THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL,

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., AUGUST 22, 1860.

Our farmers have been busy at oats harvesting for several days past. The yield and quality are said to be good.

Our thanks are due Wm. Irvin, Esq., of Curwensville, for a basket of apples, the largest and best we have seen the present season.

We understand that the "Wide-Awakes" of Curwensville are procuring caps, capes, &c., and will hereafter attend meetings in regular unitorm.

THIEVING, it appears, is still carried on in 10th, the smoke-house of Joseph Yothers was a broomstick. broken open and two hams and two flitches of bacon, valued at from $10 to $15, stolen therefrom.

THE WEATHER continues very warm here during the day-time ; the nights, however, are cool. On Monday night we had a heavy rain, which has imparted new vigor to the corn, and was much needed by the buckwheat, which is not as thrifty as desirable. Yesterday afternoon we had another very fine rain.

Pic-Nic .-. The citizens of Mt. Joy, in connection with Miss Wallace's school, had an interesting pic-nic a few days since, in a grove near the school-house. The account of the proceedings was handed to us yesterday evening at so late an hour that it was out of the question to put it in type and make room for it in our columns this week.

POLE RAISING AT PHILIPSBURG .- Last Saturday the friends of Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin raised a fine pole at the house of John S. Radebach in the neighboring borough of Philipsburg. A meeting was afterwards held in the beautiful grove east of town, which was well attended, and at which Leonard G. Kesslar acted as President ; John Twiggs, William Meyers, A. K. Nelson, and Isaac Goss as Vice Presidents; and D. C. Nelson and J. B. Runk as Secretaries. A series of resolutions, endorsing the nominations of Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin, were adopted, after which the meeting was addressed by Maj. James S. Brisbin and Col. W. W. Brown, of Bellefonte, who defined the position and principles of the Republican party in a clear and masterly manner. In the evening, another meeting was held, which was also addressed by Col. Brown. The Curwensville Brass Band was present, and enlivened the proceedings in their usual creditable manner. Take it all in all, the meetspirit and energy to our friends in and around 28 ! She can pass.

At Vincentown, New-Jersey, George Aiken was shot and instantly killed by John A. Conover. It is alleged that Aiken had perpetrated an outrage upon the person of Conover's wife, and was forbid to come to the house. Conover in the meantime had got a warrant for the arrest of Aiken, and placed it in the hands of the constable. When Aiken heard of it he threatened to kill Conover if he did not withdraw the warrant. He went to Conover's house, when the latter shot him through the neck, killing him instantly. Conover gave himself up to the authorities, and was lodged in Mount Holly jail.

As to "Oil of Cognac" (which is a composition of sulphuric acid, caustic potash, and highly concentrated alcohol), one ounce of it is worth six dollars, and will metamorphose a hundred gallons of neutral spirits into "Pure old Cognac Brandy, just out of the Custom House.'

FOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or Bilious complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producingCramps, Dysentary, Cholic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhea, dysentery or flux, so generally con tracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspep sia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bit-ters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE .- This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the ase of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTER'S. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healty digestion, and the complaint is removed as specially as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure. For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled consitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostet. ter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before : o doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Stomach Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness. Caution .- We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallie cap covering the cork
