

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JAN. 16, 1861.

COURT is in session here this week, and has brought a large number of people to town.

DR. A. M. HILLS desires us to say that he will visit New Washington and vicinity on the week after Court, commencing with the 21st of Jan.

BIBLE SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of the Clearfield County Bible Society will be held on Friday next, at 3 o'clock P. M., at the office of Esquire Wright.

DEDICATION.—By Divine permission the new M. E. church of New Washington will be dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, Sunday Jan. 27th.

IN accordance with the action of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, a lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will be organized at New Washington, Clearfield county, on Thursday evening, Jan. 24th.

THE TIMBER BUSINESS.—We have been making some inquiries as to the probable quantity of square timber that is being made in the present winter in this county, and from what information we have gathered we judge that it is about the same as it was last winter.

PURSUANT to a call for a Union meeting, a large number of the citizens of Clearfield county, without distinction of party, met in the Court room in this Borough on Tuesday evening, January 14th.

JAMES B. GRAHAM, Esq., was called to the Chair; Ellis Irwin, Esq., Hon. W. L. Moore, Thomas Ross, Esq., George Erhard, Esq., Dr. J. G. Hartwick and Philip Hevener were selected as Vice Presidents; and G. W. Rheem, H. D. Patton and Lever Flegal, Secretaries.

S. B. Row, John F. Weaver, J. B. McEnally, L. J. Crans and Wm. M. Bahan were, on motion, appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

B. B. Wright, James Forest and George W. Rheem were appointed a committee to wait on Judge Barrett and request him to address the meeting. In the absence of this committee, Hon. John Patton was called on and made a speech appropriate to the occasion.

WHEREAS, a crisis has arisen in the history of this country which threatens the disruption of our Government, with all the untold calamities which would follow in the train; AND WHEREAS, we, the citizens of Clearfield county, in County Mass Meeting assembled, entertaining a sincere love for our Union and Constitution, and ardently desiring that the same be transmitted inviolate to future generations, do therefore resolve:

1st. That we regard the Constitution of the United States as the supreme law of the land; that we are in favor of preserving the Union as a whole, and of a firm and impartial enforcement of all the laws of the General Government.

2d. That we view with pride and pleasure the efforts that have been made, and that are still being made, by the conservative men in the Senate and House of Representatives, for an amicable adjustment of our present difficulties, and will urge upon them still to "persevere in well doing," and would assure them of our approval and hearty cooperation in the adoption of any fair and honorable measures that will restore peace, confidence and harmony to the Union.

3d. That we call upon the Senators and Representatives of Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States, without reference to party ties, to favor such an arrangement of present difficulties as will be fair and just as well to the North as to the South, and that will restore the bonds of brotherhood that until recently have united all the people of this Republic.

That all laws on the statute books of this State, in conflict with the Constitution of the United States, or in opposition to that fraternal feeling which should exist between confederated States, should be repealed at the earliest moment; and that this duty should be performed by each State regardless as to whether other States do their duty or not.

Speeches were also made by J. B. McEnally and Israel Test, Esquires, After which the meeting adjourned.

A MISSISSIPPIAN CALLS ON MR. LINCOLN, AND HAS A FRIENDLY TALK.—An old man, hailing from Mississippi, dressed in homespun, came to our city Saturday. He mingled freely with the Republican representatives, got their views, and seemed to think we were not quite so black as we were represented. He called on Mr. Lincoln, talked freely with him, and heard the President elect express his sentiments and intentions. He learned that Mr. Lincoln intended none but the kindest feelings towards the people of the South, and that he would protect the South in her just rights. He had a long conversation and went away delighted. He left the office of Mr. Lincoln in company with a friend who communicates this to us, and when outside the door he remarked, while the tears stood in his furrowed cheeks, "Oh! if the people of the South could hear what I have heard, they would love and not hate Mr. Lincoln. I will tell my friends at home, but," he added sorrowfully, "they will not believe me!" He said that he wished that every man in the South could be personally acquainted with Mr. Lincoln.—Springfield, (Ill) Journal, 7th.

CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS.

- Getting longer—the days.
Unconstitutional—to get "stippy."
A toast for winter—toast your shins.
Bad habits—the best of cast off clothing.
Popular draftsman—the Drawer of Lager.
The number of Clerks in Washington is about 1200.
Pretty waiters—the young ladies who are waiting for husbands.
See fourth page for a column of interesting facts and figures.
Favors accession—the chap who couldn't agree with his supper.
What is the worst kind of fare for a man to live on? War-fare.
Moving for a new trial—the man who is courting a second wife.
Will occur—a total eclipse of the sun on 31st of December, 1861.
Uncivil-eyes-ed—persons who are in the habit of staring at passers by.
Why is a piece of music like a Western forest? Because it is full of bars.
Why is South Carolina like a hungry eagle? Because she wants a see-see.
Yankee N' Oceans—the Atlantic and Pacific; besides any number of lakes almost as large.
A pair of torn unmentionables are like a delinquent tenant, when there's "a rent behind."

Charge their guns—the Feejee Islanders, according to the size of the person they intend to shoot at.
Hair-em scar-em fellows—the men who endeavor to look fiercely by cultivating profuse whiskers.
Gave a festival—the ladies of Waterford, in aid of the Kansas sufferers. The proceeds netted over $75.

Although Lynn provides a great many ladies' boots and shoes, all the bruce-Anns come from Ireland.
The new State flag of Louisiana has for its motto—"Equality in the Union—or, Independence out of it."

Reported—that the Dominican part of the island of Hayti has been sold to Spain for half a million dollars.

Hard run—the editor who wrote a fourth column article on a conundrum. May be, he "wants to go out," too.

Explained matters—the man who walked suspiciously unsteady, by saying that he had a tight pair of boots on.

Charleston is the only city of any prominence in the Union in which the population has decreased during the last ten years.

Took place—a wedding in "high life" in Philadelphia lately. A romantic couple were married in the steeple of Independence Hall.

Boozer says of half-way men—"They are no use—they can never get to Heaven—they are not known in hell, and are not wanted on earth."

Tom Hood says nothing spoils a holiday like a Sunday coat or a new pair of boots. To have time set easy, your garments must set the example.

When oxen lean against each other it is a sure sign they are not well matched. When lovers lean against each other, it is a sure sign they want to be.

A man lately put his dog to bed and kicked himself down stairs. He did not discover his mistake until the next morning, when he chased a cow and couldn't bark.

Popular representatives—the member from Pike and Monroe counties. The vote stood, Chas. D. Brothhead 3,144, Abr. Edinger 1, D. D. Walton 1, H. S. Mott 1, F. Keller 2.

New feature in the late annual cattle show at Birmingham, England, was a show of dogs of every known breed. Among other costly dogs was a King Charles spaniel, priced at $2,500.

Stated—that the Charleston Mercury was printed on satin, on the 20th December, 1860, containing the secession act. That will be an interesting relic for future generations to contemplate.

The peculiarities of the female constitution and the various trials to which the sex is subjected, demand an occasional recourse to stimulants. It is important, however, that these shall be of a harmless nature, and at the same time accomplish the desired end. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters is the very article. Its effects in all cases of debility are almost magical. It restores the tone of the digestive organs, infuses fresh vitality into the whole system, and gives that cheerfulness to the countenance which is the most valuable of feminine attractions. The proprietors feel flattered from the fact that many of the most prominent medical gentlemen in the Union have bestowed encomiums upon the Bitters, the virtues of which they have frequently tested and acknowledged. There are numerous counterfeits offered for sale, all of which are destitute of merit, and positively injurious to the system.

MARRIED: On the 13th inst., by J. H. Jones, Esq., Mr. Lewis Bogger to Miss Emma Seneca, both of Graham township, Clearfield county.

DIED: On the 9th Jan., Mrs. ABY ANDERSON, wife of James Anderson, of Curwensville, aged about 25 years.

On the 13th, Mr. JOHN T. IRVIN, of Bloom township, aged about 60 years.

BOOK THAT EVERY FARMER, MECHANIC AND BUSINESS MAN WANTS.—Just published, the Township and Local Laws of Pennsylvania, Compiled from the Acts of Assembly by William T. Haines, Esq., and published by Edward F. James, West Chester, Penn'a. This work contains over 400 pages of closely printed matter, and will be sold by subscription. It teaches the duties of Justices of the Peace, with forms for the transaction of their business. It teaches the duties of Constables with all the necessary forms, appearing to the office. It contains the duties of Supervisors of every County and Township in the State. It contains the mode of procedure for the laying out and opening of public and private roads, vacating and altering roads, and building of bridges, &c. It contains the Common School Law with explanations, decisions and directions, together with forms for Deeds, Bonds, Contracts, Certificates, &c. The Department of the work was compiled at Harrisburg, by Samuel P. Bates, Deputy Superintendent, and is alone worth the price of the volume to any one interested in Common Schools. It contains the duties of Township Auditors. It contains a list of the names of all the Justices of the Peace, Constables, Supervisors, and Assessors. It contains the laws in relation to Strays, Mules and Swine. It contains the laws relative to Fences and Fence Viewers. It contains the laws relative to Game Hunting, Trout and Deer. It contains the Election Laws, with all the necessary forms. It contains the Naturalization Laws, with all the necessary Forms for Application, &c., &c. It contains a list of all the Justices of the Peace, which are used in the every day transactions of business, such as Acknowledgments, Affidavits, Articles of Agreements and Contracts, Partnership, Apprentices, Assignments, Attestations, Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes, Bonds, Bills of Sale, Checks, Covenants, Deeds, Deposition, Due Bills and Produce Notes, Landlord and Tenant, Leases, Letters of Attorney, Marriage, Mortgages, Receipts and Releases. The work is bound in Law sheep, and will be sent to all subscribers, free of copy, payable on delivery of the work. The work has passed the revision of many of the best lawyers in the State and has received their unequalled approbation, a reliable book of reference upon all subjects, which it treats, and the whole is arranged in such a manner as to present a plain, concise and explicit statement of the duties of all Township Officers, as may be readily understood by any one who reads it. It is thoroughly canvassed for the work, and the support of the citizens is respectfully solicited. J. K. WALLACE, Esq., is General Agent for Clearfield county. P. S. Good canvassers wanted in all parts of this county. The work will be sent to whom a liberal compensation will be given. Applications, which must be made at an early date, addressed to the General Agent at Clearfield will receive prompt attention. Dec. 12-61.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.—The proprietors and Manufacturers of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the Bitters have cured a vast number of cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, and other ailments of the stomach, which were formerly considered incurable. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounts to over 1,000,000 bottles. This is a manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense popularity has been the result of the fact that the Bitters are a permanent and reliable remedy, and their efficacy in all cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, and other ailments of the stomach, which were formerly considered incurable. SEVEN YEARS.—The seven years of untried valiant service attending the "Cosmopolitan" has made it a household word throughout every quarter of the country. Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their tables—the most beautiful and popular engraving ever issued in this country. Its done on steel, in fine line and style, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 25 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library or parlor. The subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff's retirement to Justice Shallow's office, the recruits which have been gathered for his "ragged regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than 35 cents. It must be $1.50 in advance, and the whole country to need recommendation. It is a magnificent illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

KEEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.—Re-movals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddler Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street, nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Sings, Harness, Collars, Whips, Halters, Housings, Breachings, Side Straps, and in fact every article in the line of Saddling and Harness making. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, I solicit a continuance of the same, and a call from as many new customers as can be made. [Aug. 29, '59] GEORGE W. RHEEM.
