THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., OCTOBER 10, 1860.

WM. RISHEL, of Brady township, sent us one day last week some apples of a very superior quality. He will please accept our thanks.

E. A. IRVIN has just received at the Corner Store, in Curwensville, a large and splendid stock of Seasonable Goods, which he offers to customers at the lowest rates. See advertisements.

C. KRATZER & Sons are opening their Fall stock of Goods at their store in Clearfield, and will dispose of them on advantageous We direct attention to their adverterms. tisement.

THE WEATHER has been rather variable in this region during the past week or two. There have been some heavy frosts, cold nights generally, and several copious showers of rain. The cold winds and changing hues of the forest leaves admonish us that the autumn is rapidly passing away.

Accident.-On Tuesday the 20th inst., whilst a young man named Kline, and another named Wm. Dale, were hewing timber, in Morris township, the axe flew out of Kline's hand, and striking Dale in the side, cut a gash about 3 inches in length across his ribs. The wound is a severe but not a dangerous one. It was dressed by Dr. Campbell of Kylertown, and the patient is rapidly improving.

ACCIDENT .- A serious accident happened to two of the children of Wilson Hoover, of Lawrance township, on last Thursday. Mr. Hoover was engaged hauling boards from the Ringgold mill to the mouth of Clearfield creek. The young woman and boy got on the wagon to ride home ; but in coming down the road, the load slipped against the horses and caused them to run away. The wagon was upset, and the load falling on the boy and girl. the former had one of his legs factured, and was otherwise injured, and the latter, though having no limbe broken, sustained severe injuries also. Both, we understand, are improving.
