

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.

In order to give our hands a little rest, we will print no Journal next week. In the five years that we have conducted the paper, we have so rarely missed issuing that we feel confident our patrons during the holidays from the taking a respite during the holidays from the ceaseless labor to which printers are subjected. Any omissions of this kind are made up at the end of the volume.

Our Carrier requests us to say that he will on next Tuesday call on those whom he visits weekly, with a New-Year's Address, for which he expects them to keep some of their extra change in readiness.

Dr. A. M. HILLS notifies his friends that he will be absent from his office in Clearfield, from now until the last of February, with the exception of the January court, during which he will be at home.

GOOD APPLES.—Our friend Isaac Goss, of Woodward township, has our thanks for a present of half a bushel of apples, which for flavor and beauty will compare with any that we have yet seen in this county.

AGRICULTURAL.—The annual meeting of the Clearfield County Agricultural Society will be held at the Methodist church in the Borough of Clearfield, on Wednesday evening, January 16th, 1861. The election of officers will then take place, and other business of importance will be transacted. Let all attend who feel an interest in the success of the society.

FAST DAY.—The 4th January, Friday, is the day recommended by the President of the United States to be observed as a day of Fasting and Prayer, for the reasons set forth in his proclamation. We, the undersigned, Pastors of the several congregations in the Borough of Clearfield and neighboring charges, unite in exhorting the people, one and all, to suspend their ordinary business—close their stores and offices, public and private, the banks and other business resorts, so as to attend public worship in the churches where they are accustomed to go. The call upon Ministers and people is extraordinary. The Government and nation are fully alarmed—the public danger is great and imminent. In this crisis, to whom shall we go? Where turn our anxious eyes, but to God? "Seek ye his face—thy face, Lord will we seek."

THE SEQUEL TO THAT STRANGE AFFAIR.—We have received a letter from Daniel Moore, Esq., in which he states that on the evening of the 11th instant, Mr. Edward Sexton, of Washington county, Pa., came to his house, and identified the horse and buggy, which had been left there on the 3rd of October, as belonging to him. He presented a hand-bill, dated Oct. 4th, setting forth that, on the 28th of September, a man answering the description of that "intelligent" and "gentlemanly" stranger, calling himself William Stevens, had hired a horse and buggy to go to Pittsburg; that he did not return them at the time specified; and offering fifty dollars reward for the property and thief, or $25 for the horse and buggy alone. Mr. Wm. Steep, of the Washington Review accompanied Mr. Sexton. The reward of $25 was paid to Dr. Lock, of Lewistown, who had come to Karthaus on a hunting excursion during the fall, and having stopped with Mr. Moore, saw the horse, and was made acquainted with the circumstance, and on his return home, seeing one of Mr. Sexton's hand-bills, informed the latter of the whereabouts of his property. Sexton paid Mr. Moore his bill for keeping the horse with the exception of a balance of $16, for which he gave his note. Mr. Moore thinks it "strange," indeed, that such a "perfect gentleman" as "A." of Saltick described the stranger to be, "should so far forget himself as to steal," and that others should attempt to cast reflections upon him for seeking to deal out justice to him, and be "so willing to espouse the cause of a stranger."

WE find in the Washington Review of the 20th, an account of the whole affair, corroborating the above, and expressing the opinion that "Mr. Stevens will not be likely to call for the horse and buggy soon."

MARRIED: On the 25th Dec., by Rev. J. T. Cole, Mr. MICHAEL S. BORTON to Miss HANNAH A. CARNS, both of Lawrence township.

A very nice dollar accompanied the above notice—a fact which convinces us that the fair bride has secured a husband on whom she can at all times rely. We hope the happy couple will have a prosperous journey through life, and a bright and blissful future.

On Wednesday the 19th Dec., of diphtheria terminating in croup, ALLEN BARNHART, son of Isaac and Matilda B. Thompson, of Lawrence tp., aged 2 years, 9 months and 21 days.

On Thursday the 15th Dec., of diphtheria terminating in croup, Nancy ELLY, daughter of Baltzer and Catharine Dranker, of Pike township, aged 3 years, 7 months and 18 days.

On Dec. 23rd, 1860, Mrs. SARAH, wife of Wm. Hoover in Bradford township, Mr. ABRAHAM G. KEPPART, of Decatur township, in the 25th year of his age.

On the 11th Dec., of typhoid fever, HANNAH, wife of John Dillon, of Beccaria township, in advanced age.

CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS.

Over—Christmas. Coming—New Year's day. Rough—the sleighing in this region. Not much needed—the ordinance requiring the removal of the snow from the pavements. Discovered—that where a lot of boards are fed on sawdust exclusively, for some time, they begin to growl.

Why is South Carolina like a little boy in distress in one of our public schools? Because she "wants to go out."

"You want nothing, do you?" said Pat. "Bedad, an' ef it's nothing you want, ye'll find it in the jug where the whiskey was."

Asserted—by Napoleon Bonaparte, that "four hostile newspapers were more to be feared than a hundred thousand bayonets."

Amusing—the dog fight on Christmas day. Couldn't tell whether the dogs or the "son of Erin" were down most frequent.

Comprise—the thirty-three Governors of the United States, 16 Democrats, 16 Republicans, and one American—Hicks of Maryland.

Improving—the chap, who, slipping on the ice, fell on the top of his "head" and hurt his "knee." That chap's "knees" must be in a queer locality.

Being asked—a lady, the place of her nativity, replied, "I am so unfortunate as to have no native place; I was the daughter of a Methodist clergyman."

"My good woman, have you got the gospel here?" said a colporteur, handing her a tract. She replied, "No, sir, we haven't, but they've got it awfully down at New-Oreans."

Decreed—by Garibaldi, the adoption of the decimal system for the coinage in Sicily. The new pieces bear the head of his Sardinian majesty, with the legend, "Victor Emmanuel, King of Italy."

ASTONISHING—the fact, that persons two miles from this place should be following their usual avocations and are as happy and contented, as if no secession hub-bub prevailed in Clearfield Borough.

A fair political joke is told of a man at Atlanta, Georgia, who the day before election, passed a shop and saw a card hanging up with the inscription—"Bells hung." He stopped and read the card attentively. "Bell's hung!" he exclaimed, "Bell's hung, is he? Then who the thunder will run on the Union ticket now?"

PENNSYLVANIA ITEMS.

INDIANA COUNTY.—On Sunday, 8th inst. the Carding and Dyeing establishment of Mr. Henry Barkey, in Montgomery township, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, as no fire had been in or about the building from Thursday previous. Mr. B.'s loss is estimated at one thousand dollars. . . . An old man, named Andrew Gross, a resident of Blairsville, is supposed to have missed his way in the darkness of Monday night, and fallen into the Conemaugh river, near Laurel Point, at the foot of town. Several persons, hearing some one call, went to the bank of the river, but it being much swollen by the late rains, they could afford no assistance. The calls are supposed to have proceeded from Mr. Gross, and as he has not been seen since it is presumed he was drowned. . . . On Thursday the 13th, Mr. Benjamin Warren of South Mahoning township, had a number of hands engaged thrashing grain, himself feeding the machine, when some of the machinery gave way and the revolving cylinder was thrown with great force out upon the barn floor, striking Mr. Warren, and mangled him in a horrible manner. One leg was literally ground to stems from the ankle to the knee; the other leg was broken in several places; one jaw was fractured,—besides other injuries. He died the next day. He was about 50 years of age, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Wm. Steep, of the Washington Review accompanied Mr. Sexton. The reward of $25 was paid to Dr. Lock, of Lewistown, who had come to Karthaus on a hunting excursion during the fall, and having stopped with Mr. Moore, saw the horse, and was made acquainted with the circumstance, and on his return home, seeing one of Mr. Sexton's hand-bills, informed the latter of the whereabouts of his property. STRAY STEER.—Came trespassing on the premises of the subscriber in Burnside township, about the 1st of August last, a Red Steer with white back, supposed to be three years old. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away, or he will be sold according to law. JOHN RORABAUGH. Dec. 19, 1860.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned against purchasing a note given by the undersigned on or about the middle of June last, payable six months to the order of, to Eliza M. Mullin, calling for Fifty Dollars, as no note of that date and for the same, and will not be paid unless compelled by due course of law. JOHN GREGORY. Jordan tp., Dec. 18, 1860-3tp.

LOOK HERE, GENTLEMEN!—WAGON SHOP AHEAD!!!—The subscriber thankful for past favors, takes this method of informing his old customers and the public in general, that he has removed his shop from the site of the shop formerly occupied by George W. Orr, on Second street, Clearfield, Pa., where he will continue to manufacture Wagons of every description, to order, of good material and in a workmanlike manner, such as heavy and light wagons, grain cradles, &c., made on short notice, superior in style, and of the best stock. Repairing of every kind done with dispatch, and on reasonable terms. June 29, 1859. WILLIAM R. BROWN.

$10.00!!!—RAYMOND'S PATENT SEWING MACHINE FOR TEN DOLLARS, will sell, gather, or do any kind of family sewing—and so simple that any lady can learn to operate on it in half an hour. It will make one thousand stitches in a minute, and for its superior in every respect took the First Premium at the Maine State Fair over all other Sewing Machines. A large number have been sold and are now in use in this borough (Brookville) and vicinity, and are pronounced the simplest and best machines ever invented—superior to most of the high priced sewing machines.

The undersigned having purchased the Right from the Patentee, to sell these machines in the counties of Jefferson, Clearfield, Elk, and Forest, and in the townships of Burnside, Clearfield, and Beccaria. Orders for machines will be filled in the order of their receipt. Persons wishing machines should send in their orders immediately, as we have over 30 machines already ordered in and will be ready for sale. All applications for machines or townships rights by letter or otherwise, should be addressed to A. B. McLAIN & CO., Aug. 15, 1860-1f. Brookville, Jefferson co., Pa.

Sheriff's Office, Clearfield, Dec. 17, 1860.

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1861.—PROSPECTUS.—The XXth Volume of the Weekly Tribune commenced with the issue of Sept. 1. During the past year the Tribune has been obliged to devote quite a large portion of its space to political discussions almost entirely, for months if not for years, and devote nearly all our columns to subjects of less interest, but more abiding interest. Among these we mean to pay special attention to Education. The whole subject of Education, both Popular and General, will be discussed in our columns throughout the year 1861, and we hope to elicit in that discussion some of the profoundest and ablest instructors in our country. It is our hope and our wish that the cause of Education shall receive an impetus from the exertions of The Tribune in its behalf during the year 1861.

II. AGRICULTURE.—We have been compelled to restrict our agricultural department of the great interest throughout 1860 and shall endeavor to restore therefor in 1861. Whatever discovery, deduction, demonstration, is calculated to render the reward of labor devoted to cultivation more ample or more certain, shall receive prompt and full attention.

III. MANUFACTURES, &c.—We hail every invention or enterprise whereby American Capital and Labor are attracted to and advantageously employed in any department of Manufacturing or Mechanical Industry as a real contribution to the Public Weal, insuring ampler, steadier, more extensive, more remunerating markets to the Farmer, with fuller employment and better wages to the Laborer. The progress of Mining, Iron-Making, Steel-Making, Cloth-Weaving, &c., in our country and the world, will be watched and reported by us with an earnest and active sympathy.

IV. FOREIGN AFFAIRS.—We employ the best correspondents in London, Paris, Turin, Berlin, and other European Capitals, to transmit us early and authentic intelligence of the great changes there arising and particularly pertaining to the present state of Domestic Politics, our News from the Old World is now varied and ample; but we shall have to render it more perfect during the eventful year just before us.

At Home News.—We employ regular paid correspondents in California, at the Isthmus of Darien, in the Rocky Mountain gold region, or wherever else they seem requisite. From the more accessible portions of our own country, we derive our information mainly from the publication of our correspondents of the Associated Press, from our exchanges, and the occasional letters of intelligent friends. We aim to print the cheapest general newspaper, with the fullest and most authentic summary of useful intelligence, that can be afforded. Hoping to "make each day a critic on the last," and print a better and better paper from year to year, as our means are steadily enlarged through the generous co-operation of our many well-wishers, we shall labor to do more, and secure a continuance of public favor.
