THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

H. D. Foster was in Greensburg a few days since, when his friends assembled in torchlight procession, to welcome him home. But he was non est. He ran away, fearful to stand in the blazing light of their torches, as he shrinks from the effulgent blaze and power of the truth. He avoids interrogation, and then invites the people to admire him for his inde-pendence. He conceals himself from the examination and scrutiny of honest men, and then asks bonest voters to elevate him to a position of honor and trust. These are the plans Foster and his friends have arranged for the successful prosecution of the campaign-and these, when compounded and sugared, are what the fusion press call "Democracy !"

DOUBTFUL COMPLIMENT.—An action was brought in Bristol County Court a few weeks ago to recover the value of two casks of herrings, supplied in 1854, and on the Judge asking the reason of the unusual delay, the plain-tiff said he had lost sight of the defendant for some time, and when he did find him he could get no settlement. He repeatedly asked defendant for payment, and the latter at length told him to "go to the devil," upon which he Best Bull calf, said, "I thought it was high time to come to All breeds con said, "I thought it was high time to come to your honor:" a remark which was received pete with each other. To be judged, 1st, by their become an annual gathering of infamy and depravity. The Archbishop of Dublin order-ed his people to stay away from the Fair, and the authorities took efficient measures to keep the crowd from the Fair grounds. There was some opposition, but it did no good, and Donnybrook is no more.

THE END OF DONNYBROOK FAIR.—The fa-mous Donnybrook Fair, which, for a long time, was held at Donnybrook, near Dublin, where the Irishman dragged his coat tail on the ground and challenged the other fellow to the stock of aged bulls and cows. The an-imal that possesses these qualities in the gratest perfection should draw the Sweepstakes, whether it has at last been abalished. It had step on it, has at last been abolished. It had it be Durham, Ayreshire, Hereford, Devon, Grade
