Every household has its pet names. Mr. Jones enchants his helpmate by calling her "idol." Jones, however, privately spells it "i-d-l-e."

"Mike, what kind of potatoees are those you are planting?" "Raw ones to be sure. Be the houly poker! au' does yer honor think 1 would be afther plantin' biled ones?

In one of the lowest parts of the city of Philadelphia, the census marshal recently found 60 grog shops in one square, and 42 persons, blacks and whites, living in a single cellar.

"What is the meaning of backbiter ?" asked a parson at a Sunday school examination. This was a stumper. It went down the class until it came to a simple little urchin, who said : "P'raps it was a flea."

An early Texan Judge gave as a reason for ordering a man to be hanged the same day he was sentenced, that the jail was very unsafe, and so very uncomfortable that he did not think any man ought to be kept longer than was necessary.

A VETERAN MOWER .- Mr. Nathanial Knight of Falmouth, Maine, is now eighty-nine years of age, in good health, and has this season mowed hay upon the same field where he had swung the scythe seventy-eight summers before. A veteran farmer, truly.

Dr. Adam Clark, who had a strong aversion to pork, was called upon to say grace at a dinner, where the principal dish was roast pig. He is reported to have said: "O Lord, if thou canst bless under the gospel what thou didst curse under the law, bless this pig !"

A very pretty present has been forwarded to Miss Nightingale by a grateful officer, who recovered under her kind treatment whilst in the Crimea. It consists of a small repeating | John Irvin, James Brown, Wm. Ten Eyck. watch in a ring, the cylinder of which is made of an oriental ruby. Its diameter is the fiftyfourth part of an inch, its length the tortyseventh, and its weight the two-hundreth part of a grain.

SAD AFFLICTION .- The family of the Rev Josiah W. Brown, of Manchester, Vermont, have experienced a most sad and crushing sorrow. Five interesting and lovely children as ever graced a household, and all they had, have fallen victims to that new and terrible scourge (diphtheria,) which is raging in many localities, and all within the short space of thirty-two days.

Mr. Hollister, of Monterey, California, commenced sheep raising in 1855 with a flock of ers, Benj. Gunsaulus, Chas. Houck. 800 animals, which constituted all his wealth. He is now the owner of 30,000 acres of land and 11,000 sheep, all of which have been the legitimate product of the original band of 800 that he started with. Mr. Hollister says that he never has failed to secure an increase of 100 per cent. every year.

The latest Paris fashions tell us that dresses are again universally trimmed with flounces, as better suited than anything else to the light material used at this season. These, however, ten ornamented with ruches of narrow ribbon, or a small rolan of silk cut out and laid at the end of each flounce. The sleeves are worn open, and the body is frequently made low, with a pelerine or fichu over it.

A SISTER OF CHARITY LEADING AN ARMY .-A Palermo correspondent of an English paper gives the following anecdote of a sister of Charity :- "A young patriot, named Francisco Riso, was killed on April 4th, during a pop- tisers. ular demonstration which took place before Garabaldi's arrival. On April 20, his father, Giovanni Riso, sixty years old, was shot by the Bourboun soldies, without so much as the form of a trial. On the very day that Garabaldi entered Palermo a young and beautiful nun, Ignacia Riso, the sister and daughter of the above named Risos, left the convent | Prothonotary, John L. Cuttle, and amidst a shower of balls and grapeshot, a cross in one hand and a poignard in the other, placed herself at the head of Garabaldi's column's, crying, 'Down with the Bourbons !-Death to the tyrant! Vengeance!' She kept her place as long as the fighting lasted, and her courageous attitude electrified the volunteers. Ever since thet day the name of Ignacio Riso has been held sacred. When she passes in the street the soldiers bow low and bless her with the most profound respect .-Garabaldi himself pays her great attention and loves her as if she were his own daughter.'

BLONDIN HAS BEEN OUTDONE .- By as much as impulse can outdo calculation; by as much as heroism can exceed thrift; by as much as love is better than praise, has he been surpass ed. The extraordinary feat of John Stickell. a carpenter, reported in the Buffalo Republic deserves a higher mention than a mere news. paper paragraph. He was upon a mill, the main body of which being of brick, awaited the rafters, or upper timbers. A rope had been stretched across the top, from wall to wall at one end of which stood Stickell, and young man in his employ at the other, while beneath both was a cog-pit sixty-two feet deep. The young man lost his footing and fell; but although he caught the rope, was unable to raise up. John Stickell-he can do without a title-instantly ran across the chasm on the rope-not stretched and secured like Blondin's-and snatched the poor fellow from impending fate. We are not informed that the doer of this splendid act had ever trod a rope before. We suppose it to be one of those sublime impulses which outstrips and supersedes with a varied meaning, "Instinct is a great matter," and turns from the stageking to the structure prince."

A complete, out and out, stock of structure prince."

A structure prince." NEW AND SEASONABLE GOODS, "true prince." As the gladiator to Garabaldi so is Blondin to the carpouter.
