THE POOR MEN AND THE DEMOCRACY.

The hatred exhibited by leaders in the Democratic party is manifestly of the severest and most insulting character. Every time an occasion occurs we are put in possession of some tangible expression of their opposition to the laboring man's interests. Not only does this war on the industrial classes arise in their policies of legislation, but it reveals itself in public debate-in the action of the Democratic party whenever and wherever it has the ascendancy. In 1858 Senator Hammond, of South Carolina, insultingly denominated poor men "mud sills of human society," as if they were nothing more nor less than a species of the lowest brute creation; and, in 1860, on the floor of Congress, in this enlightened age, Mr. Wigfall declares them to be criminals, and honest poverty a crime! Right on the heels of Wigfall's declarations come more astounding assumptions from Senator Green, of Missouri,

"What is there honest in giving my property away to some poor, infamous scoundrel? Do it, if you dare. I defy you. Do it! Do it! You vote away my property to the lazaroni-to those infamous scoundrels who won't votes. You may get them, but they will spit on you."

who, in his opposition to the Homestead Bill, uses the following choice language:

This is the exalted estimation in which the Democratic party holds the poor man who is compelled, from no crime of his own, to toil from day to day, in order to procure for himself and family the necessary comforts of life. Yet, at the same time, just before elections, when it is supposed their votes and influence may be of some use toward elevating these demagogues to honorable and lucrative positions, they are patted upon the shoulders, and sycophantly adulated as "the bone and sinew of the land." There is something disgusting in the conduct of the Democratic representatives, and every poor man should exhibit his appreciation of their complimentary language, by taking away from them their legislative powers, at the ballot-box.

WHAT HIS OPPONENTS SAY OF HIM.

The nomination of Gen. John Patton, of Clearfield County, as the Republican candidate for Congress, seems to be peculiarly fortunate and judicious. He is a man against whom his bitterest political enemies can say nothing harmful, and tell the truth. Those who are acquainted with him, concede that he is a man of the highest probity and of the most unimpeachable character. The only objection that can be urged against him is that of being a firm and consistent partizan. In order that our readers may know in what estimation his opponents hold him, we append a few extracts from some of their papers. And first, the Republican, the organ of the Democracy of Clearfield county, says :-

"Personally, Gen. Patton has many fine qualities. As a citizen he is one of the most useful, liberal and hospitable, and for those reasons we hope he will be elected-to stay at organ of Jefferson county, says :-"The Republican Convention met at Ridgway, on the same day the Democracy assembled at Brookville, and nominated Gen. John Patton, of Curwensville, Clearfield county. They too, seem to have been fortunate, and have selected a gentleman of ability and honesty, and though not gifted with the fluency of speech to make him an orator, his many social qualities and charitable acts have won him hosts of friends in his own county. We have known Gen. Patton for nearly twenty years, and although differing with us in politics, we are compelled in justice to admit, that we have never heard his integrity or his private character impeached by any one.

The Eik Advocate, an independent political paper, with Democratic proclivities, says :-"The General is certainly a man well qualified for the position, and if elected there is no doubt but he would make a faithful and efficient member. We have only one objection to him, and that is he has always been a straight out party man. We can honestly say, that but few men in Clearfield county have more warm friends than Gen. Patton. We have had the pleasure of his acquaintance for some 25 years. and during that time we never knew him to be guilty of a dishonorable action. A man of wealth, he is the acknowledged friend of the poor man, and is always ready to aid those who stand in need of his assistance."

Evans R. Brady, of Jefferson county, and A. H. Benton, of McKean county, were last week nominated at Ridgway by the Democrats as their candidates for the Assembly in this DisTHE MILK IN THE COCOA-NUT.

Every day or two, remarks the Tribune of a recent da.e, the Telegraph brings us a glowing account of a "Union" Convention in this or that Free State, at which Bell-and-Everett Electors, or State candidates, are nominated, or in some Congressional District where "Union" candidate for Congress is put forward. Thus, Main, Connecticut, and Indiana have been provided with Bell Electors, or with the means of presenting such at short notice, though nobody on earth believes that Bell can possibly get a fortieth part of the vote of either of these States, and though nobody imagines that the Electors so nominated will be voted for by even the handful engaged in bringing them forward. Thus, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, &c., have been supplied with Bell candidates for Congress, who will be elected (if ever) after several droves of camels have walked, three abreast, through the eyes of a whole pack of the finest cambric needles. The object and the impetus of these nominations may be learned from the following portion of the testimony taken before the Senate Printing Investigating Committee last Winter-S. J. Megargee, a paper dealer and leading Democratic wire-puller in Philadelphia, being the unwilling witness:

Question. Did you receive any money for political purposes in Pennsylvania or New Jersey from Mr. Wendell?

A. Not all of them. Some of it was used for a third party, which was organized to divert votes from what was known as the "People's party" with us. The "People's party" was in opposition to the Democratic party. We did not know there the party organized as the "Republican party." The opposition to the Democratic party was called "the People's party ;" and to divert votes from that party, the third party was organized. The object was to divide the "People's party." Q. Was such a third party organized?

Q. Did you believe that was necessary to the success of the Democratic party?

A. We certainly did, or we should not have iven them the money. Q. What was that third party called ?

A. The "Straight American" party; the straight-outs." Q. You speak both of Pennsylvania and

New Jersey?

Q. And of these States only? A. Yes, Sir; of these only. Having duly studied the interesting testimony, if there be any members of "the work for a living, because you want their People's party" who choose to help further and Johnson, and elswhere nothing at all .this dirty game of "divide and conquer," we Owing to the total uncertainty as to their have nothing to say. All we insist is that they shall understand it-and that at all events, they shall realize that it is perfectly understood by everybody else.

THE WAY IT WAS DONE. Patrick Kerr, of Clarion County, who was prominent candidate for Congress before the DemocraticCongressionalConference atBrookville on the 8th inst., has written a letter, in which he shows how he was cheated out of the nomination. He says after he had received 124 votes to 114 for all others, a Clearfield delegate moved that no one should be declared nominated by the chairman until he had received 13 full votes, which was carried against the protest of the Clarion delegates-"thus introducing a new rule, contrary to all right and usage, for my (Mr. K's.) especial case." "Convinced that it was an unworthy artifice to operate especially against him," Mr. Kerr withdrew his name. He says of the successful candidate, "had he been present, his sense of honor would not have permitted him to participate in so transparent an artifice or to accept a nomination secured in so questionable a manner." Whether the fact that Mr. Patrick Kerr is a Catholic, had anything to do with chisseling him out of a nomination to which, as he says, he was "undeniably entitled," is not for us to say; but we should like to know what else could have induced the delegates to resort to such an extraordinary mode or butchering as was used to kill off Mr. Kerr.

HAS HE BEEN FOUND.

Considerable anxiety exists amongst the friends of Gen. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor, concerning his whereabouts since his mysterious disappearance at Cresson, and the all-absorbing question now is -Has Foster been Found? A contemporary says that Carrigan, who was sent in pursuit, has too short legs, and too round a stomach to make time. We insist that some long-legged, lank committee be sent out to scour the mountains, and bring in the General dead or alive. Every one who has read that pathetic story-"The Babes in the Woods"-will sympathize with us in our efforts to have a committee of "fast men" to hunt up the General. It we had any guaranty that like Elijah he would be fed by the ravens until after the Ides of October were past, then we would dry up our tears. But we won't be comforted while Harry Foster is up a tree, or lost in the pine swamps around Cresson, and only a fat, puffy | ticket, are coming by thousands into the Recommittee in pursuit.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

-The Detroit Tribune says fifteen Germans in one ward in that city, heretofore Democrats are now strong for Lincoln; that in Fowlersville, in that State, ten voters have recently left the Democracy, and joined the Republican party; and that thirty-six Democrats in Cheboygan county, have within a few days declared for Lincoln. It also gives the names of about a score of men in different parts of the State who have heretofore been prominent Democrats, but now support Lincoln .- In I. owa, the Democrat at Boonesboro', in Boone county, has taken down the Douglas flag, and come out for Lincoln; F. M. Atherton, a delegate to the last Democratic State Convention, is now a Lincoln man, C. Norris, of Nashua, Chickasaw county, heretofore a prominent Democrat, is now an active Republican.

-Whipple Hawkins, who was a volunteer in the war of 1812 and a resident of Buffalo at the time it was burned by the British and Indians, and since a resident of Geanga county, Ohio, and now living in Sheboygan, Wis., writes to a relative in Cleveland: "I have voted with the democratic party for forty-nine years. I have voted for every democratic candidate for President since the days of Madison. The democratic party has left me. The principles of the present so called democracy are very different from those of the old democratic party. I shall give my vote to Lincoln and Hamlin, and advise all old democrats, who have the love and welfare of their country at heart to do the same."

-Judge Wilson of Chicago, has written a letter on the duty of Americans in the present crisis. He has been a prominent member of the American party, but now says that he cannot see the least chance for either Messrs Bell or Everett, even should the election go to the House. Mr. Breckinridge, he believes, would perpetuate the corruptions of the present administration. Mr. Lincoln, on the other hand, is honest and capable. He can be Answer. I did, Sir, receive money at various charged with sectionalism with less reason than either Douglas or Breckinridge; so Judge Wilson has determined to labor for his election as an American, to the best of his ability, although he does not indorse all the doctrines of the Republican party.

> -The editor of the Camberland (Md.) Telegraph, the American organ, referring to a statement that the Opposition party of Alabama had, in convention repudiated Bell and Everett, and declared their purpose to support Breckinridge and Lane says : "We prefer Mr. Lincoln before either of the Democratic nominees, and if driven from our support of Mr. Bell by the treachery of our leading men-if our party is to be sold out to either wing of the democracy-then we are for Lincoln, with tens of thousands of others in good old Maryland."

-The Memphis Tennessee Avalanche keeps the following standing at the head of its leading column, in large letters :- "We understand that the Hon. Emerson Etheridge made a speech at Dresden, Tenn., during which be read the Black Republican platform, and asked if there was any man there who could find fault with it. He further said that the election of Lincoln on that platform would give peace to the country, whilst Breckinride's would dissolve the Union."

Breckinridge and Lane, in another Douglas | CAMBRIA COUNTY .- A woman named Clarke meaning, the people are everywhere dropping them, and adopting in their stead Lincoln and Hamlin for their battle-cry in the war against political corruption and hydra-headed wrong. In a great and momentous contest like the present, humbug is useless.

-The rank and file of the Bell and Everett party in New Jersey are indignant at the conduct of their leaders in attempting to transfer them to the supporters of Breckinridge in that State. The Monmouth Herald says: The Bell men declare openly that their votes and principles are not to be sold or traded off to as corrupt an administration as the present one in power, and that they will now give their votes and interest to the Republican cause."

-A writer in the Trenton Gazette states that Gov. Olden of New Jersey expresses himself unreservedly in favor of Lincoln and Hamlin-thus refusing the assertion that he intended to support. Bell and Everett. The writer says:-Whatever may have been his views of the Filmore party in 1856, he recognizes the Bell movement now as only a trick and device to save, if possible, the demoraliz-

-In 1856, the Republicans had but one German paper in Indiana, but now the tables are turned and the Democrats have but one, while six are doing effective service for the Republican cause. The Illinois State Journal gives a list of sixty-nine German papers in that country that have raised the Lincoln and Hamlin flag.

-The San Francisco Monitor [Catholic] has come out in favor of Douglas, making ten Democratic journals in the State that have pro-nounced in favor of the "Little Giant." The Shasta Herald, Auburn Herald, Butte Democrat, Mountain Democrat, and Sierra Citizen. are in favor of Breckinridge. They make seven on that side as far as heard from.

-The Douglas men held a meeting in Springfield, Ill., the other day, and in the course of the entertainment a new feature was introduced. About thirty barefooted men rode about the town in a wagon, displaying a banner on which was the device, "The Barefooted Democracy are for Douglas and Johnson!"

-Bennet's N. Y. Herald says: "Lincoln will be elected: not only so, but from present appearances he will walk over the course." That is the simple truth. Gentlemen who mean to quit the Union on the fourth of next March may well be settling up their business and packing their trunks.

-The Douglas party in Wilmington, Delaware, have nominated a full city ticket for Mayor, Alderman, Treasurer, and other officers. They have refused to fuse with the Breckinridge branch, although offers to do so were tendered to them. They prefer to go alone, and take the consequences. -The La Crosse [Wis,] Nord Stein, hitherto'a zealous and influential Democratic organ in the German language, has put up the names of Lincoln and Hamlin. The Germans of that State who have before voted the Democratic MONTOUR COUNTY .- The Danville "Ameriordinary snicide in that neighborhood : "We er, residing four miles from this place, on the Cattawissa road, committed suicide by hanging himself on Saturday evening last. He was addicted to the use of "Strychnine Whiskey," and had returned home with a fresh supply, remarking to his wife that there would be two deaths before night. His wife became alarmed and hid herself. After preparing a place for two executions in the barn, he searched for his wife, but being unable to find her, took his two little children, the oldest being about 5 years of age, to the barn to see him die. To one he gave his hat, and to the other his handkerchief, when he deliberately swung off. The children raised the alarm, but he was ship, Clearfield county, deceased.

His injuries were serious, but he is gradually improving.

FAYETTE COUNTY .- The Connellsville Patriot tells the following snake story: "We are told that a few days since Mr. Leonard, who lives three or four miles up the river, killed some sixty copperheads on a rock near a snake-den. He could have killed more, but was forced to leave the vicinity on account of the disagreeable odor of the serpents. Mr. Burgett, living in the same neighborhood, lost a teer from the bite of either a rattlasnake or copperhead. Mr. B. informs us that turpentine is the most effectual remedy for snake bites.
