favor of giving a full and efficient protection to the rights of all classes of citizens, whether native or naturalised, both at home and abroad.

15th-That appropriations by Congress for river and harbor improvements of a national character required for the accommodation and security of an existing commerce are authorized by the constitution and justified by an obligation of the government to protect the lives and property of the citi-

16th-That a railroad to the Pacific ocean is imperitively demanded by the interest of the whole country; that the Federal Government ought to render immediate and efficient aid in its construction, and that as a preliminary thereto a daily overland mail should be promptly established.

17th-Finally, having thus set forth our distinctive principles and views, we invite the co-operation of all citizens, however differing on other questions, who substantially agree with us in their affirmations and support.

The Douglas men of Dauphin county, Pa. have nominated a clean out and out Douglas local ticket, and refused to fuse with any other party in the Presidential election.

Even THOSE who are in the enjoyment of perfect health frequently need to have recourse to tonics as preventives of disease. We are never too well armored against the assaults of "the ills that flesh is heir to." Such an invigorator they may find in Hostetter's Bitters-a medicine that cannot be taken regularly without giving vitality and elasticity to the system At this season, particularly, the strongest man is not proof against the malaria, in certain sections of the country. In all cases of fever and ague, the Bitters is more potent than any amount of quinine, whilst the most dan-gerons cases of bilious fever yield to its wonderfal properties. Those who have tried the medicine will never use another, for any of the ailments which the Hostetter Bitters profess to subdue. LATEST NEWS FROM HARPER'S FERRY.-Brown, the leader of the Insurrection, found guilty of Murder and Treason in the First degree .- The above named 'insurrection' caused a great deal of gas to be let off by leading politicians and the political press of this great country, and in fact, the majority of the people of all parties, were more or less excited on reading the first account of the insurrection-some of the papers trying to make political capital out of the affair and others making light of the matter. But if it had been an Italian strike for Freedom against their lawful sovereign, led on by Mazzinni or Garibaldi, the Press of this country, with but one exception, would call meetings and pass resolutions and solicit subscriptions to aid them in their so called patriotic work ; but amidst all this neonsistency there is one man that is not the least interested in the fate of Brown or his companions. and that one is Frank Short of the Short Shoe Shop on Second street, where he will be found at all times ready and willing to wait upon persons calling on him for anything in the Boot, Shoe or Gaiter line. Thankful for past favors he only asks a continuance of the same, and will sell as cheap for each or hides as any other man in the county. November 9, 1859. FRANK SHORT.
