The furrow slice in all cases to be laybe had by all. The ground is enclosed by a ed. The teams to start at the same time and substantial board fence, 8 feet high, and suita- each plowman to do his work without a driver ble buildings will be erected for the protection of all articles on exhibition. Premiums and diplomas will be paid on and after the first Wednesday of November and until the 1st day of January, 1861, after which time all money premiums unclaimed will be considered a donation to the Society. The officers of the Society and members of the Committee of arrangements will wear a badge designating their office, and it will be their duty as well as pleasure to attend to the ex- two back furrowed lands, and finish with the pressed wishes and wants of exhibitors and others, it it is in their power so to do. A select police force will be in constant attendance for the preservation of order and protection of property.

The trotting course is level, well graded, and one-third of a mile in circuit. Ample arrangements will be made for the convenience of spectators.

Rules of Admission .-- Members with wives, and children under sixteen years of age, if dues are paid up, to be admitted free; single tickets, 20 cents; 6 tickets for $1; family tickets for the Fair $1-children under ten years of age not admitted unless accompanied by their parents or guardians. Every person wishing to be enrolled as a member of this Society must apply on or before the first day of the fair, and on the payment of one dollar to the Treasurer shall receive a certificate of membership containing the name of the applicant and endorsed by the

Every person becoming a member as above shall on the presentation of his certificate, receive a ticket which will admit him tree during the fair. Any person complying with the above regulations and paying $10, shall become a life member and shall be exempt from all contributions and shall annually receive from the Secretary a free family ticket.

All persons must be provided with tickets which can be had from the Executive Committee, Treasurer or Secretary or at the door. Persons acting as judges are expected to become members of the Society. Persons from other counties can become members by complying with the above rules. Ladies can become members by making application as above and paying into the Treasury fifty cents when they will receive a ticket to admit them free.

Exhibition of ladys and gentlemen's horsemanship will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday evening at 3 o'clock, fast riding will not be alowed; those violating this rule will be excluded from competition. Plowing match will take place on Tuesday at 10 o'clock A. M. The address will be delivered at 2 o'clock on Thursday the 18th Oct. and immediately after the address the reports of the judges will be read and the premiums awarded.

No horse shall be entered or allowed a promium unless he is tree from disease. Horses will be received until Wednesday noon, but must be entered previously. All persons who intend to exhibit horses, cattle, sheep or swine, or who intend to offer stock or any other article for sale, should notify the Secretary of such intention on or before the loth of Oct. and have with him a list and full description of the same. Persons intending to exhibit blood stock must produce authentic pedigrees, and are earnestly requested to furnish the Secretary, by the 10 Oct., with a list of their stock and the pedigrees of each, this will facilitate the preparations of entries and in case of deficient pedigrees will afford the owner time to correct the same. Instruction to Judges .- No animal to receive an award in more than one class.

Judges are expressly required not to award premiums to over fed animals. No premiums are to be awarded to bulls, cows or heilers which shall appear to have been fattened, only in the class of fat cattle, the object of the society being to have superior animals of this description for breeding.

No person shall be allowed to interfere with judges during their adjudications. The judges if not satisfied as to the regularities of entries, in their respective classes, will apply to the Secretary for information, and should there be any doubts after examination of their coming within the regulations, or if any animal is of such a character as not to be entitled to exhibition in competition, they will report to the Executive committee, that such a course may be adopted as the case may require.

Fat Cattle.-The judges on fat cattle will give particular attention to the animals sub. mitted for examination. It is believed all other things being equal those are the best cattle that have the greatest weight over the smallest superficies. The judges will require all in this class to be weighed, and will take measures to give the superficies of each, and publish the result with their reports. They will also, before awarding any premiums, to quire of the competitors full statements as to the manner and cost of feeding as required by the regulations of the premium list. When there is but one exhibitor, although he may show several animals in one class only one premium will be awarded, that to the first, or otherwise as the merits of the animal may Discretionary Premiums .- No viewing committee shall award any discretionary premiums. When, however, articles of merit, superior in their character, are presented, and which are entitled to special commendations, the judges are desired to notice them particelarly and refer them to the consideration of the Executive committee at a subsequent meeting.

The superintendant will take every precaution in his power, for the safety of stock and articles on exhibition after their arrival, and arrangement on the grounds, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. The society desires exhibitors to give personal attention to their animals and articles and at the close of the fair to attend to their removal as the society cannot take further care of them.

Rules of Plowing .- The name of the plow man must be given as well as the kind of plow to be used, at the time of entry.

The quantity of ground to be plowed by each team to be 1 acre. The time allowed to do the work will be two hours. The width of farrow to be ten or other assistance.

The premiums offered by the Society will be awarded, to the individuals, who, in the judgment of the committee, shall do their work in the best manner, providing the work is done in the time alowed for its performance.

Each plowman to strike his own land, and plow entirely independant of the adjoining land. Within the one-fourth of an acre plowed, each plowman will be required to strike dead furrow in the middle. Any information desired in regard to matters of the Society can be gained by addressing the Executive Committee or the Secretary who will be pleased to give any information in their power at any time.
