NEW STOCK .- Reed, Weaver & Co. are now receiving and opening their second stock of Sessonable Goods, in great variety, and specially designed to meet the wants of this community, which they offer to purchasers on advantageous terms.

STRANGE AFFAIR .- On the 3rd of October last, a man giving his name as Taylor, and representing himself as a resident of Lexington, Kentucky, came to the public house of Daniel Moore, Esq., in Karthaus township, this county, with a horse and buggy. The horse had the 'blind staggers,' and the man proposed to trade him off. He seemed to be very restive, and, his horse being unfit to travel further, he persuaded Mr. Moore to take him to Sinmemahoning, agreeing to pay a fixed sum to him for keeping and taking care of the horse. Seven weeks have now elapsed since the horse and buggy were left, and no demand has yet been made for them. Suspicions are entertained that they are stolen property, and Mr. Moore has taken legal counsel how to proceed with their disposal.

COURT PROCEEDINGS .- At the adj'd Court held last week the following causes were tried:

Lewis I. Bloom vs. Patrick Dolan .- Assumpsit for an alleged guaranty of a judgment of $115 against George Seabright, which defendent assigned to plaintiff for a year of exen.

Defendant denied the making of an apparanty to render himself liable. Verdict for def't. W. A. Wallace for pltff; M'Enally for deft.

John J. Weaver vs. Adam Knarr .- Appeal from a Justice of the Peace. Plaintiff claimed for timber sold to def't., about $56 Def't alleged that plaintiff had not performed his part of the contract in such manner as to entitle him to recover. Verdict for defendant. Swoope for plt'ff; W. A. Wallace for deft.

Isaac Swales vs. G. D. Goodfellow .- Assumpsit for money due on dealings or acc'ts between the parties. Judgment confessed for $252.64. Swoope for plt'ff; W. A. Wallace for deft.

Jonathan Walnes. Richard Danvers .- Appeal from a Justice of the Peace. Plaintiff claimed about $25 on Book account, for hauling, work, &c. Defendant alleged that plaintiff's claim should be against his son, Richard Dauvers, jr., and not against himself. Verdict for Plaintiff for $24.98. Swoope for pliff; W. A. Wallace and T. J. M'Cullough for def't.

James M. Leonard vs. M. & J. Denning .- Ejectment. Plaintiff takes a non suit. Crans for plaintiff; Swoope for defendant.

A number of matters on the argument list were also disposed of.

The principle matter on the criminal list was the case of Com'th. vs. Cathcart, wherein the motion for a new trial and in arrest of judgment was overruled, and sentence of death passed on the defendant. The proceedings of this case are published in full on the first page of to-dsy's paper.

MR. EDITOR :- Having finished my labors as Assistant Marshal of Clearfield County, and the election being over, I avail myself of the present opportunity of redeeming my promise of sending you such statistics of the county as may interest your readers. But before doing so, allow me to say that in taking the census I met everywhere with the utmost kindness and cordiality. Not a single instance of difficulty occurred, but each seemed to vie with the other in giving correctly and precisely the answers required, and in showing the greatest hospitality possible, for which they have my B. THE DROUTH IN KANSAS .- There has been an unprecedented drouth in Kansas the past summer, causing almost a total failure of crops, running up prices for flour and provisions to received from Mr. Robert E. Watson, formerly of Clearfield county, now a resident of Irponding Secretary of the Colony there, an apheal for such aid as will enable them to carry forward their church and school buildings, from falling upon those who have invested their all in that region. The Colony appeal for help in this wise :- For every $10 sent them, they will give to the pastor or person sending it, if not otherwise directed, a town lot in Irving; for every $50, an out-lot of five acres; for every $100, a forty acre tract within two miles of Irving; for every $150, eighty acres within three miles of Irving. In lieu of the foregoing, if preferred, the Colony's note will be given for the sum sent, payable in two years, at 7 per cent. interest. The Colony proposes to use the money thus raised in the erection of churches, school buildings and other improvements, or those sending it may direct how they wish it to be appropri-
