

Raftsmen's Journal.

S. B. ROW, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. CLEARFIELD, PA., SEPT. 26, 1860.

FOR PRESIDENT, HON. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, HON. HANNIBAL HAMLIN, OF MAINE.

OUR PROSPECTS. From all parts of our Congressional District we are receiving the most encouraging news.

THE "STRAIT TICKET." The Clearfield Republican, the Breckinridge organ in this place, doesn't seem to like the "Strait" Douglas Ticket, on which appears the name of Hon. James T. Leonard of this county.

AMOS KENDALL ON DISUNION.—The New York Times publishes a letter from Amos Kendall to James L. Orr, of S. Carolina, on the subject of disunion.

A WOMAN TARRIED AND FEATHERED.—A few nights since, at Romulus, near Detroit, a woman named Jane Longly, the housekeeper of Jeremiah Ganung, and the mother of three of his children, was roughly handled by a large party of neighbors.

ANTI-FUSION MEN FOR FUSION.—In Pennsylvania Mr. Douglas spoke against fusion and in New York for it. His friends in this State have been talking and writing for months against fusion.

A county court judge in England of very large experience among the people of a poor district, says: "I have frequently remarked in my court, that I wish I could impress upon all persons the opinion which I entertain, that the greatest contribution to the morals of the population which could be made would be a knowledge of figures."

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for October has been received, and contains a beautiful steel engraving entitled "From our own correspondent," with the usual beautiful fashion plates, patterns, designs, &c.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY for October is on our table. This publication is among the best to the country and deserves a liberal patronage.

MONEY! MONEY!! The N. Y. Tribune of a late date says:—"We learn that a meeting of gentlemen opposed to the election of Abraham Lincoln to the Presidency of the United States, most if not all of them being Breckinridge Democrats, was held at room No. 1, of the New York Hotel, on Tuesday evening last, the 11th inst., at half-past 7 o'clock."

We have reason to suspect that some of this money is being used in Clearfield County, and weak every high-minded and honest man to scan closely the movements of the Breckinridge politicians and see whether they cannot discover enough to satisfy themselves of the fact.

GEN. PATTON. From the Warren Mail of the 15th Sept. Our candidate for Congress, Gen. John Patton, arrived here last Monday evening.

SAMUEL M. LAWRENCE. SAMUEL M. LAWRENCE, Esq., one of our candidates for the House of Representatives, has been, for the last few days, making hosts of friends in this county.

A GOOD ONE.—James K. Kerr, the Democratic candidate for Congress, in his speech at New Washington told the Republicans had a singular way of constructing their platform.

SAMUEL M. LAWRENCE.—This gentleman is well and familiarly known in this vicinity as a candidate for the Legislature in the McKean district.

CONTEMPT FOR POOR MEN.—It seems natural enough for a Democrat to hate a poor man. Wigfall thinks him a criminal; Hammond calls him a mudsill; Green denounces him as one of the lazzaroni; Johnson thinks he ought to be a slave; and Delusion Smith, of Oregon, Joseph Lane's late partner in the United States Senate, in a late public speech in Oregon City, said:

DEMOCRACY TRIUMPHS IN PENNSYLVANIA. The Buchanan Democracy are endeavoring in regard to Pennsylvania, to repeat the old game of 1856. A meeting was held in New York last Saturday, at which were assembled some wealthy Democrats, and one hundred thousand dollars were contributed to carry the State election in Pennsylvania next month.

At a Bell and Everett meeting, on Thursday last, in Burlington, N. J., the names of Bell and Everett were not once spoken. A Democratic meeting adjourned, and nearly or quite all of its attendants marched in procession to the hall to swell the number of the Bellites.

LETTER FROM BRADY. LUTHERSBURG, Sept. 18, 1860. Mr. Row.—Whilst the people of this town were looking for the speakers of the untried Democracy, they were somewhat astonished by the appearance of Maj. Brady's horse, which came in with an empty buggy, all safe, the gallant Major and "Squire Test having been spilled out in the consequence of running their buggy on the one ahead of them.

ANOTHER "IRISH WEDDING." A High Old Time Generally. Yesterday was an eventful period in the history of the Democracy of Clearfield. After "bidding and cooing" and making extensive preparations for the past two or three weeks, the two wings of the party were to be united last evening on everything but the Presidential question, which was not to be touched until after the October election.

The Republicans of Newport, Ky., erected a liberty pole, and their opponents got up a mob on Monday night, and cut the harmless stick down. There are, it is stated, three hundred Republicans in the town—this will no doubt increase the number handsomely, if the mechanics of Newport have the spirit of such men elsewhere.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Advertisements set up with large type or out of usual style will be charged double price for space occupied.

A farm of ninety-six acres, lying in said township about 3 miles from Pennville, adjoining lands of Wm. F. Johnson, Joseph Davis, Thomas Wain and others; the improvements are a two-story frame house, nearly new, with cellar and kitchen and excellent foundation of running water at the door, a large orchard, and about sixty acres cleared and under good fence; the balance well timbered.

EAST, WEST, NORTH, AND SOUTH, the people are notified of a Fresh Arrival of Goods, AT THE CHEAP CASH STORE.

NEW BREWERY.—MORE LAGER.—The subscribers would respectfully inform the Tavern keepers and others that they have recently started a new Brewery in the Borough of Clearfield, and they are now prepared to furnish Beer on the most accommodating terms.

Col. Philip S. White, at a meeting in Philadelphia on Friday, told the following anecdote as a reply to the notion that Southern men would refuse to take office under a Republican Administration:—"A friend of Mr. Lincoln said, 'I fear you will be greatly troubled with the South.' 'Yes,' replied Mr. Lincoln, 'I fear I shall.' 'Of course,' said his friend, 'you recollect their opposition to you.' 'Why,' replied Mr. Lincoln, 'look at this pile of letters before me. I shall have trouble. They are all from the South, and are applications for office, in case I should be elected.'"

The Baltimore Patriot is informed that Mr. Buchanan is thoroughly satisfied as to the issue of the Presidential election. He looks on the question as settled, beyond the possibility of alteration. It only awaits, he says, the formal decision of the ballot-box, and that, he thinks, will be in favor of Lincoln.

The Amherst Express says a laboring man in that town has a sore upon his foot from which a worm is protruding. It has already projected twelve inches. A few years since he had one taken from one of his limbs twenty-seven feet long.

WE see it stated that the promised discussion between Messrs. Foster and Curtin is not to take place, because Gen. Foster's friends insisted it should be confined to State affairs, and that national questions should be ignored.

THE CAR IN TOWN!—Everybody who wants a good Ambrotype, Daguerotype, Melanotype or any other kind of Likeness, should at once call at Charley Hole's, at the Clearfield House, in Clearfield Borough, where they can get them taken at prices ranging from 25 cents to $5.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able to regulate the system as to its normal action, and thereby accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life.

FEVER AND AGUE.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and morally useless, cannot be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the stomach, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, and the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

By Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only to be tried to be appreciated. And to a motherly nursing woman, these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and before doing so, should ask their physician, who if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Stomach Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

Caution.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label. Prepared and sold by Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburg, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany. Agents—Geo. W. Rheun and O. D. Wats, a Clearfield; John Patton, Carversville; D. Tyler, Harton; F. K. Arnold, Luthersburg.
