ELLIS IRWIN, Pres't. D. F. Etzweiler, Sec. Oct. 26, 1860. Extract from the journal of the Society. Meeting of the Executive Committee held on Saturday, Oct. 20., 1860. Resolved, That ladies making application to dollars, shall be constituted Life members of the Society, and shall be exonerated from all annual payments thereafter. Resolved, That the thanks of the "Clearfield County Agricultural Society" are most cordially tendered to Mr. John McGaughey, a member of the Executive committee, for his untiring industry in preparing and fitting up the ground, and for his indefatigable exertions and gentlemanly deportment towards visitors and exhibitors on the grounds during the Fair. Resolved, That the Society hereby present their grateful acknowledgments to Maj. David F. Etzweiler, our very efficient and worthy Secretary, for his efforts in behalf of the Society, and for the very satisfactory manner in which he discharged all of his duties.

And now, in closing up this report, I take the liberty of adding my hearty congratulations to the members of the Society, and the citizens of Clearfield county generally, on the full and complete success of our society and fair, and my sincere thanks are due to every officer of the society, for their indefatigable and untiring exertions to perform all their several duties, to which is to be attributed the good order which prevailed throughout.

ELLIS IRWIN, Pres't of Clearfield Co. Ag. Society.

ARREST OF ONE OF THE CLARION MURDERERS. Our readers will probably recollect that in the beginning of September Mr. Jared Lewis. whilst attempting to arrest two men named Logue and Davis, was shot and died in a few minutes after. About four weeks since, whilst at the "Stone House" in Butler County, officer Hague of Pittsburgh ascertained that Davis and Logue were the seme parties who had recently stolen two horses in that county. flague proceeded to Ashtabula county, Ohio, where Logue had a brother-in-law residing. Here he learned that Davis, whose real name it seems is Shotwell, and Charles Logue, had left for Marshall in Michigan, where Shotwell's father is living. Hague, after returning home, again went to Michigan, and accompanied by officer McKinstry of Cleveland and Deputy U. S. Marshal Moore of Detroit, who knew Shotwell, they went to Rolling Prairie, where they found that the Shotwell family had secretly moved to a place about 31 miles distant. It is said that an effort is being made to induce Judge Taney to resign his place as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, that Mr. Buchanan may appoint his successor. The trouble is the old man can hardly live through Lincoln's administration-and it would be supremely awful for Lincoln to have such an appointment to make.

A Bell and Everett parient down in Connecticut introduced his son to one of the lights and leaders of the Union party, with the apology-"I am sorry to say, though, that he is a Black Republican." The son promptly replied, "If you wanted me to train in your company, father, you ought not to have sent me to the free schools." Young America rather had him there.

THE DISUNION HUMBUG .- A dispatch from Waahington City, dated Oct. 26th, says :-Judge Meek, the bosom friend of Mr. Yancy, and Speaker of the Alabama House of Representatives, has been here a few days, and declares there will be no disruption of the Union in case of Mr. Lincoln's election. He also says the charge that Mr. Douglas framed the Lecompton Constitution, as it was submitted to the people of Kansas, and the assertion that any anti-Douglas man was offered the Vice-Presidential nomination on the Douglas ticket, are both too silly for anybody to believe.

A LITTLE GIRL FIGHTING A BEAR .- The following circumstance is said to have occurred with whom Shotwell was working, he gave in the town of Forest, in Badax county, Wisconsin. Two children, aged nine and eleven, ed to the field and passing themselves off as where digging ginseng, and came in contact neighbors gunning, arrested Shotwell without with a bear of large size, which seized the difficulty. If is a common observation that there are more sufferers from debility, among Americans, than can be found among any other civilized nation. The reason is obvious. We take too little exercise, and forget the wants of the body in the absorbing pursuits of business. In all such cases, ordinary medicines can do but little good. What is required is just such a tonic and invigorator as Dr. J. Hostetter has given to the world, in his Celebrated Bitters.' The weak and nervous denizen of the counting house, the exhausted toiler upon the shop board, and the prostrated student of the midnight lamp, have found a wonderful regenerator in the 'Bitters,' and prefer it to more pretentious, but less efficacious medicines. But it should not cant air—and rich men often fling theirs upon be forgotten that the agent which is so magical in its influence upon a frame which is merely debilitated, is equally powerful in assisting nature to expel the mo t terrible forms of disease. In Lawrence tp., on Oct. 29th, CHARLES ED. WARD M'MULLIN, son of N. K. and Hannah M'-Mullin, aged 4 years, 11 months and 19 days. The deceased, was an active and intelligent boy, whose life gave promise of comfort and satisfaction to his parents. His sufferings, though of short duration, were very severe. Death came to him in the form of dropsy in the chest so insiduously and with such violence that it baffled all medical skill. He was conscious until the last; and spoke of hearing beautiful and heavenly sounds. Parents need not lament for one they know has gone to a better land above. The poet has beautifully said:

"It must be sweet, in childhood, to give back The spirit to its Maker, ere the heart Has grown familiar with the paths of sin."
